

THE KANSASCITY SUN PUBLISHED WEEKLY

All communications should be addressed to The Kansas City Sun, 1503 East 18th Street. Bell Phone East 999.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: One Year $2.00 Six Months 1.50 Three Months .80 Canada and Foreign Countries $1.00 additional.

Our special rate starts Wednesday.

We want $5,000 new subscribers by 1921. Will you help us? Send The Sun to your relatives and friends for a New Year's gift. They'll appreciate it.

Don't disappoint your family Xmas. Arrange for that motor car today with the Roberts Company, 1509 E. 18th St., 2nd floor. Bell Clifton 3172. Open Sunday 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Terms to suit you on new or used cars.

The Colored Chamber of Commerce has before it possibilities for much constructive work during the coming year and the Sun sincerely hopes it will lend its efforts to acquire as much business property on Eighteenth street and on Vine street as they can possibly buy. If they don't buy it, the Greek and Jewish merchants will crowd them out.

Nearly all the leading Negro Journals of the country have raised their prices during the past year. The Chicago Defender is 10 cents a copy or $4 a year; the Baltimore American is 7 cents a copy; the Omaha Star is 10 cents a copy; the Denver Star is $2.50 a year. But The Sun, one of the best published, still is five cents a copy or $2.00 per year. Can you beat it?

The Homestead Development Association, a new corporation doing business in our city, but with an established reputation in Michigan and the Northwest, publishes an article in this week's paper that should be carefully read and should have the earnest consideration of every member of our racial group who is desirous of improving their financial condition. Their representatives are men of the highest type and their prospectus particularly appeals to hard-headed, sober, progressive and determined men and women who believe that the future holds splendid opportunities in store for them. Read their announcement.

Betty & Sam's Little Corner

THEY SAY

—That there's no fool like an old fool. Aw don't all holler amen at once. —That sins are like chemicals, the more you analyze them the worse they smell. —That "there's no place like home." As anybody who spends some time elsewhere. —That a fireless cooker may be all right, but a fireless heater. Good Lord deliver us! —That a bunch of society dames are playing poker one afternoon each week. Sure enough? —That the guy who thinks himself smart is usually the biggest fool in town. Hush up Betty. —That most men are not tempted; they go around looking for that which gets them into trouble. —That a friend who lends you more money when you're broke is more worthy of praise than any hero on the battlefield. —That the fellow who can't deliver the goods doesn't get any sympathy unless he appeals to the old fellows who alone know how it is. —That the fellows who have been living by their "wits" last summer are going to do some tail scrambling for pork chops this winter. —That if you fail to take advantage of our special rate which begins December 15, don't blame anybody but yourself for having to pay full subscription rate. —That now men are fighting for their right of suffrage because they claim that there can never be any real equality between sexes until they are permitted to search the pockets and "banks" of their wives as they do them.
