

IN THE BASILICA OF ST. PETERS

The Coronation of Pope Pius X. Took Place With All the Magnificent Rites of Church.

THE CEREMONY WITNESSED BY SEVENTY THOUSAND PERSONS

The Scene Presented on the Pope Mounting the Throne Formed a Picture of Magnificence to Which No Pen Can Do Justice—Pope Overcome.

Rome, Aug. 9.—The ceremony of the coronation of Pope Pius X. took place today in the Basilica of St. Peter in the presence of the princes and high dignitaries of the church, diplomats and Roman nobles, and with all the solemnity and splendor associated with the most magnificent rite in the Roman Catholic church.

As Cardinal Macchi, the dean of the cardinals, placed the triple crown on the head of the venerable pontiff, the throng of 70,000 persons gathered within the cathedral burst into unrestrained acclamations, the choir intoned a hymn of triumph and the bells of Rome rang out a joyful peal.

The pope rose unusually early, and took a stroll in the vatican garden. Then he allowed himself to be dressed by the cardinals. He evinced no nervousness and even said jokingly to the master of ceremonies, who the other day suggested that he should use the plural form in speaking of himself, "We feel very well this morning, but we may be different on returning from our coronation."

The procession then formed and proceeded to the door of the basilica through which Pius X. cast an almost reproachful glance, whispering to Dr. Lippold:

"Should I ever be able to go through with it?"

"Long live Pius X." The people of basilica had meantime become impatient and when the gleaming cross which preceded the cortege was seen it was greeted with great applause. On the appearance of the pontiff himself it seems as though the people would seek to carry him in their arms, so great was their enthusiasm. Cries of "Pius, our pope, our father," and "Long live Pius X."

A Scene of Magnificence.

The scene presented on his mounting the throne formed a magnificent picture to which no pen could do justice. The central figure was the venerable pontiff seated on the torse. Two lines of cardinals clad in silver and scarlet reached to the high altar with its burden of burnish candles and sacred vessels, while around stood the papal guards, the pontifical court, monks and officials. The cathedral was illuminated with twinkling lights, while the marble columns and walls rendered the color scheme more vivid. Overhead, was the most magnificent dome in the world up to which floated the harmony of the music.

The appearance of the pope in that elevated position called forth another burst of enthusiasm. The pope then blessed the altar, and after saying the "indulgentiam" the maniples, a symbol of the cord with which Christ was bound on his capture, was placed, with great ceremony, upon the pope's arm.

Touching Prayer Offered For Pius X. The whole sacred college gathered about the pope, singing Palestrina's "Corona Aurea Super Caput Ejus," while the choir burst forth into song. Cardinal Macchi then recited the "Pater noster" and offered the following prayer:

"Omnipotent and Ever Eternal God, Dignitary of the Clergy and Author of Sovereignty, grant Thy servant, Pius X., grace fruitfully to govern Thy church so that he, who by Thy clemency, becomes and is crowned as father of kings and rector of all the faithful, through Thy wise disposition may govern well."

"Amen" rang out from all corners of the cathedral, from the choir, the people, the clergy and the patriarians.

When comparative silence had been restored Cardinal Macchi addressed the pope in Latin as follows:

"Receive the tiara ornamented with three crowns. Remember thou art the father of princes and kings, the rector of the world, the vicar on earth of our savior, Jesus Christ, who is the honor and glory of all centuries."

"Amen" again burst forth from the concourse.

Imparts the Pontifical Benediction. Pope Pius was almost overcome, and had scarcely strength left to impart the apostolic benediction. Cardinals Macchi and Segna granted a plenary indulgence to all present, and the procession then reformed and left the basilica in the same form as it came.

When the ceremony was over all the exits to the vatican were opened, and within an hour the vast cathedral was empty.

BAGGAGEMEN MAIL CLERKS

Experiment of Employing Baggage-men to Handle Mail.

To Deliver From Car Doors Mail to Those to Whom It is Addressed at Points Along the Line.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Postmaster-General Payne has decided to make the experiment of employing baggage-men on trains which are not provided with mail clerks to take charge of and deliver open newspaper mail. This decision has been reached after much consideration, and in response to a petition filed by many of the leading newspaper publishers of the country who asked the post office department to provide facilities for distributing open bundles of papers along the lines from trains which carry only closed pouches. There are a large number of such trains, and the department is not represented by an employe on them. The postmaster general declined to assume responsibility for papers not inclosed in the pouches. Second Assistant Postmaster-General Shallenbarger then suggested the experiment of employing the baggage-men to take charge of the mail in such cases, and the suggestion was adopted. The plan contemplates that the baggage-masters shall be sworn in as post office department employes and that they shall be paid for their services. It is intended that they shall deliver the papers to those to whom they are addressed at points along the line from the car doors, thus saving much time which would be lost in case the papers were inclosed in the pouches as this would necessitate their being taken to the local post office before they could be delivered to agents. It is estimated that the cost of the service through the baggage-man will be much less than if post office employes were supplied for all such trains.

TO VISIT THE PRESIDENT.

Conference to be Held Between President and Attorney General Relative to Department of Justice.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Attorney-General Knox will arrive here today to have a conference with the president. He will take luncheon at Sagamore Hill and probably will remain with the president most of the day.

The president desires to go over with him certain matters now pending in the department of justice, including that phase of the Litauer-Lyon glove contract case which was referred to the attorney general.

The attention of the president last evening was directed to a circumstantial statement published yesterday afternoon that Secretary of War Root expected to retire from the cabinet, to be succeeded by Gov. Taft of the Philippines. It can be said that there is no definite foundation for the story. The president, since the first intimation many months ago of Secretary Root's possible retirement, has hoped and still hopes that he will remain in the cabinet for a long time yet. He believes that the secretary certainly will remain through the coming winter and probably a much longer time.

PRESIDENT GRANTS PARDON.

Witness Needed in Texas Murder Trial Pardoned by President in Order to Testify Legally.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The president has granted a pardon to Wm. Follis of Texas, whose testimony is said to be essential in a murder trial pending in Texas, in which James Follis, a nephew of the pardoned man, is the accused. William Follis is said to be the only man who can establish the identity of the body of the dead man, an old and well-to-do farmer and ferry tender in Henderson county named McDonald, but as he served a term in the Detroit house of correction some ten years ago after conviction in a federal court in Texas for counterfeiting his testimony was incompetent under the laws of the state until he was pardoned.

HELD FOR THE GRAND JURY.

Preliminary Examination of F. Seymour Harrington, Charged With Killing James P. McAnn.

St. Louis, Aug. 11.—The preliminary hearing of "Lord" F. Seymour Harrington, accused of the murder of his friend and benefactor, James P. McAnn, at Bonfils Station, in St. Louis county, on the night of June 18, opened in the county court room at Clayton, Monday, before Justice Isaac W. Campbell, of DeHodiamont.

The defense waived the reading of the information, and Harrington entered a plea of not guilty. The defense's request that witnesses be excluded from the room and placed in charge of special officers until called was agreed to and the examination proceeded.

Harrington was held without bond, despite the objections of his attorneys, who now threaten to institute habeas corpus proceedings to have him released pending the action of the grand jury.

DURBIN RELIES TO ROOSEVELT

Thinks President Struck Keynote of National Necessity.

PLEASED WITH COMMENDATION

Declares We Must Show That Law is Adequate to Deal With Crime by Freeing It From Every Vestige of Inhumanity.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 11.—Gov. Durbin, Monday, set a formal reply to the letter he received, Sunday, from President Roosevelt concerning the recent mob at Evansville. Gov. Durbin says:

"Dear Mr. President: Acting in accordance with the suggestion made by the secretary to the resident, I yesterday telegraphed your approval of the communication you have seen fit to address to me under date of August 6. In doing this I proceeded on the well warranted belief in the commendation you have so generously accorded to my official acts as only incidental to the broader purpose of your admirable letter, which is moving appeal to the conscience and the patriotism, destined, in my opinion, to profoundly affect public sentiment on a vitally important national problem. The effect of such an appeal on such a source is certain to be salutary in its widespread influences. In this instance, as in other emergencies you have spoken with the courage of conviction, with the eloquence of earnestness and under the inspiration of the ear understanding of and devotion to the duties and responsibilities of American citizenship.

"I feel that you have struck the keynote of a national necessity when you say that 'all public men, all writers of the press, all clergymen, all teachers, all who, in any way have a right to address the people, shall with every energy unite to denounce such crimes and to support those engaged in putting them down,' and declare the correlated doctrine that 'we must show that the law is adequate to deal with crime by freeing it from every vestige of technicality and delay.'

"Your stirring words will serve to press home upon the people a responsibility which, reaching beyond all those in authority, is after all essentially their own. I arouse the realization of that responsibility and all that implies will be entirely eradicate conditions which otherwise may soon become, as you point out so cleverly, an imminent menace to the very life of the republic."

GOV. HEARD'S COMMENTS.

Thinks Remedy For Lynch Law is Prompt and Speedy Trial.

Baton Rouge, La., Aug. 11.—In discussing the letter of President Roosevelt to Gov. Durbin of Indiana, Gov. Heard said, Monday night:

"I think the remedy for lynch law is prompt and speedy trial. Every lynching weakens respect for law, and if men persist in the form of redress they lose all respect for law, and in itself superinduces and invites other crimes. I agree thoroughly with the president in his statement that the cornerstone of the republic as of all free governments, is respect for and obedience to the law. The president's letter is a strong and timely one, and I agree with much of what he says. But there is one point on which he is clearly mistaken and on which I strongly dissent from his view. He seems to think that the punishment meted out to negroes for certain nameless crimes are punishments especially aimed at them by reason of their color. His misconception arises doubtlessly from the fact that a crime is limited most exclusively to the colored race. Punishment knows no distinction of color. White men rarely commit this crime, but when they do the record shows that it matters little in what section the same punishment usually follows."

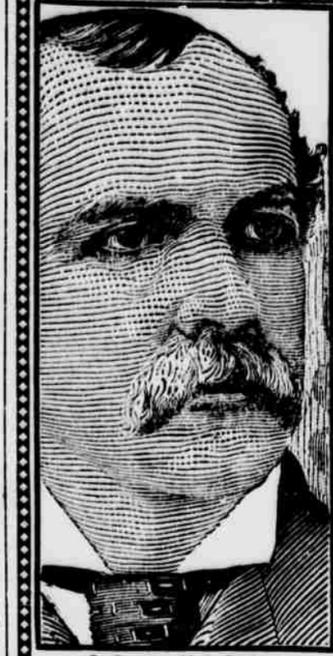

ARE THEY LEE'S LETTERS?

Package Received at Jefferson City Supposed to Contain Letters Bearing on Bodie Trial.

Jefferson City, Mo., Aug. 11.—The foreman of the grand jury, Monday, received a package which bore the postmark of Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ont. While the contents are not publicly known it is supposed the package contained letters sent by Daniel J. Kelley which he received on former Lieut.-Gov. John A. Leary's used in the bribery trial of Sator Farris.

This is taken to indicate that Mrs. Kelley will probably not return to Jefferson City to testify at the bribery trials. It was Key's intention to have her present the letters in person and she recently met for that purpose, but the trial were postponed, and she returned home.

U. S. SENATOR FROM SOUTH CAROLINA Recommends Peruna For Dyspepsia and Stomach Trouble.

Ex-Senator M. C. Butler.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Catarrh of the Stomach is Generally Called Dyspepsia—Something to Produce Artificial Digestion is Generally Taken.

Hence, Pepsin, Pancreatin and a Host of Other Digestive Remedies Has Been Invented.

These Remedies Do Not Reach the Seat of the Difficulty, Which is Really Catarrh.

Ex-Senator M. C. Butler from South Carolina, was Senator from that state for two terms. In a recent letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., from Washington, D. C., says:

"I can recommend Peruna for dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I have been using your medicine for a short period and I feel very much relieved. It is indeed a wonderful medicine besides a good tonic."—M. C. Butler.

The only rational way to cure dyspepsia is to remove the catarrh. Peruna cures catarrh. Peruna does not produce artificial digestion. It cures catarrh and leaves the stomach to perform digestion in a natural way. This is vastly better and safer than resorting to artificial methods.

Peruna has cured more cases of dyspepsia than all other remedies combined, simply because it cures catarrh wherever located. If catarrh is located in the head, Peruna cures it. If catarrh has fastened itself in the throat or bronchial tubes, Peruna cures it. When catarrh becomes settled in the stomach, Peruna cures it, as well in this location as in any other.

Peruna is not simply a remedy for dyspepsia. Peruna is a catarrh remedy. Peruna cures dyspepsia because it is generally dependent upon catarrh.
