New York's electrical show is in some respects a bigger thing than greater New York.

Don Dickinson was evidently cool and sober when he fixed that Michigan Democratic convention.

If it is fair to judge from the language he uses we should say that Senator Tillman wants to be the anarchist candidate for president.

The Cleveland forces are not scrupulous as to the means they use to keep the silver Democrats from controlling the Chicago convention.

Democratic denunciation of McKinley has played an important part in placing Gov. McKinley in the leading position he occupies today.

If Senator Tillman's boasting does not destroy the strange and unaccountable power he has had over the South Carolina Democrats many will be surprised.

There is more than a suspicion that some of our Democratic friends are dissembling when they pretend to be anxious to see the Republicans nominate McKinley.

Some interest is being taken in county politics, but Cole County will not do much until after the state ticket has been nominated.

The size of the squadron of warships now being assembled in Hampton Roads indicates that Mr. Cleveland is thinking of trying to utilize another war scare to help the poor old Democratic party.

about what they will do in 1900 will discover when that time arrives that the strongest telescope in the world will not be able to locate even a trace of the national Democratic party.

Perhaps if that cowboy who tried to make one of Gotham's "cops" drink champagne at the point of a gun, on a public street corner, had used a growler and beheaded the "cop" into an alley or halfway the result might have been different.

When a Democratic officeholder works against the Cleveland wing of his party he is adjudged guilty of violating the civil service law, but not when he works for it, as the Michigan Federal officeholders recently did, let's a true reformer. See?

The members of the North West Missouri Press Association were very much pleased with their visit to Jefferson City. They were welcomed heartily and the visit was greatly enjoyed by our citizens as well.

The question as to whether the Democratic National convention will be composed of gold bugs or silverites remains to be seen. The contest is growing warmer as convention day approaches.

The Jefferson City delegation to the St. Joseph Convention consisting of J. C. Fisher, Jos. Flick, Ed. A. Austin, F. G. Schone, Chris. Loevel and J. S. Dorsey, left on the noon train for St. Joseph on Monday last.

The candidates for the Republican gubernatorial nomination are pushing their claims with all possible earnestness. They evidently feel the chances of victory are very great. Missouri must catch up with Kentucky and the prospects are she will do it this year.

The fight in the Republican party in St. Louis need worry no one. It is the same old story of the "holier than thou fellows" who are always ready to get into the band wagon and distribute the pie when the prospects of winning are good. When the prospects are bad they usually remain in their holes.

The partnership of Heinrichs & Fleming has been dissolved. Mr. Bay Fleming continues the business.

Which Was a Lie?

The Times opposed the election, as everybody knows, of Mayor Jones and the present city officials with all the energy it could command, not from personal but for political reasons.

The citizens of Kansas City, however, or rather a majority of the voters, having chosen these officials, The Times yielded a cheerful acquiescence in the result, with the hope that all the bitterness and differences which marked the campaign would be buried in the darkness which came with the setting of the sun on election day, and that all good citizens, the press and the new city administration would be permitted the opportunity of working together in one accord for the prosperity and welfare of the community.

A few weeks since, morning after morning, you denounced this same Jones as the fit associate of thieves, robbers, cutthroats and murderers and for no other reason than to gain a political success. We and the people outside of your city were justified, had we believed your statements, in believing that if the said Jones were elected mayor of Kansas City that the above-mentioned class of citizens would have full sway in Kansas City. Did it ever occur to you what such conduct on the part of the press of Kansas City was costing that city? It is simply infamous for a great newspaper to assail the character of a man seeking public office for no other purpose than to defeat him. The editor of a newspaper, or its manager, owner or owners, who will thus assail any man's character, will do worse, if necessary, to gain his point. You told the people a few weeks ago that Jones was a thug, and the associate of thugs, robbers and thieves—now you say he is a gentleman! Which statement is the people to believe? Every honest citizen knows your course in your last city election, and you did no worse than your city brethren of the press—make the criminal classes disregard the law, and in fact makes criminals.—Cole County Democrat.

We emphasize what Mr. Edwards so aptly says by asserting with him that it is infamous to denounce a man as a "liar, thief and thug" one day before election, and on the day following, to "cheerfully acquiesce," etc., and commend him to his fellow citizens.

Mr. Reid, the president of the Northwest Press Association, in his response to the address of welcome at the Tribune a compliment of which that gentleman should be very proud. There are not many, of our home people that appreciate the work that Mr. Edwards is constantly doing for Jefferson City. The eulogistic manner in which Mr. Reid spoke of Mr. Edwards's work as a newspaper man, was most gratifying to those friends of Mr. Edwards who know the value of his work to our people and his standing with the press generally. Harry is too modest to boast of his own work, but that there are many who know and appreciate his work was made manifest in the applause that greeted the mention of his name by the press association on Friday last.

Sedalia Stirred Up.
Sedalia is considerably stirred up over the report that the property holders are raising rent on the dwelling houses occupied by the railroad men. One property owner gave as a reason for his action that he had been drawn on so heavily to meet the removal expenses. The railroad men are considerably excited over the advance in their rent, and declare they will vote against capital removal.—Montrose Democrat.

Abraham Lincoln.
The Sedalia capital is even trying to malign and misrepresent the great martyred president Abraham Lincoln, by calling him a capitol remover. Abe Lincoln was fighting for the people in trying to put the capitol in the center of the state of Illinois, and not to put it on the borders of the state as the Sedalia land sharks are trying to do.

This Is the Way to Talk.
Sedalia is flooding the country with capital removal literature. If by the people of Sedalia can send out anything showing wherein any one except Sedalia capitalists will be benefited by such removal, the people are ready to consider it.—Scott County Newshy.

It is just one week from bridge celebration day. This will be a great event in the history of Jefferson City, and it must be made a general holiday for our people.

The great American protectionist William McKinley is leading the procession for the Republican nomination. His name stands out pre-eminently as the choice of the masses of the people.

Free-Trade and Agriculture.

There is an advantage in the English way of presenting in the Queen's speech, mere statements of facts without unnecessary comment or explanation. It saves the quibbling and lying which play so important a part in the public utterances of this Administration. The Queen, for instance, in her speech to Parliament says:

"I regret to say that the condition of agriculture is disastrous beyond recent experience." She contents herself with the simple statement.

Now it is the habit of this Administration to declare on every possible occasion that conditions could not be better, that the workman was never getting such high wages, that the farmer was never so prosperous and happy, that the miller never so pushed with orders—that "everything is lovely, and the goose hangs high." But all this, of course, is due to the Wilson law.

We presume that Victoria knows very well what is the trouble with British agriculture. It is British Free-Trade. Products of the soil are imported into Great Britain from countries that can raise, ship and deliver them into the English market more cheaply than John Bull can at home. Therefore he cannot sell what he raises. So "the condition of agriculture is disastrous beyond experience," and royal lips are not soiled with lies about why this is so.

It is just as easy for the condition of agriculture in this country "to become disastrous beyond experience." Indeed, it is easier. We can invite foreign agriculture to compete in our own market by giving it unobstructed entry thereto. We can diminish the purchasing power of our people by inviting foreign competition in other fields. When we close up our mills, shut down our factories, force our business houses to a profitless trade and diminish the carrying capacity of all our industries by transferring business and profits from this side of the Atlantic to the other, we narrow the home market. When our people earn less money they must spend less, and when the farmer offers his products to a country that cannot buy what he has to sell it gives him no consolation to be told that he can buy a suit of clothes for $1 less than he could two years ago, because he cannot obtain the money to buy it, no matter what the price.

This country's safeguard is a protected home market.—New York Press.

Gen. Grasshopper Rice.
The Sedalia capital has not printed an issue for a month without calling some one a liar and emphasizing it by printing the word in Italics. This may be Kansas journalism, but we believe we are safe in saying it does not meet the average Missourian. Let the Sedalia capital keep this up and it will make more in favor of Jefferson City than it will against it.—Montrose Democrat.

Blood purified, disease cured, sickness, and suffering prevented by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The State Shoot.
Mr. F. P. Dallmeyer of the Jefferson City Gun Club Thursday, closed a contract with Tescher & Miller of St. Louis for 5,000 pigeons for the annual tournament of the Missouri State Amateur Shooting Association, which will be held at Schmidt's park in this city June 23, 24, 25 and 26. The meeting will bring together a big lot of sportsmen. They are jolly good fellows and will have a royal good time in Jefferson City.

The official program for the shoot is now being printed. It shows that there will be some handsome purses hung up for the crack shots of the association.

DEBILITY AND WEAKNESS.
Jefferson, Mo., Feb. 12, 1896.—I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparil for general debility, weakness and sick-headache. Since taking it I can go up and down stairs and have found much benefit in Hood's Sarsaparilla. I know it is an excellent medicine. C. D. Harkins.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills.

Northwest Missouri Press Association.

On Friday evening at 8:15 p. m., sixty members of the Northwest Missouri Press Association, with their families, visited Jefferson City on an excursion.

They were met at the depot by a delegation of citizens who escorted them to the City Hotel where supper was served. After the meal an address of welcome was delivered by the mayor welcoming the editors to the capital of Missouri.

At eight o'clock in the evening a reception was tendered the visitors by Gov. and Mrs. Stone at the executive mansion. Light refreshments were served and dancing indulged in. A number of citizens were present and met the visitors, who enjoyed the courtesy of the Governor and Mrs. Stone very much.

On Saturday morning the visitors were taken in carriages to the capitol of the state and shown over the grounds; they were next taken across the bridge and the cars were driven to Lincoln Institute, the leading colored educational institution in the west. After being shown over this school by the committee and Prof. Page, in his able assistance, the visitors were taken to the penitentiary where they were shown the largest institution of the kind in the world. They were courteously received by the officials, and were shown over the prison and were given a lunch of prison fare, which was very much enjoyed. After thoroughly inspecting the institution the visitors were shown other parts of the city, and taken back to the hotel where dinner was waiting them at 12 o'clock. At 1:30 the special car that was attached to the west bound train the visitors started on their homeward journey.

They were extravagant in their praise of Jefferson City, its streets and improvements. They were especially charmed with the great bridge that spans the Missouri. They also have clear proof of the many lies that Sedalia has been circulating in regard to the condition of the state capital. They find that it is a building that cannot be placed for less than $1,000,000 in good repair and sufficiently commodious for many years to come.

Many of the visitors were very much gratified to find the state capitol located at such a beautiful and picturesque place. The courtesies shown them by the citizens was thoroughly appreciated and enjoyed. They were received with a hearty welcome and started on their homeward journey pleased beyond measure with their visit.

The program for the day was as follows:
Carriage drive, starting from City Hotel at 8:15 sharp.
Arrive at grand steel bridge at 8:25 a. m.
Arrive at capitol at 9:00 a. m.
Leave capitol at 9:30 a. m.
Arrive at Lincoln Institute at 9:50 a. m.
Leave Lincoln Institute at 10:00 a. m.
Arrive at penitentiary at 10:10 a. m.
Prison lunch at 11:00 a. m.
Leave penitentiary at 11:30 a. m.

A Scenic Line.
The Secretary of State yesterday chartered the Highland Scenic Railroad Co. of Brentwood, St. Louis county; capital stock, $150,000. The directors are James D. Houseman, Jr., Ernest Marshall, J. I. Brodbeck, L. B. Jones and W. F. Richards.

The object of the company is to build, equip and operate a standard-gauge railroad from a point on the St. Louis and Kirkwood Railroad, near Manchester, St. Louis county, to a point on the Manchester Electric Railroad, where it crosses the city limits of St. Louis city, a distance of about two miles; also, to operate a railroad from the Meramec Highlands to the eastern terminus of the St. Louis and Kirkwood railroad, near the southwest corner of Forest Park, in St. Louis, a distance of about ten miles.

A copy of a lease of the St. Louis and Kirkwood Railroad to the Highland Scenic Railroad for a term of twenty-five years was also filed with the Secretary of State yesterday.

The page of history which records the policy of the Cleveland administration towards the Cuban patriots is likely to bring blushes to American cheeks.

The excursion from St. Louis Thursday brought up a very large crowd of people. From 2 to 4 o'clock a free concert was given at Capital park.

THE DAKOTA HOTSPRINGS.

The Hot Springs of Arkansas have long been deservedly popular, for the reason that there is no other place that has filled the requirements of both a health and a pleasure resort. This state of affairs has changed. The Hot Springs of South Dakota have, in recent years, been thrown open to the people, and because of their delightful situation and great curative qualities, are becoming more popular every day. Situated at this resort is, in the famous Black Hills in the midst of beautiful mountain scenery, possessing that peculiar balsamic atmosphere which is in itself health giving, with waters that are pronounced by experts equal if not superior to those of any other mineral springs in the world, it will soon outrank any other like resort.

The hotel accommodations are of the best—hostelries with all the modern improvements and conveniences. The hotel Evans, built of pink sand stone, with steam heat, electric lights, and every room an outside one, is easily the best conducted house between Chicago and Denver. The rates are all reasonable. The marvelous "Widewater" falls of Fall River; Battle Mountain; the old Indian battle ground; Leadwood and the gold fields; and the famous Bad Lands are all within driving distance. The smooth plunge bath at the Springs is noted as being one of the largest natatoriums in the world. So beautiful are the surroundings, and so many the conveniences of this "Carisbad of America," that it is rapidly becoming the "Mecca," not only for invalids, but for pleasure seekers as well. The "Burlington Route" reaches there in a day and a half from St. Louis. Pullman sleepers and free chair cars on train No. 18 run to Lincoln and from Lincoln free chair cars and sleepers run through to the Springs.

HE DON'T KNOW WHAT HE WANTS

HAD TO GIVE HIM UP, is the way they refer in most Clothing Stores to a man who walks out without buying. They are wrong.

He Does Know What He Wants.

That is the trouble. Men who are hard to please in a Clothing Store are generally good judges of Clothing. They have a gift of spotting bad fabrics, poor patterns and skimpy tailoring.
