BIG ATTRACTIONS COMING TO LINCOLN THEATRE.

The Very Best in Motion Pictures Presented in a Special Program.

Mr. Lawrence Goldman, one of the owners and managing directors of the Lincoln Theatre is fulfilling his promise faithfully to the Colored community, by bringing for their entertainment and elevation the very best to be obtained in the film world. The theatre started out with the slogan "The Very Best" and it has been loyal to the hilt. And with it all, the Lincoln Theatre is becoming the recognized community center of our race where old and young, poor and rich, the laborer and professional come together in common cause.

All who have seen this beautiful building are complimenting the owners and appreciate greatly the filling of a long felt want—a modern, first class, comfortable and artistic place of amusement.

During the early part of the month the photo-drama "A Man's Duty" a colored drama featuring Clarence Brooks and an all star Negro cast. The film fans say that it is one of the finest pictures ever produced by a Colored company. This was confirmed by the immense crowds that packed to the opposite side of the street and the great trail of those waiting to purchase tickets—a line that extended for over a block.

Many who saw the picture the first night, came the second and third nights. It impressed them greatly. There has never before gathered such a crowd to see any entertainment in Kansas City. Mr. Goldman is now negotiating to bring the picture back for at least two more days. The editor hopes that he will be successful in doing so, as this office has been besieged with inquiries as to whether the picture will again be shown. Mr. Goldman informed a Sun reporter that he has had his office and residence phone busy since Sunday with similar inquiries.

EVERYWOMAN.

The Colored people will have the opportunity to see "Everywoman" on Sunday and Monday, April 25th and 26th. A few weeks ago this magnificent picture was playing at the Newman Theatre to overflowing houses. Of course members of our race are not admitted to the downtown theatres at which such superior plays are given. However we will now have the opportunity of seeing it in our own theatre just as fine, just as beautiful and with a musical program just as grand, as any of the downtown shows.

Georgious Morality Play.

"Thus man for Painted Vice, doth Everywoman forsake." Everywoman in the search for Love, Passion and Wealth falls her in her fervid quest. Her pilgrimage leads through the lures of a great city, its revels, sensations and pain. This spectacular extravaganza is a riot of beauty and a mirror of truth. In fact, it is a morality play, the greatest that has ever been written. Every woman, man and child should see it.

NOTICE.

To the person selling the largest number of tickets over $25.00 for "Everywoman" at the Auditorium Theatre, April 29 and 30 will be given a prize of $10.00. To the Club or organization selling the largest amount of tickets over $50.00 will be given $15.00. The contestants for the individual prize are: Mesdames Abram and Rebecca Moore.
