

President Johnson and the Freedmen's Lands in South Carolina.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says: President Johnson has assured George T. Downing, Chairman of the colored delegation at present in this city, sent here by the colored people of the Northern and Southern States, that no sudden change will take place affecting the occupancy of lands which General Sherman gave a possessory title to. The President suggested that the freedmen continue to cultivate said lands. Mr. Downing received letters from South Carolina, from parties interested, telling him of their fears lest they might be suddenly removed from the lands they were cultivating, fears which arose on the receipt of the news of the Executive veto. When those facts were presented, he gave the above assurance.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Notice to Subscribers.—Those of our subscribers who have received their papers through the Post Office at Troy, are hereby notified that from and after March 23, 1866, they can get their papers at the Herald office, as we have frequently heard complaints about the irregular delivery of their papers at the Post Office.

Notice.—We request all who have ad- vertisements for our paper to hand them in at latest on Wednesday morning, as this will insure their appearance in the issue of next Friday.

For Sale.—Get your blank Summons of which we have a supply, as well as other blanks at this office.

Carrier.—As soon as the streets of our town shall assume a passable condition, we intend to deliver our paper to our town subscribers at their respective residences. As we are as yet a stranger in this place, we request all those who wish to get their paper through the carrier, to hand in their address.

The Exhibition.—Last Tuesday night we attended the exhibition at the Academy. We have to acknowledge that our anticipations were really surpassed. The opening tableau, (the May Queen) was beautiful and exhibited to the best advantage the taste and artistic skill of the managers. This historic tableau of the coronation of the Empress Josephine was also very well executed. As to the rest we have to say that they all were well performed, even that German Song, which did great credit to the linguistic talent of the performers. The thanks of the community are indeed due to the ladies who arranged the exhibition, as also to Prof. Jones for the kindness of furnishing the hall for that purpose. May we soon have another occasion to attend such an exhibition, is certainly the desire of every one who attended.

Back at his Old Stand.—Mr. W. Welton, who is well known to our citizens as a good bar keeper, has retaken his old stand, opposite the spring. We understand that in a few days, his saloon will be supplied with the choicest liquors and beer from the well known and renowned brewery of Runge and Houser at Saint Charles. He will also keep restaurant, bakery and confectionary besides his saloon. We wish him the best success in his benevolent attempt to relieve the physical wants of suffering humanity.—His formal card will appear in our next.

Thanks.—We are under obligations to the Hon. Geo. W. Anderson for a bound volume of the Report on Agriculture. Hon. D. M. Draper will also accept our thanks for valuable public documents.

The Weather.—On Saturday and Sunday the weather was very mild and pleasant; on Monday night it changed, and was rather too cool to be pleasant. At some distance from town, hail fell on Monday night. Tuesday a keen and unpleasant wind was blowing. Wednesday was yet a little cool, though the sky was clear and the sun shone bright.

State Insurance Co.—Reader, is your property insured? If not, you had better call on Mr. Geo. I. Crainer, the travelling agent of the above company, who is at present in our town. We recommend the State Insurance Company particularly because it is a home institution, and because it is managed by men of good standing and a fair reputation in commercial circles. No one can know what may happen to-morrow, and ere you are aware of it, you can lose your all. Consider that a little care and precaution before, is better than countless complaints after misfortune has overtaken you.

Court.—During the last few days our place presented quite a lively appearance, owing to the crowds of strangers who had come to attend court.

The American Artisan.—This is the title of a paper devoted to the mechanical arts, published at New York by Brown Combs and Co. It contains also a complete Patent record. From the Scientific American it differs, in our opinion, so far as it is written more popular and in a style and manner that those who have not enjoyed the benefits of a more extensive education, can understand its meanings and derive profit from its perusal. Mechanics or Artisans who wish to see specimen copies, may find them at our office, as we have this Journal complete, up to No. 13 of the present volume. We hope, however, soon to get the back numbers up to date.

Every Saturday.—This is the title of a periodical issued from the press of Messrs. Ticknor and Fields, of Boston. Those who take interest in Transatlantic literature of the day, should not fail to order it at once. The subscription price is $5 per annum, payable in advance.—We can assure our readers that the money paid for it is amply repaid by the amount of choice reading it contains.

The Western Rural.—This is the paper that every farmer should subscribe for. Those who do not have it, should send for it at once.

A New Radical Paper.—The Lancaster Excelsior, Schuyler county, is a new paper, by H. D. B. Cutler, devoted to the interests of that section, and of the State and country, on the Radical platform. The first number, issued March 15th, promises a lively and vigorous journal, and is well executed in every respect. Success to the Excelsior.

HOSTETTER'S
STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Typhoid and like diseases, is to the people a source of pure unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find it a stimulant and generally adapted to comfort declining years, as it is the result of a tonic, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation with a resulting from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gender sex. There are certain periods when their care are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessary for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorating agents that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhoea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial. CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations of Hostetter's Bitters, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, South America, and Germany.
