"THE DEAD KNOW NOTHING."

In the midst of life we are in the shadow of death. So it is just as important that we consider in time and acquaint ourselves with those who look after our loved ones and guarantee good care and proficient service, up-to-date in every respect and who profits by his own mistakes as well as the oversight and short-comings of others in the same profession. So remember our Saviour's admonition to "Be ye also ready for ye know not the day nor the hour when the summons shall come." Our old Kansas City popular undertaker, A. T. Moore, for many years was located at 1350 East Eighteenth St. It is really the first man of his race to own a business building on Eighteenth street, who during the war was compelled to suspend for lack of proper assistance, has again resumed business at the southeast corner of 17th and Holmes streets, owing to the fact that his own building was rented for other purposes. Mr. Moore's friends are glad to know of his reopening and knowing full well his superior ability as an embalmer and director, they again turn to their first loved in that line of work, as he is second to none; for those who know him know he has brought the profession up to its present standing and is now doing good business at reasonable rates; his past experience has made him more proficient as well as prudent. He does no personal soliciting with fruits, flowers and so on, with the expectation of getting the remains, but with professional ethics deals fairly and squarely with everyone and with an ever charitable heart to those who might come to him for help, confidential advice or economical counsel and he is no farther from you than your nearest Bell Telephone. His number is Grand 118, day or night; absolute privacy and exclusion from curious persons guaranteed.

He is glad to see and meet you while you are living, and though your enemies may be glad to hear of your death, our loved ones will be pleased to view our peaceful countenance in case of death if the body is prepared for burial by A. T. Moore.

An unusually large and brilliant audience was in attendance at this church all day Sunday. At the morning services our pastor, Rev. S. C. Doyle, delivered a powerful sermon, which held the congregation spell-bound while he told of God's Love and goodness. At 3:00 p. m. little Willie Smith, 8 years old, gave a splendid talk. All present enjoyed the discourse. There were four additions for the day; proceeds were also excellent. Come out and worship with us. Everybody is welcome.

The First Sunday in the month was given over to the General Class; many spoke in behalf of their Spiritual welfare, thanking God for His good gifts and blessings bestowed upon them. The pastor and wife attended Quarterly Meeting services at Bethel A. M. E. Church at 3 o'clock. There will be two big entertainments this month for the benefit of St. John; one June 18th, the other June 25th. You are invited to attend.

PROGRESSIVE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Both services were well attended. Rev. C. W. Jones preached a grand sermon in the morning and we had many visitors present. Sunday School was good. Our superintendent was able to be with us again. At 6:30 B. Y. P. U. was good and a new President was elected. At 8:30 preaching again. One addition to the church. The Young Minister's Alliance closed their week's program last Friday night which was excellent. Brother Jessie Duckett, a member of this church, was very badly scalded at the Packing Plant and is at Bethany Hospital in Kansas City, Kas. Everybody is cordially invited to all of our services.

EBENEZER CHURCH.

The pastor, Rev. W. T. Osborne, preached a powerful sermon from the 50th Psalm 21 verse, subject "False Notions of God and the Christian Religion." Eleven persons came forward; six united with the church; prayer was offered for the other five. Rev. E. R. Vaughn delivered the sermon at 3 o'clock. "Why halt ye, between two opinions." It was logical and full of food for thought. Three persons united with the church. Class No. 19, Brother William Richardson, leader, is banner this week. The Evens are still in the lead. The big contestant report will be made Tuesday evening, June 15. Let every leader and every member rally to the Evens captain, Mrs. Sewell and the Odd captain, Miss Thatcher. Pay your five dollars; if you can't pay five dollars, pay something. Don't let a single member of Ebenezer be a blank. The Willing Workers were royally entertained by Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Osborne, Wednesday. This club was the first to give fifty dollars in the Rally. They are preparing for a big Baby Contest July 6. Don't forget "The Perplexing Situation," the comedy drama by the Art Club, July 2. Messrs. J. T. Collins, W. W. Watkins, Lee Johnson, T. A. Ross and Bledsoe are the men who are taking part with the Art Club ladies, and it is going to be an interesting treat. Mrs. Hattie Brown accompanied by Mrs. Ethel Allen, Messrs. Thomas Hayes and L. King will leave on the 16th for Sherman, Texas, and will be the guests of her sister, Mrs. Ada Lee. Mr. and Mrs. James Stephenson and Mrs. Ethel Kemp spent Sunday in Lawrence, Kans. After worshipping at the A. M. E. Church, where Brother Stephenson electrified the audience with his Gospel singing, they were dinner guests of Mrs. Rodgers. After dinner Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Miller gave them a pleasant sight-seeing trip over the city in an auto. Ebenezer regrets very much to lose Mrs. Anna Washington and her son, Henry, who are going to St. Joseph to live. Mrs. Washington was a devoted Christian worker and always led in the Who-So-Ever Will Club campaigns, both in donating work and selling tickets. Henry was one of the bright stars in the Sunday School and Junior Endeavor and was always depended upon when it came to making a showing for the Sunday school and Endeavor. We will miss them. Our loss will be St. Joseph's gain. Mrs. Mattie M. Farmer of Carrollton, Mo., is the guest of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Stephenson. Mrs. M. A. Ford invites the members of Ebenezer to attend her play for the benefit of her Temple at the Auditorium Friday, June 18th. Mrs. Ford has liberally assisted Ebenezer, selling one time $90 worth of tickets. She also stands by the other temples and Ebenezer will do her part in returning past assistances.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

Large congregations were out all day last Sunday. We were very glad to see our pastor at his post after several weeks of absence. Dr. Baccote preached a great sermon last Sunday morning to the graduates of Lincoln High School. Our Auditorium was filled. The Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. are progressing nicely. The evening services were devoted to the Lord's Supper and Covenant Meeting which was largely attended. During the day eight souls were added to the church. The B. Y. P. U. had a fine "hike" last Sunday. Everybody is invited to join the B. Y. P. U. in its trip to the home of Aged and Infirm Negroes next Sunday. Brother Drew, Mrs. Lucky, Mrs. Diamond and Brother Williams will leave June 19th for Washington, D. C. to attend the National B. Y. P. U. Congress.

VINE ST. BAPTIST CHURCH.

All services were well attended. There were a great many strangers as usual. We welcome them to our church and school. We were indeed cheered sorry to learn of the death of Mr. Nelson Bowman's son. We extend to the family our warmest sympathies and hope for them a brighter day. The sick are reported better at this writing. Prof. Howell visited our school and made a fine address, subject "Early Training." It was indeed fine. We hope he will come again. Prof. Marsden will lecture the 12th. Don't fail to hear him at 3 p. m. Miss Mable was compelled to be absent on account of the death of her father. We extend to the family our warmest sympathies and hope for them brighter days. The Reception committee made their semi-annual report beginning December 28, 1919. They reported 184 visitors having been present. They are doing a great work. We hope them continued success. Mr. Ned Carter, Chairman; Mrs. Ella Lawson, Sec.; Mrs. Malinda Webb will spend the week visiting her daughter, Miss Carrie Webb in Omaha, Nebr. We hope her a fine time. Mrs. Lillie Johnson spent last week visiting her relatives in Kansas. She has returned and we were glad to see her.
