

J. ELLIS, EDITOR. Troy, Mo.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1866.

For State Senator, ROBERT A. CAMPBELL.

The proceedings of the County Conservative Convention will be found in the Herald to day. We shall notice the tickets put in nomination next week.

Died at his residence, two miles from Troy on the 2nd inst. after a long and protracted illness, Mr. John Foster, Esq.

The Lost Cause.

Mr. Charles D. Leonard is now canvassing this county for the above book which is pronounced by good judges to be the best book published in regard to the southern history of the war. The book will contain 24 steel engravings of Southern Generals, which makes the work valuable to any library. Those who have not yet subscribed had better do so, for in it they will find all the material facts truly stated. The book is gotten up in the best style, and the price is from $5 to $6 according to finish. Everybody who wants a correct history ought to get a copy of this last great work of Pollard.

The Versailles Vindicator says the people of that village want one or two good brick layers, two or three plasterers, a watchmaker and barber. It also says the damage to the crops of corn and tobacco from the late frost, is much more serious than was first anticipated, some fine fields of tobacco being entirely ruined.

Problem.

We find the following in the St. Louis Republican. William killed a Partridge on the 24th of September, and one daily. Each bird being one and one half inches solid. How many will he have killed; and all put together what will be the height of a Pile on November 4th, 1866. Ten dollars reward for a correct answer.

A Steamboatman's Cure for Cholera.

The Madison Indiana Courier has the following from an old steamboatman, as a cholera cure.

Take one pint of pure brandy, two table spoonfuls of black pepper, two table spoonfuls of loaf sugar, and half an ounce of gum camphor. Put this mixture in a cup or pan, set the brandy on fire, stir it while burning and cook it well.

Dose—One teaspoonful every few minutes, as warm as the person can take it. If cramped, rub the person all over hard with the same mixture, until the skin looks red. I always keep it on hand—I have run the river during all the cholera seasons since 1832. I have had as many cases on my boats as any other person. The above remedy is all I ever used. I never lost a man. It will cure the worst case in 30 minutes.

I want every person to know this remedy for cholera. Every person should keep a bottle of it on hand, and take some if they have any symptoms of cholera.

Connecticut papers say the tobacco crop in the river towns above Hartford is a remarkably large one, though about a week later in ripening than usual. The farmers in Hartford county talk of the largest crop ever harvested, which will be worth a million dollars. Favorable reports also come from the tobacco crop in the interior Indiana counties, and the prospects are that more success will be produced in Southern Indiana than in any previous season, and that it will be of better quality.

Going to Texas.—Col. N. L. Norton, formerly a member of the Confederate Congress, from this district, will move to Texas in the course of a few weeks. Persons wishing to visit that State or move there would do well to call on him at his residence, near Millersburg, in Callaway co. Fulton Telegraph.

The Montana Republican says, there is on deposit, in Helena, a bar of gold weighing 198 ounces. The owner of this little brick also unloaded at Hershfield's bank a safe containing five hundred pounds of clear gold dust, which with 200 pounds more, was the result of two and a half months work upon Montana Bar.

There are twenty nine school houses in St. Louis for the accommodation of the district schools affording accommodations for upwards of ten thousand scholars, and on the 17th inst at the opening of the schools, these houses were all filled and many children were unable to obtain seats.

A Philadelphia paper announces the admission to the bar of Johnathan J. Wright, a full blooded negro.

Conservative Convention.

At a meeting of the Conservative Convention of Lincoln county, held at old Alexandria, on Wednesday, October 1st, 1866, Charles U. Porter was elected President, and James McLellan, Secretary. The President on taking the chair addressed the meeting, pointing out some of the most glaring wrongs to which the people of this State are forced to submit, and said that a united effort of the law abiding and true Union men of the country would soon relieve us of the petty tyrants whose motto is "rule or ruin."

All the townships having full delegations, Dr. J. W. Welch moved that a committee of one from each township be appointed by the President to draft resolutions and report a basis of action for the Convention; whereupon the following persons were appointed. Dr. James W. Welch of Hurricane, Col. C. W. Parker of Bedford, F. Wing of Clark, R. Womack of Millwood, C. Downs of Waverly; Judge Mozley of Union; Capt. A. M. Shults of Monroe, J. B. Allen of Prairie. The committee having retired, Henry Quigley Esq. responded to a call in a stirring speech.

The committee reported the following resolution which was carried unanimously.

Resolved, That the members of this convention hereby pledge themselves to cordially support the nominations that may be made for the different offices in this county, and that all aspirants for nomination make a like pledge.

The basis of action reported by the committee having been adopted, the Convention proceeded to nominate the following ticket.

- For Representative, RICHARD WOMACK. For Sheriff, S. R. WOOLFOLK. For Assessor, JAMES K. CANNON. Justices of County Court, N. B. MOXLEY, M. L. LOVELL and JOHN W. JAMESON. For Clerk of County Court, HENRY QUIGLEY. For Treasurer, FREDERICK WING. For Public Administrator, JOSEPH B. ALLEN. For Supervisor of Registration, DEBERICK WEDE. For Superintendent of Schools, JAMES M. McLELLAN. For Surveyor, GUYAN WILSON. For Coroner, J. B. CAMPBELL.

Dr. J. W. Welch made a short speech showing the necessity of united action on the part of every man to secure the observance of and a speedy repeal of the odious laws forced upon the people of this State by a small faction of desperate men.

H. Quigley, Esq. moved that the conservative party of Lincoln county hold a mass meeting in Troy, on Friday, Oct. 25th, 1866, and that distinguished speakers be invited to address the meeting—carried unanimously.

On motion of Col. C. W. Parker, the proceedings of the Convention were ordered to be sent to the Lincoln County Herald, and Missouri Republican, with the request for publication.

CHARLES U. PORTER, Pres't. JAMES M. McLELLAN, Secretary.

Negroes Arming.

The negroes have begun to arm all over the North, instigated thereto, no doubt, by the murderous Radical Faction who are upholding the Congressional party. Four regiments of negroes are in process of organization in this city. One is a militia regiment, the men and officers of which must be black to be admitted; while the other three are to be kept for some secret purpose known only to the projectors. If Denton is re-elected, of course, and its officers will consort with their fellow white militia officers on terms of absolute equality. Will the Radical secret plotters please explain why they are arming the negroes!—N. Y. World.

Four thousand dollars in New Orleans city bonds, of the issue of 1835, were recently found in an old secretary in Paris. Thirty one years interest is due on them. All measures to discover the real owner have proved fruitless, and the honest man who found them will soon be put in possession of them, and get the whole amount due, $11,400.

$20 Rewards.

STRAYED or stolen from the undersigned Henry's mill north of Auburn, a grey Mare, ten years old, about 18 hands high, four on one of her fore legs, also near on point of same throat. Also a black mare with white markings, large and stout, a two year old grey mare, branded on her left shoulder with the letters T. L. The above reward will cheerfully be paid for any information leading to the recovery of said animals. Address, THOMAS L. HOWELL, Troy, October 5, 1866. n41 4w

"Live Rebels"—Their Temper, and Threats for Election Day.

Editor Missouri Democrat.

This is written from the southwestern corner of Lincoln county, Mo. We have some live rebels in this county. Some of them want to know the birth day of the assassin Booth, the murderer of President Lincoln, so they can kill a sheep and have a jubilee on that day. They rejoice still over the brutal murder of our much lamented Major Wilson, who was captured at Pilot Knob. They denounce Charles W. Parker and A. C. Marsh, of Troy, as thieves and robbers, on account of their conduct while commanding the militia of this county. And, by the way, Col. Parker is a strong Conservative and President of the Johnson Club of this county, notwithstanding which they make grave charges against him and put them up in this shape: "While superintending the building of the block house in Troy he robbed and pressed the people of this county to the amount of thousands of dollars, and used less than two hundred of the money on the building, while he applied the balance of the money to his own private use." They also threaten to go to the polls on election day with their shot guns and shoot the brains out of the first "Black Republican" that says anything against their voting.

The above is a specimen of rebel Johnsonism in this county. Wonder if the Republican won't publish some of it as "more outrages?" If any one concerned doubts such a state of things existing here they can have positive proof in regard to it by applying to some of the Radical Union Committee men of this region. PRAESTER.

A Reply to Radical Slang from the "Dirty Corner" of the Missouri Democrat.

SEPTEMBER 19, 1866.

Editor Missouri Republican.—My attention has been called to an article published in the Missouri Democrat of to day over the signature of "Breaster," who locates himself somewhere in the "southwestern corner of Lincoln county," and suppose from the gross misrepresentations contained in his communication that it must be a "corner" on which the light of truth has never shone. As I am the most prominent object in "Breaster's" communication, deem it but justice to myself to take some notice of it, as little as it is. The manifest object of this Radical light is to exhibit me as a swindler, and to arraign me on charges which he has not the boldness to proclaim in his own responsibility, but cunningly parades my name before the public in connection with a fraudulent transaction which he says the "live rebels" in Lincoln county charge me while in command of the militia. The charge made by "Breaster" over the shoulders of the "live rebels" is that "while superintending the building of the block house in Troy, I robbed and pressed the people of Lincoln county to the amount of thousands of dollars, and used less than two hundred dollars on the building, while I applied the balance of the money to my own private use." "Breaster" knows this charge is false, and if he were honest in his efforts to prove up the perverseness and maliciousness of "live rebels" in Lincoln county he would have given it the lie in his article. If perchance he has never been illuminated in his dark "corner" in relation to the disposition made of moneys collected from citizens of Lincoln county for military purposes, I will take pleasure in showing him how every dollar was expended at any time he may call on me and ask to be enlightened, or if he will call at the office of the Quartermaster General of Missouri and examine my settlement, filed there in the fall of 1863, he will find how I used the money. So much for "Breaster's" notice of me individually. "Breaster" is somewhat exercised about threats which he says have been made by "live rebels to blow out the brains of Black Republicans" on election day.—Now it would not take a very heavy blow to scatter the brains of every Radical in Lincoln county, for they are contained in about 350 heads, but for the pittance of a three cent piece I will insure head, brains, body and all of the whole batch, without the assistance of one of Fletcher's militia, against the bloody hands of all "live rebels" in Lincoln county on election day or any other day between now and then, unless the Radicals themselves provoke an assault. The conservative men of Lincoln county, whom "Breaster" designates as "live rebels," expect to register and go to the polls and claim their right to vote under the law. They will do so in a peaceable manner, and doing so will defeat the Radicals fairly and overwhelmingly, and that's what's the matter with "Breaster."

C. W. PARKER.

It is Mr. Sowards expressed opinion that the Conservatives will carry the state of New York by a majority of 40,000 votes.
