The crowd of young folks who were out to the sleighing party Tuesday night reported an enjoyable time.

Why not surprise your daughter with one of these celebrated, world renowned Singer sewing machines for Christmas? Sold for cash or on easy payments.—F. Sackett, Agent, So. 6th St.

Billy O. Jackson was in the city Sunday. We are informed he went to church. Doubtless filling up with high moral ideas to help our boys out with before the jury when he defends them. He knows what it takes to win.

Used by the ladies of fashion all the world. It's without doubt the greatest beautifier ever offered the American woman. 35c. Made only by Madison Medicine Co., Ask your druggist.

Had McCarty and wife, Daisy Chastain McCarty, are enjoying the felicity of a first born, at their home on Madison Avenue, in Kansas City. If she shall be as handsome after awhile as her father, and as pleasant in manner as her mother, she will be a heart smasher. THE TRIBUNE extends congratulations.

I sell the cheapest good land on earth. Wheat and alfalfa land a specialty. Write for prices and terms and cheap transportation.—E. B. ATKINSON, Grainfield, Kans.

When making your purchases for Christmas, don't forget that the best bargains and largest varieties to select from, are advertised in THE TRIBUNE.

Mr. E. M. Adams, Jr., of Fort Worth, Texas, came to the city Saturday night to join his wife, who has been in the city some time visiting her father, J. W. Hakstrow, and other relatives and friends. After spending a couple of days here Mr. A. went to Mound City, Kan., for a short visit with his father's family. He will return the last of the week, and with his wife and little son, will return to their home. Mr. Adams is one of the leading business men of Ft. Worth.

The manager of the Rich Hill Opera House calls attention to the Hans Hanson Company, appearing here on the evening of Thursday, Dec. 26. The company is no ordinary one and the merits of both the play and players are joined in the production of one of the most charming stories ever delineated. This method is taken of calling personal attention to the date Thursday Dec. 26, and the company giving the assurance that theatre-goers will receive more than their money's worth is pleasant. Reserved seats are now sale at Opera Drug Store Wednesday, Dec. 19.

Hon. F. E. Kellogg, Collector of Internal Revenue, came down Saturday from Kansas City and made THE TRIBUNE office a very pleasant call. He had not been in attendance at his Sunday School for two prior Sundays because of absence of Chicago and other points north and east. Among other places he visited the cattle show at Chicago, and had the satisfaction of seeing some of his fine Shorthorn cattle go at an average price of $540.00 a head. Kellogg believes in improvement of stock as well as in everything else. Most Republicans do.

You can present your wife with a late improved sewing machine for Christmas. F. Sackett, the agent, will take pleasure in explaining our very liberal terms.—The Singer Mfg. Co. So. 6th St.

A Notable New Year Issue.

The January Delineator has a rich and inviting table of contents, and attractive features are added to all the existing departments. Ira D. Sankey, the famous evangelist, vividly describes his journey through Egypt and Palestine, and the personality of the author gives to these papers an interest that is truly remarkable. They are illustrated by photographs made by I. Allen Sankey, who accompanied his father. Recent mournful events and the intense public sympathy with Mrs. McKlahey make very timely an article on Public Pensioners of the Nation, in which the annuities paid to certain ill-nerved ladies are made public for perhaps the first time. Some excellent fiction is offered in this number; the children are especially considered and the various miscellaneous articles—the fancy work, cookery, the holiday display, house furnishing, etc.—have a distinctly seasonal flavor.

Large opportunities impose large obligations. A real education, whether obtained at the home or at the college, is to the scholar what the griststone is to the scythe. It sharpens his faculties, gives him a keener zest for life, and enlarges his field for good. Added culture to a man is like added power to a telescope lens; it enlarges his vision and magnifies the importance of his opportunities.—"Success" for December.

Remember The Bazaar is the place to get Xmas goods. All new goods. Something never before carried in the city. Some surprises for your friends, useful and novel. No strikes and good times.

PROWELL & COOK,

RICH HILL, MO.

Crabb—Noble.

The music of wedding bells was heard Monday evening, December 16, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Crabb, in this city, when their daughter, Miss Augusta Crabb, was joined in wedlock with Mr. Robert Noble, by Rev. W. B. Chancellor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Only relatives of the high contracting parties were present to witness the ceremony that made the twain one.

The bride is the youngest daughter of our good friend Willis Crabb and his estimable wife, and is a general favorite in her large circle of friends.

The groom we do not know personally, but will trust the judgment of the bride that he is a splendid young man.

They will return from a trip to St. Joseph to visit the groom's parents, and settle down to homelike housekeeping in the residence lately occupied by Dr. Hudelson.

THE TRIBUNE wishes them long life and happiness.

Deaths.

Mrs. Mary Falor, widow of the late Elias Falor, died at her home five miles southwest of Rich Hill, Saturday morning, Dec. 14, 1901. She was about 90 years of age, and old age is believed to have been the cause of her death. Her life work was done and hence the silver cord was loosed, the golden bowl was broken, the pitcher was broken at the fountain and life went out.

Two children, Charles Falor and Myra, survive her. Everybody who knew Mrs. Falor, knew a good woman, loyal to home and duty always. Her funeral was held in the Bethel Baptist church, Monday, the 16th, and she was buried in the Rider cemetery, a large concourse of relatives and friends being in attendance.

In the early morning hour of Dec. 16, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gillett, Mrs. Delilah H. Ayres departed this life at the ripe old age of over 86 years.

Deceased was a native of Ohio, having been born in that state March 10, 1815. In her younger days, with her husband, William Ayres, long since deceased, she took up her residence in Iowa and there brought up her family of five children, all of whom are well settled in life. Mrs. Ayres did her duty all through life by those committed to her care, and has the reward of the faithful wife and good mother.

The body was taken to Des Moines, Iowa, to be buried beside others who have gone on before. Mrs. Gillett accompanied the remains of her mother from this city to their last resting place.

The Teachers

The teachers institute held here last Saturday was well attended, though had the weather been less severe more out of town teachers would have been present. The program, as had been announced, was carried out, and the addresses and discussions were full of splendid ideas and were very instructive.

The out of town teachers present were Supt. J. C. Eise, W. E. Verkamp, M. J. Hall, county commissioner Vernoe Country, Nevada; Prof. A. L. Ives, Adrian; H. O. Maxey, county commissioner Bates county, Amsterdam; J. Harper, Butler; C. B. Hudson, Gus Hess, Hume; G. B. Manyon, Thos. P. Jordan, Jr., Kansas City, Mo.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

The difference of cost between a good and a poor baking powder would not amount for a family's supply to one dollar a year. The poor powder would cause doctors' bills many times this.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the most economical in the end, because it goes further in leavening and insures perfect, wholesome food.

Used always in making the biscuit and cake it saves both health and money. Made from pure, grape cream of tartar, most healthful of fruit acids.

Note.—You cannot, if you value good health, afford to use cheap, low-grade baking powders. They are mostly, in spite of the pure food laws, made from alum, which endangers the health. All physicians will tell you that such poisons in food are injurious.

Are you interested in Cheap Lands. I can furnish you good smooth wheat land at $5 to $5 per acre, $5 to $7.50 with some improvements.

Alfalfa land $5 to $7.50 per acre. $10 per acre buys fairly well improved Alfalfa ranches.

Part cash, easy terms on balance. Respectfully, E. B. ATKINSON, Grainfield, Kans.

The Saturday Evening Post, a Philadelphia, announces two new departments which will challenge the interest of young men and women throughout the country. "A Home College Course," an one of them is called, has been designed to meet the wants of ambitious young people who have not had the advantages of a university training. This course will be conducted by a special faculty, composed of professors in the leading colleges. The studies have been most carefully chosen. Each will be treated in an interesting way, and helpful hints for outside reading freely given. "To the Young Men Beginning Business" is the second of these new departments. It is the most successful men in a dozen occupations will write about what helped them to the front in their own business, and give a list of books and magazines bearing upon it. Their purpose will be to tell the beginner how he can make himself more available to his employer. These new departments will begin early in January, and will be made a permanent feature of the Saturday Evening Post.
