MAGUIRE'S BENE PLANT.
 For more than twenty years this valuable medicine has been in general use as a remedy for dia-phren, dysentery, cholera and complaints of the bowels incident to summer, and we do not exaggerate when we say that it is the most successful and popular specific ever offered to the public.
 Agents in all parts of the world.
 On every best remedy that can be given to Cholera and Maguire's Extract of Bene Plant, it is infinitely superior to any of the receipts published in the newspapers, no matter from what source they may be derived. It was used in 1849-50 and '51 with astonishing success, since that time it has been used in all the epidemics of Cholera and Dysentery, and is now used in all the epidemics generally it has no rival. It is sold by druggists everywhere.—(St. Louis Democrat.)

Almost A Prophecy.
 The National Intelligencer says: Mr.
 Calhoun, as far back as 1838, proclaimed a great truth when he said:
 "Emancipation itself would not satisfy these fanatics; that galley, the next step would be to raise the negro to a social and political equality with the whites; and that effected, we should find the present condition of the two races reversed. They and their Northern masters would be the masters, and we the slaves: the condition of the white race in the British West India Islands, as bad as it is would be happiness to ours; there the mother country is interested in sustaining the supremacy of the European race.
 If Mr. Calhoun had been a prophet he could not more exactly have predicted what is now taking place.

The Cotton Crop.
 NEAR HYLENA, Ark., Oct. 30, 1866.
 Editor Missouri Republican.
 The cotton crop is a sorry affair in this section of the State. Almost every adversity has militated against the planter this year; an early, cold, wet season followed by a very dry season; the ground full of seeds, the inadequacy of labor all contribute to the failure which we now enjoy.
 Monday morning a party of emigrants passed through St. Joseph en route to Kansas, and created some excitement owing to the model conveyance made use of.
 In a "dog cart," leisurely reclining upon a mattress, were an old woman and young girl, both enjoying the luxury of a pipe; the old man and his youthful son being hard at work giving the necessary loco motion to the vehicle.

Jefferson Davis.
 Eighteen months have nearly elapsed since Jefferson Davis was made a state prisoner. He had previously been publicly charged, by the President of the United States, with conspiring to assassinate President Lincoln, and $100,- 000 offered for his capture thereupon.— The capture was promptly made and the money duly paid; yet, up to this hour, there has not been an attempt made by the Government to procure his indictment on that charge. He has also been popularly, if not officially, accused of complicity in the virtual murder of Union soldiers, while prisoners of war, by exposing them to needless, inhuman ex-torture, privation and abuse. But no official attempt has been made to indict him on that charge. He has been indicted for simple treason; and even this indictment has not been obtained at this instance of the Government. It may be so badly drawn that no conviction could be had on it, whatever the proof advanced; yet the Executive could say, "I am not responsible for this. The indictment was obtained without the assent or privity of my Attorney-General or Cabinet." Repeated attempts have been made by the prisoner's counsel to bring his case to trial; but to no purpose. The Government does not appear to prosecute; the machinery of the Courts is always out of order. At one time, martial-law stands in the way; when the obstacle is removed there is a civil as to the sufficiency or completeness of its withdrawal; and when that will no longer serve, it is found that Congress has somehow disarranged the Judicial Districts, so that the case cannot safely be proceeded with. And Congress itself, having most inconsider-ately meddled with the matter, never took pains to inquire what action on its parts if any, was requisite: so that now Congress, President and Chief Justice, are in a complete muddle on the subject; each seeming inclined to throw all responsibility for the delay on one or both of the others.
 The upshot of all this is, that the prisoner is not tried, nor likely to be; and that, if tried, he is morally certain not to be convicted; and if convicted, not to be punished. There are still many persons who would like to have him executed; but there is not one intelligent man on earth who has the faintest notion that he ever will be. For, though Governments sometimes inflict capital punishment on conspicuous rebels, they never at least in modern times, do so long after their rebellion was suppressed. Austria, in 1849, put to death thirteen of the Hungarian leaders betrayed into her hands by the mercenary Gorgey; but she tried them by drumhead court martial directly after their surrender, and had them hanged and buried within forty-eight hours. Had she waited eighteen months and then executed them, she would have invoked the execration of all Christendom.
 Since it is notorious that Davis is not to be punished, why is he still kept awaiting a trial which he alone seems to desire and he can by no means obtain? What good end is subserved by persisting in a menace which still serves to irritate, though no longer appals?—N. York Tribune.

Business in New Orleans.
 The New Orleans correspondent of the Natchez Courier writes thus in regard to business in that city. He says:
 "Wages have never been higher, and a good carpenter can command $5 and even $6 per day. Houses and stores are being built in every portion of the city; but, rapidly as they are going up, there will not be a sufficient number to supply the demand. Rents are really fabulous—persons gladly paying $50 for unfurnished rooms, and $5 additional for the privilege of the kitchen, which means leave to pass by and peep in, and, if your laudably looks amiable, to make a cup of tea, of which you have, of course, to invite her to partake.
 "Despite the mendacious falsehood of the enemies of the South, many Northern and Western men are here, and some who came in fear, express great surprise that their lives and property are as safe as they were at their own firesides. There is also an immense influx of negroes, with whom we could easily dispense, as they are too lazy to work, and only fit to sell."
 A French journal tells a little story about a lady: "When I was first married I was on my knees before my husband from morning till night. It was perfect adoration and incessant delirium—a inexpressible bliss. I showered caresses upon him; I could have eaten him."
 "And now?" asked a friend. I am sorry I don't."
 Passenger trains commenced running to the extension on the Cedar Rapids and Missouri River Railroad on Wednesday of last week, October 31. This brings Sioux City, Iowa, within 75 miles railroad connection with St. Louis and the rest of mankind.
 Scene—A fashionable city party—low necked dresses a prominent feature. A pert city Miss thus addresses her country cousin:
 "Cousin Sam, did you ever see such a glorious sight before?"
 "Never since I was weaned," replied Sam with a blush.
 People should be careful what kind of potatoes they buy at the present time.
 When infected by rot they are alleged to be decidedly poisonous.
 "Your conduct is very singular, sir," said a young lady to a gentleman, who had just kissed her. "Oh! well, my dear miss, I will soon make it plural."

To the Friends of the School.
 As the most appropriate response to many inquiries we append the following rules adopted by the Board of Instruction.
 1.—Students in the Academic department must attend religious service at least once every Lord's-day unless excused by the President upon request of parents or guardians.
 2.—They shall be free to attend any church designated by parents or guardians.
 3.—They will be requested to attend chapel service every morning, Saturday and Sunday excepted.
 4.—No allusion whatever shall be made in the school to denominational tenets and peculiarities.
 5.—The Bible shall be constantly read and its morality inculcated.
 6.—Irregularity in attendance will not be tolerated on any account whatever, sickness excepted.
 E. V. RICE, President.

Cultivated Women.
 Sheridan has said beautifully.
 "Women govern us; let us render them perfect. The more they are enlightened so much the more shall we be. On the cultivation of the mind of women depends the wisdom of men. It is by women that nature writes on the hearts of men." A convict confined in the Western (Pa.) Penitentiary, whose name was Holmes, on Thursday morning indulged in the most blasphemous language, cursing everybody, cursing Christ, cursing God, and pronouncing God the author of all sin, and ridiculing the Bible. While uttering his blasphemy he was suddenly struck down with apoplexy, and remained insensible until he died, at noon Friday.
