SAMBO-POLLARD COMEDY.

FOOD FOR FANS.

By Chas. Starks.

The local kings took the series of games in nice consecutive order from the giant men from the great city by the lake. The Monarchs, as the name indicates, are playing ball like real kings of their cult. And everything points to a high mark in organized baseball machinery within their club by the time they play the mighty Rube Foster, with his bunch of keen cutters. The slogan is fast crystallizing among Kansas City fans to the effect that "Rube must fall!" It is generally believed that our boys did not get just a fair deal in the breaks or decisions when they played the black yanks in their home town in the early season. The boys are hoping to see out play these fellows when they meet here ELK WEEK that their very clean manner will prove a sweet revenge. The Chicago Giants, often confused with the American Giants. Rube's team, came for a five game series last Saturday morning. These boys played some tight ball in the various contests for supremacy. But, like others, finally succumbed to the baffling wariness of our pitchers and the strong assaults of our batsmen.

Saturday's Game.

Our boys took this game with graceful habit. The Giants show up fair, and will no doubt offer some positive opposition tomorrow. In today's game the Monarchs scored two in the first session, one in the third, three in the fifth and one in the sixth. Bus Gordon manipulated a double play in this number. McNair kindly favored the audience in the last half of the same. Currie was on the mound for the locals and performed with usual effectiveness. The batting is up to standard.

Sunday's Game Broke Two Records!

Fans agree on two things relative to the game today. They are: the crowd—as the largest, and the game, as being the best. The Monarchs won, but by a close margin. The game was featured by a brilliant pitchers' duel between Currie and Taylor, the local star winning in the final count, one to nothing. Yes, Currie was in his prime for the occasion. In the seventh round he retired the visitors by fanning three giants in succession, the marvel of this is that the feat was accomplished by using only eleven throws. Harper, the Monarchs' heavy hitting rightfielder, electrified the crowd by catching a long drive in the sixth inning. The catch was made, and netted a double play as a runner, going to third, miscalculated and died with the batter.

Don't forget there are two valiant human machines opposed in this game. From the very first inning they both have gone to bat and they came away often hitless and constantly scoreless. The tension of the crowd is great. Things are now hushed, quiet, suspending on the action of the pitcher and batter. If he connects with the ball the touch of a dynamo, and emit a tremendous yell if the connection offers the probability of a run to break the deadlock. "Some game," they say, "this is rich," others exclaim. The Monarchs don't seem to have any particular Jew on Taylor, who is officiating for the Giants. It is tit for tat between him and Currie, the latter extricating himself out of several menacing positions. Finally, the last half of the eighth inning is reached. It is dramatic, as in this session somebody scored. It was the Monarchs! Portland, having succeeded to third, ran in home when McNair batted to first. As the Giants failed to score in the ninth, they suffered a well fought SHUT OUT.

Monday's Game.

The first official act of the Monarchs was to knock the stuffings out of the ball in the initial round. McDovel, hurling for the Giants, went down at once from the onslaught, allowing three runs. Davis, relieving him, fared worse, dropping four runs. And Chase, the third pitcher suffered the other six runs during his administration. Donaldson made a clever catch and batted a homer by way of climax.

Tuesday's Game.

The Monarchs won today's game when "Pluvius" shed his copious tears. The rain caught the game in the last half of the sixth session, finding the score 10 to 3 in favor of the mighty locals. The Monarchs tried out both a new pitcher and catcher, Smith and Ray. Both went good. Smith let the Giants down with six hits, while the Monarchs amassed twelve off the Giant's pitcher. McNair put one over the right field fence for his homer today. Harper tripped in the fifth. Mendez grabbed a hot line drive in the sixth and cleverly doubled out runner at first.

Wednesday's Game.

A single by Mendez in the tenth round which scored Crawford, gave the Monarchs a clean sweep in the series with the Chicago Giants today. Taylor and Crawford engaged in a pitchers' duel for nine innings, the Monarchs' heaver striking out eleven visitors and yielding only four scattered base knocks. White Taylor was nicked for seven blows, no two of which came in the same inning. Giants . . . . .000000000 0

ARMOUR STARS AGAINST JEFFERSON CITY.

The Armour Stars and the Red Sox of Jefferson City played ball last Saturday and Sunday. The Saturday game was won by the Armour's in 12 innings by a 6 to 5 score, while the Red Sox won the Sunday game with a score of 10 to 4. The Armour's were also beaten in a morning game Sunday by the Cubs (white) by a score of 14 to 7.

This beautiful and serviceable car cost Mr. Bell $4,350.00 cash and he will place at the wheel the old reliable Bill Page.

Mr. Charles Harris, secretary of the B. L. P. I. Union of America who was chairman of a committee to secure funds for the purchase of a car for Rev. T. H. Ewing, pastor of the Vine Street Baptist Church, took but a short time to get the "wherewith" together and at once went to this reliable firm and purchased a Ford Touring car.

Mrs. May King of the Paseo Hotel purchased a Ford truck.

PERRIN-HENDERSON COMPANY.

Coming to Kansas City for Limited Engagement.

Famous Eastern Revue Will Play at Lincoln Theater.

Mr. Lawrence E. Goldman, one of the owners of the Lincoln Theater, has just returned from an Eastern trip. He has brought back some good news and big surprises for the colored community of Kansas City. The good news is that Kansas City is going to get from now on all of the big musical revues and dramatic stock companies that have been playing in all of the big cities along the coast. The surprises are the names of the Big Shows that he has booked for the Lincoln Theater.

Mr. Goldman does not intend to withdraw from the exhibition of motion pictures but rather, will hit harder than ever in securing the Big Features, and among those coming are William S. Hart in "The Toll Gate," Georges Carpentier in the "Wonder Man," "The Fortune Teller," "Terror Island," and many other super-productions. But he is going to do this: Show a big feature bill together with musical comedies and dramatic stock companies. No theater in the country catering to the colored people are giving their patrons the wonderful, entertaining presentations as will be shown at the Lincoln. By stock company, Mr. Goldman, wishes that it be properly understood that they will not be local talent dramatic clubs, but that they will be the seasoned and experienced stars of the colored stage who have been playing dramatic stock year in and year out.

The first show will be an excellent musical comedy—a real extravaganza—which has been highly praised by the stage critics Perrin-Henderson Company composed of eighteen artists of superior ability. It is up-to-the-minute in all of its songs and gags, beautiful new costumes, special scenery and stage effects, full of real, clean comedy, classy dancing and wonderful singing. The principals are bright, clever headliners. The girls are pretty and graceful. A nifty chorus and a snappy story—everything that goes to make a splendid entertainment. As stated, besides this Revue, a feature picture will also be shown. All in all it's going to be a bright, snappy bill full of pep and go, but in no instance will there be anything said or done that will offend good taste and propriety.

The Perrin-Henderson Co. will change their bill twice each week, the "Broadway Revue" will start Monday, July 5th, and the bill will be changed the following Thursday with another comedy drama. There will be two shows every evening, the first beginning at 7:15 and the second show at 9:15.
