Mr. F. C. Taggart has returned from East Atchison and taken a six months school on Rock creek, near Marion.

Mr. Wm. Fischer, in his new and commodious blacksmith and wagon shop, is prepared to do the best and finest work.

Mr. Joseph Shepard returned from Tusculum a few days since, where he had been building a flat boat for Mr. Ira T. Johnson.

Mr. J. C. Schmidt of 703 Jefferson street, near the "Farmers Home" is doing a good business. He is a fine saddler and deserves the patronage he receives.

The discussion of the contract system of convict labor is again before the people, and THE STATE REPUBLICAN will in due time discuss the subject.

The apportionment of school monies for this year will give Cole county $5,428.05, and shows a school population of 5,399.

It is believed the county court will allow half the expense of building a new bridge on Bolivar street near Franz's brewery.

Dr. R. E. Young has been re-elected superintendent of the asylum at Nevada for another term of three years.

The Cole County Democrat for several weeks past has insisted and declared that the country must be represented on the county democratic ticket. Where is the representative from the country?

A gang of convicts were put to work on the improvement to the state supreme court building Monday.

Mrs. Frazier, who has been a resident of this city for many years, died on last Monday.

The seventh annual St. Louis exposition will open Wednesday, September 18, and close Saturday, October 18, which promises to excel any previous exposition in every department.

Messrs. Scheibe & Payne have opened business in the house, sign and carriage painting, frescoing, ornamental painting, plain and decorative paper hanging, graining, etc.

The City hotel has in use one of the finest water filters in the country. The water is as clear and pure as crystal after passing through it.

Mr. Arthur Grimshaw's many friends regret his determination to retire from official duty, as he has been one of their most popular leaders in political campaigns.

The democratic farmer could not even find standing room in the county convention. The city got away with the country boys, as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bowman of Aurora Springs, were in the city this week. They enjoyed the speech of Congressman Mills, and gave our office a pleasant call.

Mr. Silver asked the democrats of Jefferson township to vindicate him by refusing to elect Pope as a delegate to the county convention. They vindicated him by electing Pope. The ways of the democracy are queer.

Several thousand strangers and people from the country were in the city yesterday to see and hear Congressmen Mills and Bland. The house was filled to overflowing during the speeches of these gentlemen.

Prof. John D. Freshour and Miss Etta Murray were elected, respectively, principal and assistant of the Centretown public school on last Saturday. We are informed the district are highly pleased with the services of these teachers.

Interest is rapidly growing in school work, and we cordially invite all teachers in our part of the country to come and unite with us in trying to benefit ourselves, and those for whom we labor. By special request of Institute. I am respectfully yours.

W. S. HASTINGS.

Mr. Ed Kettering, who will continue his connection with the Straus Saddlery company, will in addition to that business, open a paper box factory in the third story of the Schmidt building on High street. He has already purchased all necessary machinery, which will be on the ground in a few days. He will employ 25 boys and girls to start with, turning out 3,000 boxes per day, and will increase the number from time to time.

The lawn party given at the residence of Judge E. L. Edwards on Friday last in the interest of Grace church parsonage was one of the largest and most successful within our recollection. The grounds were beautifully lighted with Chinese lanterns, and the rivalry between beauty and the beautiful moonlight for supremacy was more enchanting in the real than the artists' brush could have made it. Music floated to every nook and corner of the lawn. The cream, cake and lemonade were excellent, and much praise was bestowed upon Miss Sallie Edwards for the pleasure of such a delightful evening in the interest of so deserving a cause.

The following badly selected and sure not to win ticket "was ordered by the few" put on the democratic county ticket yesterday:

Representative—D. H. McIntyre.

Prosecuting Attorney—W. S. Davison.

Circuit Clerk—W. H. Lusk.

County Clerk—F. W. Roer.

Collector T. B. Mahan.

Presiding Judge—Simon N. Schell.

Sheriff—F. J. Fromme.

Probate Judge—Anton Brueggling.

Assessor—Chas. Diercks.

Treasurer—J. B. Brunns.

Coroner—Dr. J. L. Thorpe.

County Judge, First District—Jno. Antweiler.

County Judge, Second District—J. R. Taylor.

Mr. Green C. Fowler was placed on the ticket for probate judge by a vote of 31 to 8 for Mr. Brueggling, but as Mr. Fowler felt he was not thoroughly installed as a citizen of the city, he would be somewhat lonesome on a city ticket, and after declining twice emphatically refused to be placed upon the ticket, when Mr. Brueggling was swallowed and placed on the ticket for the office. Mr. John W. Edwards was ignored for a very poor reason. Mr. J. R. Edwards was elected chairman of the central committee, succeeding Mr. Ashley W. Tewing, who has served in that capacity several years.

The State of Missouri, at) Plaintiff the relation of)
of Henry J. Dulle,) collector of the rev-) Taxe-come of Cole county,) vs.)
In the State of Mis-) souri, Sarah Davis,) Defendant.
Now at this day comes the plaintiff herein by A. M. Hough, Esq., his attorney, and appearing to the court from the return of the sheriff that the above named defendant, Sarah Davis, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri, or has absconded or absented herself from her usual place of abode in this state, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon her. It is therefore ordered by the court that said defendant be notified by publication of the proceedings herein, and that unless she appear in this court, the object and general nature of the petition filed in said cause being the enforcement of the lien of the State of Missouri against certain real property owned by said defendant and real property described in said petition as follows: Lots seven (7) eight (8) and nine (9) in block 11 in St. Thomas, Mo., for certain taxes, interest and costs levied upon said real property as in said petition fully set forth; and that unless the said Sarah Davis do appear at this court at the next term thereof to be begun and holden at the court house, in the City of Jefferson in said county, on the first Monday in December, A. D., 1890, and on or before the third day of said term, plead, answer or demur to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment rendered accordingly. And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published in the STATE REPUBLICAN, a newspaper published in said county and state, for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion thereof to be at least fifteen days before the commencement of the next term of said court.
W. H. LUSK,)
Clerk.
