It will be gratifying to the many friends of Dr. J. R. A. Crossland delegate at large to the National Convention to learn that he was elected to notify the Vice-president of his nomination.

The Supreme Court of the United States has finally decided the case of the Grand Lodge of Virginia against the Supreme Lodge K. O. P. in favor of the Supreme Lodge, thus sustaining the position of Supreme Chancellor Green.

'Out of the night that covers me, Black as the pit from pole to pole, I thank whatever gods may be For my unconquerable soul. 'T matters not how strait the gate, How charged with punishments the scroll, 'I am the master of my fate, 'I am the captain of my soul.'

Perhaps there are no members of the race in this city doing more real constructive work to advance business and financial standing of the race than Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Lee, proprietors of the famous Palace Drug Store at 12th and Woodland avenue. Within the year they have purchased two of the best corners in the colored territory at 12th and Highland and 12th and Woodland and their Drug Store is doing what it should in a Negro locality, a wonderful business. Much of their success is due to the pleasant and business like manner of both Mr. and Mrs. Lee who take pleasure in personally serving their patrons.

'BLACK BILLY SUNDAY.'

'Speaking of 'jiffie,' 'aping,' and 'monkeydom,' if there is one instance of all these combined that should be disgusting and nauseating to intelligent colored folks, it ought to be this 'Black Billy Sunday' rot. In the first place, the Negro should stop playing the ape anyhow, whether it be the 'aping' of a 'Billy Sunday' or of Charles Spurgeon. The curse of the race today is in its seeking its ideals outside instead of within the race. Whoever heard of a white preacher styling himself the 'White' C. T. Walker, or a white educator calling himself the 'White' Booker T. Washington? The ideal preacher among white people is a white preacher; and ordinarily, so scrupulous are they in guarding their ideals that if they perchance speak of 'black' beauty, it is in a horse, and not in a Negro. But for the Negro the ideal color is WHITE color; the ideal hair is 'straight' hair; the ideal doctor is a white doctor; the ideal merchant is a white merchant; the ideal doll for his child is a white doll, with blue eyes, and so on ad nauseam! Finally, what is there to inspire any self-respecting minister of the Gospel to ape, either in word or deed, that ministerial mountebank; that ministerial hypocrite; that Jim-crow wind-jammer. The great 'Black Billy Sunday,' halt!

KEEP OFF THE GRASS.

In the territory occupied by our people the Park Board has reseeded and beautified all of the waste places that were disfigured by the tramping of hundreds of irresponsible people over the grass plots and flower beds, and every Negro who appreciates the fitness of things should appoint himself a committee of one to assist in keeping these tools and loafers who have no respect for appearance off the grass. If you can't do it, call an officer.

the convention. There is no pussy-footing and no whispering in the character of the campaign Howard is waging, and it is believed he will win his fight. Bob Church from Memphis, urbane and gracious as usual, is also upon the scene full arrayed in fighting tops to the latest cut. He says but little yet, whenever his contest is mentioned, there comes a momentary flare of indignation to his handsome face which augurs ill for his enemies. Dr. Ferguson and the rest of the Virginia men came to town Saturday, eager for the scrap and they were closely followed by the South Carolina 'Black and Tan' equally ready for the fray. Henry Lincoln Johnson and Ben himself, got here Tuesday, took off their coats, rolled up their shirt sleeves and calmly announced 'We are here!' By the end of the week the city will be full of fighting delegations and contests will then be the order of the days until the convention starts.

'Colored Chicago' will outdo itself in the entertainment it has planned for the delegates. The Appomattox Club is the leader in this program, a long line of the prominent men and women in the city have been enlisted in the cause and, as a consequence, the visitors will be given the 'time of their lives.' The Associated Negro Press will entertain the press members and has planned a banquet for the pen wielders of the 'Fourth Estate' that will be a heart-breaker in its way.

Headquarters. The Appomattox Club house in Grand Boulevard, the Vincennes Hotel at 36th Street and Vincennes Avenue, and the Idlewild Hotel at Wabash Avenue and 36th Street, will be the principal headquarters for the various groups of delegates and visitors.

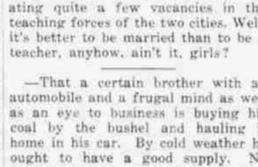

Betty & Sam's Little Corner

THEY SAY

-That good clothes should be accompanied by a good character. -That a fellow never knows how little he can live on until he spends down to his last dime. -That whenever you see a man who is envied, you may count upon him as being one who is feared. -That one swallow may not make a summer, but a dozen have been known to make a man drunk. -That the kind of Colored baseball we are getting now in Kansas City is the kind we've been hoping for for years. -That it is not the man who loves a woman but the man who loves WOMEN who causes the most disturbance. -That it isn't always the Negro politician who gets the money in political campaigns, judging from the recent disclosures in the investigation now going on.
