

Among the Churches

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad and loving memory of our dear mother, Rosa May, who joined that heavenly host 9 years ago, August 30, 1911. Sweet memories of her good and saintly life. Come as blessings to our wounded hearts. Sadly missed by children, Lennie May Gilliam, Walter May.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.
Miss Anna Grey, the sweet soprano singer, who leaves soon to resume her studies in a Chicago College of Music, will sing in the Second Baptist church next Sunday morning. Don't miss this grand treat.

CHRISTIAN ORGANIZATION.

A number of Christian workers met at Mrs. Lackey's residence, 2613 Highland and organized a Bible study. Class officers elected as follows: President, Mrs. H. W. Lackey; First Vice-President, Mrs. E. C. Cosby; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. R. O. Johnson; Recording Secretary, Miss L. B. Redmon; Asst. Secretary, Mrs. Bertha Chilton; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Nellie Sanderson; Enrollment Secretary, Mrs. E. M. Burnside; Treasurer, Mrs. Lula Proctor; Instructor, Mrs. J. C. Patton; Chorister, Mr. R. O. Johnson; Pianist, Mrs. R. O. Johnson; District President of the Women's Work, Mrs. M. E. Goins as Secretary; President of the Sunday School Convention, Rev. J. C. Patton, installed the officers after which Cherry Ice and Cake were served to all.

ST. JOHN A. M. E. CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. Bell, Pastor.

Services at St. John were well attended. A revival is being carried on with the Rev. A. B. Harris in the pulpit. Sunday school is growing. The funeral of Mr. Clinton Arrington, a member of St. John church, was held Friday afternoon, Rev. J. C. Bell officiating. The Pastor's Aid Club met at the home of Mrs. A. M. Allen, 1724 Holly, entertained by Mr. A. D. Parson in honor of Mrs. Nellie Williams, Little Rock, Ark.; Mrs. L. Wilson, Cleveland, Ohio; Miss Pearl Wallace and Mr. Henry McBane. Leavenworth, Kans. A five course lunch was served. Tea roses were used in decorating. On leaving each guest was presented with an American beauty rose.

Chilli-Jeff's.

Mr. Charles H. Barry of a Washington, D. C., was born in New York City and reared and educated in the Public and High Schools of Washington, D. C. By perseverance Mr. Barry has forged his way to the front and easily ranks as one of the most successful business men of the capitol city. He is President of the World Wonder Oil and Gas Company of Washington, with offices located at 2522 Mozart Place, N. W. He has personally inspected the oil fields in Oklahoma and Kansas to furnish authentic information. Mr. Barry is a member of Columbia Lodge, I. B. P. O. E. of W., No. 85, Washington, and was a delegate to the National Convention in Kansas City last week. He is also a Knight of Pythias, a job contractor of cement work, and gang leader of the Washington Terminal Company. He has a beautiful home and is surrounded by an intelligent and amiable wife and 5 beautiful children. To Mrs. Barry's wise counsel he largely attributes his success in business. Those desiring to purchase stock please see the President, Mr. Barry or Mr. Joseph Fleming, Secretary, 1382 Morris Road, S. E., Washington, D. C.

The Elk's Band of the Great Lakes Lodge, I. B. P. O. E. of W., No. 43, of Chicago, Ill., deserves special mention, from its leader, Mr. Arthur T. Steward, down to its 33 talented musicians of which it is composed. The Drum Major, Mr. Jesse Cash, was one of the parade. In his garb of spotless white, together with his striking physique and graceful movements, he was the center of attraction.

Great Lakes is one of the largest lodges in the United States, having an enrollment of 1,100 members. This delegation numbered 500 and brought over 14 coaches. Its officers are as follows: Mr. Leslie Ash, Exalted Ruler, Mr. J. Gifford, Secretary; Mr. C. W. Harris, Treasurer. We thank Mr. A. L. Obannon for the information given us.

Mrs. Minnie Blackshear of 1707 E. 15th Street, Los Angeles, Calif., and who was a delegate to the National Convention of Elk's is one of our "Missouri Girls" who has made good and who has scaled the pinnacle of success. She is reputed the wealthiest colored woman in California and her palatial mansion is indeed a thing of beauty. Mrs. Blackshear is a great Race woman and is identified in all the movements for the uplift of the Race. She is a member of the following organizations: H. H. of Ruth; S. M. T.; P. W. C. of Calanthe; U. K. of A.; I. O. L.; Knights and Daughters of Tabors; Vice Dis Ruler of Hiawatha Temple, Los Angeles, Calif. Mrs. Blackshear is also a delegate to the A. U. K. and D. of A. at Quincy, Ill., and the B. M. C. at New York City. She will tour the east before returning to California.

Chilli-Jeff's.

The Courts and Lodges of K. P. E. W. H. gave a reception in honor of Mrs. George N. Warner, P. G. W. C.; Mrs. Mamie Blackshear, W. C. T. U.; Mrs. Fingers, Supreme Dep. R., all of Los Angeles, Calif., Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. Helen Ashcraft, 2526 Highland avenue. The house was beautifully decorated in Pythian colors, ferns and cut flowers. Mrs. Nannie Street was chairman of the reception committee and was assisted by one or more ladies from each Court. Mrs. Daisy Marshall, G. W. C., was Mistress of Ceremonies; Sir C. L. Drew, Toastmaster; Rev. Paton, Grand Chancellor, and Mrs. Georgie Bladock, P. G. W. C., responded to the visitors. All departed saying they had spent a pleasant evening. Over one hundred were in attendance.

Mrs. J. O. Kingsberry, Orange Kingsberry Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Kingsberry, 2414 Montgall Avenue, enlisted in the 24th Infantry for one year's training. He is now stationed at Columbus, New Mexico, Kid Orange writes home that he is enjoying army life and his training immensely.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.
All services were well attended. There were a great many strangers. We were indeed glad to see them and hope they will come again. Rev. Harris of Independence, Mo., preached Sunday night. The sermon was enjoyed by all. We thank the brother for his service. Mrs. Carmel Hollis could not attend services on account of illness. Her many friends hope for her a speedy recovery. We were indeed sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Lottie Ruskin. She was a charter member of our church. We extend heartfelt sympathies to her relatives and many friends and hope their future will be brightened with success. Mr. and Mrs. Jones of Chicago, Ill., are visiting Mrs. P. L. Blackwell, her sister. We wish them a pleasant stay in our city.

Major N. Clark Smith's great Cole-ridge Taylor Glee Club will appear on the Florence Cole-Talbert program, Auditorium Theatre, September 16.—Tickets Grand 2141.
