What We Do and What We Don't Do.

We advertise what we have to sell.
We always have what we advertise.
We can and will give you more value for your money than you can get elsewhere.

WHAT WE DON'T DO.

We don't misrepresent. We don't pull you in from the street. We don't hunt you up in the saloons.
We don't buy our customers with drinks.

THIS IS OUR GUIDE.

Our goods, at the prices we offer them, will call themselves.

M. GOLDMAN.

Notice of Final Settlement.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administrator of the estate of Magdalena Stelinger, deceased, will make final settlement of his accounts with said estate as such administrator, at the next term of the probate court of Cole county, Missouri, to be held at the City of Jefferson, in said county, on the 21 Monday of May, A. D., 1890.
J. N. BRANTNER,
Administrator.

To Our Friends.

Executive's, administrator's, trustee's and guardian's have the right to name the paper in which publications required by law be made, and we ask our friends to remember the REPUBLICAN when they have publications to make.

The members of Holley's brass band will give a grand picnic at the fair grounds on June 5. Refreshments and amusement of every kind, a game of base ball etc., to entertain the visitors.

Remember the Red Store if you want good goods at low prices.

We have just printed a lot of tickets for berry pickers for Mr. A.
M. Swift. Mr. Swift has some of the finest berries raised in this country, and he anticipates a large crop this season.

Table cloths, towels, lace window curtains sold at low figures at the Red store.

Mr. W. A. Maddux called last Saturday and ordered THE STATE REPUBLICAN sent to his daughter, Mrs. Levi Daso, at Chicago. Mr.
Maddux is one of our best and most enterprising farmers, and we are glad to see him prospering.

Many articles are offered at regular wholesale prices at the Red Store.
Call, compare goods and prices.

Miss Helen Dix, who has been a student at the Warrensburg college, is at home for a vacation.

Go and see a "Heart of Steel" Monday night. It's good.

Mr. W. B. Muir, who has been agent at Eldon several years, is reported as having married Miss Lulu M. Brown at Tipton on yesterday.

The graduating exercises of the high school will take place in Lohman's opera house Tuesday.

A special to the Tribune says the trial of Dr. Hatler will take place the after part of this week.

The regular May term of the Cole circuit court will convene next Monday. In this issue of THE REPUBLICAN we publish the docket.

The Jefferson City Brick company declared a 10 per cent. dividend at the meeting Tuesday. We are glad to note the prosperous condition of this company.

It is reported that the St. Louis, Kansas City and Colorado railway will soon be put under contract from Union, Franklin county, to Kansas City.—Exchange.

"A Heart of Steel" will be produced by the Reid Westbrook company at Lohman's opera house Monday evening, May 19. Secure seats early.

Mr. H. C. McCullough, who is spending this season with his family, at his father-in-law's, Mr. Floyd Crandall, gave us another pleasant call yesterday.

Mr. Pace, the new merchant and postmaster at Scotts is doing a very good country trade. He is a clever gentleman, and we would be glad to see him prosper.

For seven days, beginning at 6 a.
m. May 5, and ending at 6 a. m.
May 12, there was mailed at the postoffice in this city 13,556 pieces, weighing 1,561 pounds and 5 ounces. The postage on same amounted to $240.
41.

Rev. Hoog of St. Peter's Catholic church, of this city, delivered a very affecting farewell sermon on last Sunday. For the benefit of his health he intended to start on an European trip this week.

Mr. J. Grimshaw received notice Tuesday to sell single trip tickets from here to Chicago for $3 until further notice. The railroads have given everybody a chance to take almost free rides during the last two months.

Mr. Theodore E. Schultz was elected as councilman to fill the vacancy in the Second ward, Tuesday. The vote cast was light, Mr. Schultz receiving 77 votes and his opponent, Mr. G. T. Rogers, 56 votes. Mr.
Schultz will make an excellent councilman.

The railroad passenger war rate is still booming. Tickets are being sold from this city to St. Louis at $1 and to Chicago from here at $3, and from St. Louis to Kansas City at $1. The eastern and western rates are down in like proportion.

For Sale: An A No. 1 family horse, 7 years old this spring, about 16 hands high, heavy build, color black, perfectly safe and gentle, any lady or child can drive or ride him.
For further particulars call at the Red Store.

From dispatches sent to St. Louis and Kansas City papers it was supposed by some who read those reports that our city had suffered great loss of property by one of the severest and most destructive cyclones.
Which, we are thankful to say, is not the case. Equally, if not stronger winds have been here before.

Will Crittenden Thornton's "Monitor" office was closed by attachment last week by Mr. B. Lackamp, merchant at Eldon, who Thornton had been standing off for payment of goods, money and bank endorsements. Mr. Lackamp does not seem to be the only one left behind with unsettled accounts.

Among the republican journals of the state there are none that are doing more effective work in upholding republican principles and teaming with grander sentiments of loyalty to the cause they represent than are THE STATE REPUBLICAN of Jefferson City and the Central Missouri Republican of Booneville. Let them have continued prosperity, increased circulation and victory is tenfold more assured.—California Herald.

The storm that passed over this city Monday afternoon did considerable damage. The roof of the old part of the north wing of the capital was blown off and the glass in the dome shattered, and the rain that flooded the house and other apartments did a great deal of damage.

The Catholic church was damaged considerably by the rear chimneys blowing over, going through the roof.

The roof of the hospital building at the penitentiary was blown off.

The dormitory roof at Lincoln institute was partly blown off.

Mrs. Robinson's building on High street was damaged to the extent of two or three hundred dollars.

The roof of Mrs. Wm. Vogdt's new residence was blown entirely off. No other damage of any consequence, except several chimneys were blown down and houses flooded by the rain, being blown in through doors and windows by the strong wind.

Mr. Hall, the farmers' alliance speaker, recently concluded a public talk as follows: "I have no use for the demagogue who goes around over the country advocating the theory that the thieves are all in town and the honest men all in the country.
The retail merchants are not your enemies. Where there is competition among country retail merchants you will find no trusts or combines to take advantage of you. Everywhere I have been I have found a spirit of competition existing among retail merchants, cutting down prices and underbidding each other through the columns of the newspapers or printed hand-bills, all bidding for your trade.
In 74 counties I have traveled over, I have failed to find a combine among retail merchants. If we drive every store out of town but the one we patronize, we will have built up a trust. If we organize over the country against men who have not organized against us, we will be a trust-breeding instead of a trust-breaking organization. Let us not make enemies of men who are engaged in a legitimate business, but keep after the trust and unite for the welfare of our common country."

Public School Items.

The graduating exercises of the high school will be held at Lohman's opera house May 20. The program includes the following exercises: Instrumental music, piano solo, Mrs. R. T. Booth; duet, Misses Helen and Myra Church; vocal solo, W. J.

Chambliss; duet, Misses Annie and Oliver Ewing.

Orations—"The Power of Thought with Salutory," Penn Bruce; "Scotland," Fred Wells; "Office and Office-Seeking," Tom Davison; "The Progress of Freedom," Chas. Davis.

Essays—"The Spirit of Liberty in Ireland," with valedictory, Miss Marianne Gauss; "The Advancement of Woman," Miss Helen Church; "Reform of the Nineteenth Century," Miss Mary Corwin; "Curiosity," Miss Jessie Dix; "Household Duties for Women," Miss Annie Gauss; "Progress Through Slow Degrees," Miss Ida Grieshammer;
"The Influence of Rural Life," Miss Miller Gordon; "The Influence of City Life," Miss Alma Krauthoff;
"Wanted," Miss Maude McHenry;
"Small Courtesies," Miss Ada Ross.

The public schools close for the year this week. The exercises of the last day will not be so elaborate as they were in former years, but they will be found very interesting for patrons of the school. The rooms will close in the following order: Thursday—Forenoon, Nos. 1, 2 and 3; afternoon, Nos. 4 and 5. Friday—Forenoon, Nos. 6, 7 and 8; afternoon, high school.

The closing exercises of the high school will be given under the auspices of the Longfellow Literary Society. The three departments of the colored school will close on Thursday and Friday.

The oral examinations in all grades will be completed this week. The reports of the pupils will be sent home to their parents, and if they are signed and returned the promotion tickets will be given to the pupils, provided their averages warrant it.
Pupils in the lower grades are promoted on making an average of 75 or over. Those who miss the final examinations will not be given promotion tickets.

FARM AND HOUSEHOLD.

Whole cloves are now used to exterminate the merciless and industrious moth. It is said that they are more effectual as a destroying agent than either tobacco, camphor or cedar shavings.

The ordinary marker makes too deep a furrow for corn, especially when the planting is early and the ground cold. If a cold rain comes on after planting this corn, put so far below the surface, will rot, or at best, make only a sickly growth.
—Boston Globe.

Cows that are watered from stagnant ponds or from wells in the barn yard will give milk more or less tainted, and from which it is impossible to make the best butter. So large a part of milk is water that the drink of the cow is of quite as much importance as her food.—Exchange.

If lawns are shaved often dan-dions do little damage, as they cannot produce seeds. To most people a moderate sprinkling of bright, yellow dandelions, nestled close in the green, fresh grass is not repulsive, especially if one banishes the common notion that all weeds are homely.—Prairie Farmer.

A high authority in cooking recommends that, when baking a custard, you should set the basin or pudding dish containing it into another dish filled with hot water; this keeps the temperature more even, and the danger of scorching is entirely done away with. A more delicate flavor is insured also.—N. Y. Post.

Hasty Pudding: Boil a quart of milk with four bay leaves; beat up the yolks of two eggs and a little salt; stir in the milk; then take out the bay leaves, and with a wooden spoon in one hand, with the other sprinkle in flour, stirring rapidly until it is of a good thickness; pour into a dish and serve with sauce.
—The Household.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SCRUGGS.

Mr. Joseph Glibber departed for Chicago last Friday.

Mr. Strohle moved his saw mill on M. Hines farm last week.

Richard Eggers is having a new residence built.

Mr. H. Hackney, the agent for fruit trees, canvassed through here last week.
Mr. Theodore Miller and E. Deltz went to town Sunday to meet friends that came up on the excursion.

Mrs. Gordon of Vernon county, is visiting relatives here at present.

Misses Lena Duffner and Clara Distler went to Jeff City last Saturday.

Mr. S. Moonyham, who lives near the Moreau, boarded the train for Eldon last Wednesday.

The tie train on the branch road wrecked one day last week near the bridge. Several cars were thrown off the track.

Miss Arville Ogden returned to her home near Scotts Monday.

MARION ITEMS.

Capt. Johnson Glenn and Prof. R. C.
Bond took a skiff ride Sunday and found themselves in Jefferson City before they knew it.

Mr. Church, the Standard Shoe drummer of Jefferson City, was in town Sunday shaking hands with friends.

Judge T. A. Greenup of Centretown, was visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs.
Baushausen, of this place, Sunday.

Capt. Ed Stuart of the ferry boat of this place, and Ed Lindsay went to Jefferson City Monday on business.

Mrs. Nathaniel Tagart of Boone county, was visiting her sister, Mrs. C. C.
Tagart of this place this week. They went to California, Montevau county, to have their teeth extracted Thursday.

Mr. Fred Rithel went to Jefferson City Friday on business.

Mr. Nagoy of Osage City, went home Saturday to visit his family. Mr. Nagoy is the foreman of Capt. Glenn's barge that he is building at this place. It is a good one. Mr. Nagoy will return on the steamer Helena Monday. Capt. thinks that he will be ready to put it in the water in about three weeks.

ELSTON ITEMS.

From present indications it looks as though the republican party are about to make good their pledges to the soldiers, granting liberal pension legislation, notwithstanding the democratic congressional opposition from poor old Missouri Gimblet Hole Bland, who is squawking for more money circulation; even voted no pension. We hope the soldiers of his district will note this fact for future action. The soldiers of the Eleventh district can make it hot for Mr.
Bland in the coming election if they choose to do so.

We understand that the printing outfit which run the wheel paper, called the Monitor, has changed hands and is in charge of our merchant, Mr. B. Lakamp.
We did not learn whether Mr. L. is going to issue the paper or not. We suspect that he intends to run his own wheel.

Rev. C. W. McBride of Marshall, came down Sunday to fill his appointment to preach the funeral sermon of Mrs. Susan Workman, who died some time ago. Bro. McBride was pastor of this church for several years, and there was a large attendance to hear him. He left Sunday evening for home.

Judge Elston returned home Saturday from a term of the county court held last week in the capital city.

Mr. Kinsey Wilhite, David Freshour, John Barker and Newton McKelvey of Centretown, all attended church in El-ston Sunday.

Mr. John Wedlock received a fine lot of Nebraska potatoes last week from his brother. John proposes to plant them in Cole county soil.

Dr. J. A. Elston is still attending Uncle Abe Murray, who had his arm broken a few weeks ago, who is still confined to his room, although slowly improving.

Mr. Herman Neef, one of the oldest and most reliable tinner's of this city will offer to the citizens of the city and surrounding country, for their own protection, one of the finest lightning rods placed upon the market. Below see some of his patrons endorsements.
