

Only a Republican Paper
AT THE
STATE CAPITAL
$1.00 Per Year.
J. C. FISHER, Prop.

STANDARD

We are Growing!
If You Don't Believe It Call
Job Department
AND
Bring Your Orders With You.

VOLUME XXIII. JEFFERSON CITY, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1893. NUMBER 2.

Listen to the Voice of Prophecy!

PROF. HICKS
PREDICTS A COLD STORMY WINTER.

ARE YOU PREPARED FOR IT? HAVE YOU
WARM HOSIERY,
UNDERWEAR, CLOAKS,
GLOVES, DRESSES, &C

IF NOT, THE
DALLMEYER DRY GOODS CO.

CAN SUPPLY YOU FOR LESS MONEY
Than Any Other Dry Goods House in This City.

Wool Dress Goods at Bargains
CASH TALKS LOUDER THAN WORDS, AND CASH TAKES THE GOODS.

Orders by Mail will receive prompt attention.
DALLMEYER DRY GOODS CO.,
JEFFERSON CITY, MO.

For Reliable Goods and Lowest Prices Call at

THE LEADING HOUSE OF THE CITY.
FRIDAY'S MISSOURI CLOTHING HOUSE.

MEN'S,
YOUTH'S,
BOYS' &
Children's

HATS, CAPS AND FURNISHING GOODS.
Corner High and Madison Streets, Obermayer's Old Stand

DANIEL GUNDELFINGER,

DEALER IN HARDWARE
Tinware, Stoves, Cutlery, &c.

The most complete stock in Central Missouri of the best and cheapest hardware, Tinware, Stoves, Cutlery, Etc. Exclusive agent for the celebrated WIRE-GAUZE CHARTER OAK STOVE and QUICK MEAL GASOLINE STOVE.

Door Frames, Window Frames, Wire Screen, Weather Strips, Spring Hinges, Bird Cages, Water Coolers, Etc., a Specialty. Tin Roofing, Spouting and Jobbing of all kinds given prompt attention.

No. 123 EAST HIGH STREET.

ANTON NATSCH

The very Latest and Best
STOVES
Manufactured.
Fully Warranted.
Call and see them.

WOOD, COAL, GAS AND GASOLINE
NOVELTIES
Lowest Prices and Warranted.

STOVES
TINWARE AND METAL ROOFING.
ALL REPAIRING NEATLY EXECUTED.

NO. 403 WEST MAIN ST. OPPOSITE GAS WORKS
H. J. DÜLLE, Prest BEN DÜLLE, V. Prest. J. W. SCHULTZ, Sec. & Treas.

Capital Star and Victoria Roller Mills

Manufacturer of and Wholesale and Retail Dealers in all kinds of
FLOUR, MEAL AND MILL FEED
Highest Market Price Paid for Grain.
G. H. DÜLLE MILLING CO.
WEST MAIN STREET.

Jacob Moerschel, Franz Moerschel, Andrew Moerschel.

Capital Breeding Company
Corporation,
Jefferson City, Missouri.
Brewers, Malsters and Bottlers.

Epitome of the Week.

INTERESTING NEWS COMPILATION.
FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS.
Regular Session.

FRIDAY, Dec. 15.—In the senate the time was occupied in discussing the bill to repeal the federal election laws. The nomination of Charles W. Dabney, Jr., of Tennessee, as assistant secretary of agriculture was received from the president. In the house the bill to admit Utah as a state in the union was discussed at length.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 13.—In the senate the Hawaiian question was again discussed, and a resolution calling upon the president for further information in the Hawaiian matter was referred to the committee on foreign affairs. In the house the bill for the admission of Utah to statehood was discussed, and a resolution calling upon the president for further information in the Hawaiian matter was referred to the committee on foreign affairs.

THURSDAY, Dec. 14.—In the senate the bill to repeal the federal election laws was reported and placed on the calendar. Adjoined on the 15th. In the house the bill to improve the methods of accounting in the post office department was passed. An effort to provide for the bill meeting New Mexico and Arizona as states failed owing to the lack of a quorum.

FRIDAY, Dec. 15.—The senate was not in session today. In the house the bill to repeal the federal election laws was discussed. The urgent deficiency bill was discussed. The urgent deficiency bill was discussed.

SATURDAY, Dec. 16.—There was no session in the senate. In the house the urgent deficiency bill was taken up and during the discussion Mr. Cannon (Ill.) severely criticized the pension policy of the administration. A bill was introduced to protect the forest reserve.

FROM WASHINGTON.
For the week ended on the 9th, the fire loss for the country was estimated at $4,012,500. This brings the year's loss up to date to $127,800,000.

A CALL was issued for a meeting of the executive committee of the Arlington club, Washington, January 11.

In the year now closing nearly 13 per cent. of the entire railway mileage of the United States, representing over 12 per cent. of the entire capitalization, has gone into the hands of receivers.

SECRETARY CALLESA, by direction of the president, called for twenty-four resignations in the treasury service.

At the leading clearing houses in the United States the week ending on the 15th aggregated $1,915,882,558, against $1,418,427,557 the corresponding week in 1892.

In the United States there were one hundred and thirty-two business failures (including seven banks) in the seven days ended on the 15th, against 112 the previous year and 119 in the corresponding time in 1892.

Throughout the country trade was said to be very dull, distress among life operatives was conspicuous, and the situation in the coal and iron industries was not encouraging. Unemployed were a feature of the holiday season.

THE EAST.
On the New York and Pennsylvania road a wreck about 6 miles north of Dundick, N. Y., resulted in the loss of eight lives and the injury to others.

The United States cruiser Olympia, on her voyage to the Philippines, was wrecked near Nantuxcoke, Pa., and twelve persons were injured.

In Philadelphia the Crane Iron company failed for $700,000.

The death of Mrs. Sarah Farley Van Nostrand occurred at her home in East Milton, N. J., aged 105 years, 3 months and 10 days.

Fire destroyed the Terminal Elevator company's buildings at Buffalo, N. Y., causing a loss of $1,000,000.

The inventor of the shrapnel shell and the chromatic printing press, George H. Babcock, died at Plainfield, N. J., aged 62 years.

WEST AND SOUTH.
The big cigarette manufacturer at Durham, N. C., E. L. Duke, failed for $800,000.

Sam Seima, Ala., four negroes were lynched for attempting to break into the house of Mrs. W. G. Jones. This made six lynchings in that section in one week.

A domestic trouble Joseph Sims, bricklayer at Dover, Tenn., killed his wife and then blew out his own brains.

At Akron, O., the Akron Iron company went into the hands of a receiver, causing a loss of $500,000.

Mrs. RADIE HEWITT, of Mount Summit, Ind., influenced by a dream refused to marry William Norton on the wedding day.

WILLIAMS broke into a jail at Paris, Mo., and stole a large sum of money from a drunken prisoner.

A RECEIVER was named for the San Vapour Street Light company at Canton, O., whose liabilities were over $500,000.

The Kaw Indians in Kansas were said to be starving owing to the failure of the government to pay overdue lease money.

ELDERLY gentlemen who took an interest in pedestrianism in their youth will be surprised to learn that Edward Payson Weston is still on the turf, and proposes to walk from New York to Chicago just to show that the old man is a dead game sport to the last.

Ar Athens, Tenn. John Armstrong was hanged for the murder of French Sharp in April last.

At Athens, Tenn., John Armstrong was hanged for the murder of French Sharp in April last. A sister, met at Lima, O., after a separation of fifty years.

There were earthquake shocks at Carmel and Alton, Ill., and at Evansville and Mount Vernon, Ind., but no damage was done.

On account of failure of the crops during the last three years great suffering was reported among the farmers in the northwestern Nebraska.

The supreme court of Indiana holds that residence property can recover damages caused by the presence of a saloon.

At Peoria, Ill., Mrs. Matilda Harper (widow) died at the age of 103 years.

A SPAN of the great bridge over the Ohio from Louisville, Ky., to Jeffersonville, Ind., fell and thirty-three workmen were killed and many others were injured.

JACOB FOX, living near Lima, O., skined a thirty-day note for $5,000 believing it was a contract for a piano.

Mrs. FERIE ETEL, an old lady, was shot through the eye at Evansville, Ind., and died hereof to-day.

DURHAM a fight between cattle and "drifters" near San Angelo, Tex., four men were killed.

The police will endeavor to keep out the thousands of tramps now flocking to Chicago.

A TORNADO at Harrisburg, Ill., unroofed houses, uprooted trees and did other damage.

Twenty women in the Indiana gas belt were out of employment and their families dependent on charity for support.

ARTHUR COCHRAN and Henry Taylor (widow) were hanged at Peacock, Ariz., for the murder of Capt. Anne M. Taylor, by the marauder John Cooper, and Dick Robinson, was executed at Sedalia, Mo., for the murder of a German domestic named Johanna Schollman.

At a session in Chicago the American Federation of Labor re-elected Samuel Gompers president by a majority of ninety-two votes.

In Texas cattle were perishing by thousands. No rain had fallen for five months.

KENTUCKY'S fat woman, Sallie McAllister, whose weight was 750 pounds, died at her home in Springfield. She had been exhibited in museums.

At a session in Chicago the American Federation of Labor re-elected Samuel Gompers president by a majority of ninety-two votes.

In Texas cattle were perishing by thousands. No rain had fallen for five months.

KENTUCKY'S fat woman, Sallie McAllister, whose weight was 750 pounds, died at her home in Springfield. She had been exhibited in museums.

At a session in Chicago the American Federation of Labor re-elected Samuel Gompers president by a majority of ninety-two votes.

In Texas cattle were perishing by thousands. No rain had fallen for five months.

KENTUCKY'S fat woman, Sallie McAllister, whose weight was 750 pounds, died at her home in Springfield. She had been exhibited in museums.

At a session in Chicago the American Federation of Labor re-elected Samuel Gompers president by a majority of ninety-two votes.

In Texas cattle were perishing by thousands. No rain had fallen for five months.

KENTUCKY'S fat woman, Sallie McAllister, whose weight was 750 pounds, died at her home in Springfield. She had been exhibited in museums.

At a session in Chicago the American Federation of Labor re-elected Samuel Gompers president by a majority of ninety-two votes.

In Texas cattle were perishing by thousands. No rain had fallen for five months.

KENTUCKY'S fat woman, Sallie McAllister, whose weight was 750 pounds, died at her home in Springfield. She had been exhibited in museums.

At a session in Chicago the American Federation of Labor re-elected Samuel Gompers president by a majority of ninety-two votes.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Special Communication to Congress on Hawaiian Affairs.

Washington, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.—I have the honor to refer to your resolutions of the 15th and 16th of December, 1893, relative to the Hawaiian question, and to the documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In response to a resolution of the senate, asking for documents in possession of the executive department in relation to the Hawaiian question, and in accordance with the president's intention, as expressed in his message at the opening of the regular session of the Fifty-third congress, Mr. Cleveland transmitted the following special communication to both houses: