Selling Books by Subscription.

The method of selling books by subscription has many advantages over any other, and is daily growing in importance and popularity. By this method the attention of the purchaser is called to valuable books of which he might remain in entire ignorance if they were sold in any other way. It is the most direct and altogether the most economical way to buy books. Books purchased at a retail book store have generally passed through the hands of from two to four middle men, each of whom must have a profit. The Riverside Publishing Co., St. Louis Mo., offers profitable employment to all who wish to engage in the business. Experience is not necessary, but any lady or gentleman with intelligence and industry can make a success of the work. Their publications are first class, just such books as our young people and our older people should read—books that tend to make intelligent men and women; books that teach people things that they ought to know; such books as a selected Family Bible, which is in itself a perfect encyclopedia of biblical knowledge; Hingham's History of the United States; The People's Encyclopedia of the World; The People's Encyclopedia of the World; a wonderful success; 100,000 copies of this splendid encyclopedia, made and edited especially for the masses, have been sold, and the sale is still very large. They also handle the Red Letter Life of the Republic, Stanley Equator, The Pioneer History of America, The People's Farm and Stock Encyclopedia, The Physical Life of Both Sexes, Geography, Love and Wedlock, and History of the Grand Army of the Republic. Another splendid book, averaging a fifteen hundred sets a month, is Hingham's Encyclopedia of Universal History, a book that is bound to be read by tens of thousands of scholars, and by those who lay no claim to scholarship, and who yet love a clear, straightforward, understandable record of the great events of the world's history. The popularity of this book is something wonderful.

For further particulars, circulars, terms to agents, etc., address:

THE RIVERSIDE PUBLISHING CO.,
201 Olive St. ST. LOUIS, MO.

In this issue of THE REPUBLICAN, we publish an extract from the new road law.

Messrs. Baber & Moore have dissolved co-partnership. Mr. Baber will continue the business.

Mr. Geo. B. Miller received a severe fracture of the shoulder by a fall last Sunday evening.

Special attention is called to the advertisement of J. T. Wells & Co., on the first page of this paper.

The treasurer's investigation has brought to this city during the past week a great many democratic politicians.

The idea of an ice famine here this year is abandoned when it is said ice is received here from the northern lakes at less than $3 per ton.

Mr. Clem A. Ware has recently added some of the finest outfits and stock to his livery that could be found in the best markets.

A marriage license was issued Tuesday to Mr. E. E. Blackburn of Howard county, and Amelia E. Boilett of Boone's Mill. THE REPUBLICAN wishes them a happy and prosperous future.

The past week would have been one of a bountiful harvest for the wood dealers of this city if their supply of wood had not entirely exhausted last week.

There is some luck in leisure. The old market house has been kicked at for several years without hope of its early disappearance, but relief has come at last.

The people are not willing to submit to whitewash in too many instances. "The responsibility" of "unfortunate affairs" usually drop upon the shoulders of the honest people.

The officers to be elected in Missouri in November next are fourteen congressmen, state superintendent of public schools, supreme court judge, railroad commissioner, members of the legislature and county officers.

Grading on the river route commenced this week at Booneville by Moran Bros., who have a contract for grading ten miles of the new line from Booneville this way.

The old market house is rapidly disappearing, and its obstruction will soon give place to the continuous beautiful appearance of that part of High street.

School teachers should address Mr. H. A. Gass of this city for sample copies of the "Missouri School Journal" if they are not getting it regularly. It is one of the prime assistants to teachers.

We would be pleased to have friends of this paper order legal publications sent to this office when they have such to publish. Such as executor's, administrator's, or guardian's notices or sales, orders of publication, etc.

Mr. Wilson Lockett died at his home near Wardsville last Sunday of pneumonia. He was well known in this county and leaves many friends to mourn his early demise. He leaves a wife, a daughter of our respected townsman, Mr. C. Staats, and three children.

Mr. John H. Diecks has tendered his resignation as judge of the probate court of this county. He has made an excellent judge, and all who have had official business with him will regret his resignation. The governor will fill the vacancy by appointing it until the next election.

Republicans, come to the front with your candidates for councilmen, and elect them. This city has endured "No politics in city offices" to its satisfaction. Every man in this city is aware of the present status of the city's "non-political" official standing of the result.

The time has come when the republicans should elect aldermen to the city council. The recent past is enough to urge the party to do something for the improvement of the city's interests, and the only visible prospect is to elect councilmen that will take hold in harmony with the mayor and do something. The people are beginning to ask why they are compelled to pay city taxes.

The burden of comment in the democratic country papers on the shortage in the state treasury is: "The state can lose no money even if Nolan, on investigation, is found to be short. His bond is 'gilt edged.'" This speaks well for the bond and the state treasury, but it still leaves the democracy in a hole. The treasurer is in a bad box, likewise his bondsmen, but the worst plight is that in which their party finds itself. In the language of Tom Hood, it has "met with many a breeze before, but never such a blow."

Under the management of Henry Kroeger, superintendent.

PHILIPP OTT,
Secretary and treasurer Jefferson City Brick Company, Jefferson City, Mo., February 27, 1890.

Mr. F. M. Taggart of Marion, was in the city Tuesday on business.

Mr. John K. Ott gave this office a pleasant call Tuesday. Mr. Ott is one of our reliable and enterprising farmers.

Mr. Louis F. Bachman of near Osage Bluff, will sell at public auction on the 26th inst., all his personal property, household furniture, etc.

At the citizens' meeting at the court house last Friday evening, the Second ward reported subscribed for the G. A. R. fund $2,500. Other committees were not ready to report. Sheriff T. B. Mahan was added to the committee of the First ward, Frank Lucas and Geo. Porth to the Third, and John P. Rathel to the Fourth.

Regarding the bond of State Treasurer Noland the Globe Democrat says editorially: "Noland's bond represents $802,000 on its face. It is not, however, a legal bond. The law requires that bondsmen shall qualify only on the amount of real estate which they own. It is doubtful if there is $100,000 worth of real estate in the whole amount of Mr. Noland's security."

CORRESPONDENCE

ELSTON ITEMS.

Mr. Bud Mahan and wife were in Elston Sunday.

J. W. Scruggs has been in Elston since Sunday.

The family of J. J. Shrike left here for their new home in Sedalia last Friday.

Mr. Lakamp, who resides south of town, made a trip to the capital city Monday.

Revs. I. W. Thompson and E. Y. Gynn left Monday on the west-bound train for their homes. Rev. B. T. Tipton also departed for his home in Russellville, Mo.

Mr. Lockwood, who resided on Dan Wade's farm, has recently moved near Jefferson City, was in Elston Saturday on business. Mr. Lockwood is a die-hard wool republican.

Mr. Z. T. Goodall and wife, who are both just recovering from a severe spell of sickness, were able to attend church Monday for the first time since the protracted meeting has been going on.

Mr. B. Lakamp, the furniture kug and merchant of Elston, has largely increased his dry goods department with a well selected stock of dress goods, and we are glad to note that he is enjoying a good share of the surrounding custom.

The protracted meeting closed Monday. Rev. I. G. Thompson did most of the preaching. His discourses were able and instructive and were greatly appreciated by all who had the pleasure of hearing him, and we trust will result in much good for both saint and sinner. There were 18 or 20 professions during the meeting. There were 8 additions to the Presbyterians and 4 to the Methodist churches and others we presume, who will join some church. The Baptist minister, Mr. Shelton, was not present at the close of the meeting, but at their next regular meeting those who desire to join that church will have an opportunity to do so.

The citizens of Elston and vicinity met last Saturday for the purpose of considering the matter of purchasing more ground to be added to the cemetery at this place before enclosed by the contemplated new fence. The cemetery is about filled and it is very important to secure more ground. J. W. Pace presided over the meeting. A. Routsong, J. N. Collett and J. T. McKinney were appointed as a committee to negotiate with parties owning land adjoining the cemetery to purchase or arrange to purchase for the use of cemetery. A committee consisting of J. M. Routsong, F. M. Tripp and S. A. Pace was appointed to estimate cost of fence and recommend kind of fence. Another meeting will be held Saturday to hear the report of these committees and take action on same. Octavius was appointed treasurer and authorized to collect subscription for the proposed new fence to enclose the cemetery. We are glad to see the people taking action on the matter, and hope soon to see Elston cemetery enlarged and surrounded with a good fence.

PLEASANT MOUNT ITEMS.

Presuming a few items from this place or county will be acceptable, I send you the following:

James Garten, jr., has returned from Kansas.

Small fruits are reported killed by the recent cold weather.

The roads are very muddy, making travel with any kind of vehicle a wearisome task.

Miss Ida Johnston of this place, was married to Seldon Hoyer of Aurora Springs, March 5.

Henry Tracy and Perry Jones started recently for Illinois, where they propose to reside for some time.

Arthur Brockman returned here from the other side of the Osage river last Saturday, where he has been teaching school.

At last we hear no more of the plague "La grippe," guess everybody has had it, as it was very general and impartial here—visited all alike.

Many of the G. A. R. members and others are anticipating a good time in Jefferson City in April, when the encampment meets.

We regret to learn that H. King Enloe, for so many years' salesman for the firm of Wieceke & Erhardt of Olean, will soon take up his abode in Versailles.

Our town has three medical students attending college in St. Louis, two of them will graduate in June, the other some time later, as he entered later.

Mr. Maj Harrison is adding to his stock fine imported animals, and is a successful farmer and stock dealer, besides having been for several years a faithful and competent public officer.

Mrs. W. T. Franklin and daughter, Mrs. R. S. Spalding, went to Bagnell last Tuesday to visit relatives there, especially James Franklin, who recently broke his leg in St. Louis. They returned on Thursday.

The many friends and acquaintances of Editor and Postmaster J. F. Mount of Versailles, and Miss Annie Caster, late of Olean, were surprised and pleased to hear of their marriage last Thursday evening, March 6, at Versailles.

We understand a new millinery store will be opened here in time for the spring trade. Our town is very active and doing a good business with two stores, two blacksmith shops, wagon making, etc., a good physician and successful claim agent located here.

Our claim agent, Mrs. Emma A. Perch left here Monday for Versailles via Jeff City, stopping at Centretown one day, also at Tipton, returning home 10th inst. on a business trip in the interest of her clients.

It may not generally be known that Miller county is "hopelessly republican" but at the last election but one democrat was elected in the county, and he was only a township constable of Saline township. As soon as the weather and roads are settled the Republican League clubs are going to work in earnest.

BUNCETON ITEMS.

Prof. Roberson is conducting a very successful school in penmanship.

The literary at Davis' school closed Friday night, 2nd inst.

Mr. Stillwell, living north of Bunceton, dropped dead last week; cause unknown.

People are anxious for the weather to moderate, so they can make a general note.

That good old preacher, Uncle Peter Ray, preached at the Cumberland church Sunday.

Miss Effie Adams closed a six months' term of school on 21st ult., and returned home on the 5 p. m. train.

The measles have struck our "little burg" and it is very likely your "pen pusher" will be as speckled as a turkey egg, ere this is in print.

Prof. Roberson being sick Saturday night, Mr. Jonathan Adams conducted the school. We say hurrah for Jonathan, he is a hustler when it comes to penmanship.

Prof. J. W. Adams returned home Saturday evening after closing a very successful school at Elston, Mo. We wonder why the professor stayed a week after school was out. Expect some fair Elston girl could explain.

MARION ITEMS.

C. J. Gaifferson of Sedalia, was in town Wednesday on business.

Mr. C. C. Taggart of this place went to Boone county Wednesday on business.

Mr. George Elliott of the firm of Taggart & Elliott, went to see his girl Thursday.

Mrs. Jenny Haytor of Monticau county is visiting friends at this place this week.

Mr. Fred Rathel and Henry Baushausen went to Jefferson City Wednesday on business.

Mr. Henry Baushausen finished the bridge at this place Monday. Henry done a good job.
