LOCAL AND COUNTY. Removal.—J. P. Lynot has removed his Tin Shop into the building east of the Town Spring...

Cheap Lands.—The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement in the Herald, headed "Homes in Missouri."

Mr. Browning's Parable.—Under this title the New York Observer is publishing a serial story, to run through a large part of the next volume.

The Phenological Journal for December, the last of volume forty-eight, contains a great variety of interesting matter...

Farm for Sale.—The farm known as the "Hamilton Farm," 1 1/2 miles north of Troy, containing 107 acres...

Taxation and Representation. The right of representation is inherited in him who pays taxes, say our Radical politicians and would be statesmen.

We understand the contract for building a bridge across the Missouri, at Leavenworth, has been let at $750,000.

STATE ITEMS.

A negro woman, recently a slave in this State, has bequeathed to her a farm in Platte county, valued at $6,000.

On the 2d inst., a young man by the name of Martin Speck committed suicide at Glasgow, by drowning. He was a native of Germany, and about 26 years old.

The residents of Barry have offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and imprisonment in the Platte county jail, of the murderers of the Marshall family.

A little daughter of Dr. Joseph Favis, about six years old, living near St. Joseph, was burned so badly by her clothes catching fire while standing near the fire place, that she died on the 18th inst., two days after.

The popular Southern Post and editor of the "Banner of the South," at Augusta, Georgia, Rev. A. J. Ryan, was born and raised in St. Louis.

Maj. John Edwards, one of the editors of the Kansas City Times, had his right leg broken in two places—below the knee and just above the ankle—by being thrown from a buggy, while riding recently with Gen. Shelby in Lafayette county.

The Pacific House, St. Joseph, changed owners on the 17th inst., for the sum of $71,500, which, the Herald says, is "far below its actual value."

On the 10th inst. Mr. A. B. Smith, a stranger seeking business in this State, attempted to cross the Muddy, near Sealia, with a two horse wagon containing himself, his wife and three children.

On the 11th inst., Frank Walters, a laborer on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad, in attempting to get on a train while in motion, slipped, and was thrown before the wheels of the cars, which passed over him, killing him instantly.

Not long since, a Mrs. Marshall and her son were murdered, near Barry, Platte county, Mo. Facts have since transpired which lead to the belief that the murder was committed by Mrs. Marshall's eldest son, for the purpose of securing her property.

The St. Louis Times learns from a gentleman who has traveled extensively throughout the West and Southwest during the past few months, that the wheat sown recently for winter growth presents a splendid appearance.

The Brunswick of the 14th inst. contains an advertisement by the Sheriff of Chariton county, acting trustee for a creditor, offering for sale the Presbyterian Church edifice in Brunswick, to satisfy the debts due by the congregation worshipping in it.

Mr. M. Barrett, editor of the Canton (Lewis county) Press, drew a fine piano at the recent drawing of the Stock Farm Association.

On the 17th instant, Mr. Thomas Roberts, son of Joseph Roberts, residing near Prairieville, Pike county, was found lying dead in the road between Prairieville and Auburn, in Lincoln county.

It is said that a few nights since a small party were gathered in Gen. Grant's parlor, and among them Mr. Dent, his father-in-law, who lives in Missouri.

Minnie McQue, a little boy about eleven years old, was killed at Wellsville, on the 18th inst., under the following circumstances. He was standing on the end of a car on the railroad track, while some employees of the road were arranging some cars on the switch preparatory to loading.

The Louisiana Journal of the 21st says that the election for Clerk of the City Council last Tuesday, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of B. F. Hepper, resulted in the choice of Maj. Augustus Oury, Democrat, by a majority of 27 votes over R. J. Henry, Radical.

There is a negro woman living in Clay county by the name of Wisey, who is 118 years old. She was born in Virginia in 1750, years before the revolution.

A man from Illinois, on his way to Fort Scott, Kansas, had the confidence game played on him at Kansas City, on the 21st inst., to the tune of $200, by a man professing to be a Fort Scott merchant.

We find the following in the local columns of the Missouri Republican. ROBBING HIMSELF.—It is a custom in our law courts too frequently for the opposing lawyers to expatiate in no very complimentary terms on the mental and physical status of prisoners.

A New Jersey Prophet—Earthquakes Predicted. Prof. Thrope, of Nebraska College, claims that several months ago, when Vesuvius had broken into an eruption, he told a number of gentlemen of Hudson City, N. J., that earthquakes on this continent would speedily follow.

Gen. Robert E. Lee has been tendered by the Knickerbocker Life Insurance Company the position of Supervisor of Agencies in the South, at a salary of ten thousand dollars per year.

MARRIED.—On the 24th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. C. P. E. MARTIN, D. D., Mr. THOMAS H. HARRIS and Miss M. JOSEPHINE MILLER, all of this county.

ALTAR OF HYMNEN. "Marriage is the nursery of Heaven." MARRIED.—On the 24th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. C. P. E. MARTIN, D. D., Mr. THOMAS H. HARRIS and Miss M. JOSEPHINE MILLER, all of this county.

Let us gather up the sunbeams, Lying all along our path; Let us keep the wheat and roses, Singing our friend Tom, as he launches out from the calm port of that frolicking, independent brotherhood, vulgarly called boozeholers.

YOU MAY BE TOO LATE. Be warned in time. Diseases like Indigestion and Dyspepsia are not to be trifled with. There is such a thing as being too late in these matters.
