

Morgan County Democrat.

CENTRAL MISSOURI FARMING, MINING, REAL ESTATE, RAILROAD AND GENERAL NEWS.

SEVENTH YEAR.

Versailles, Mo., Friday Morning, June 8, 1906.

No. 23.

EXPLANATIONS won't go if you find out you have been deliberately cheated. If you ask for all the best goods and get poor you're mad. We don't have to offer explanations about the POULTRY FOOD we sell. We know it is bound to stand the tests of our representations. What's more our stock now ready has wonderful values. The food beyond compare and prices down and out of sight.

Muntzel Drug Co

H. K. ENLOE,
RESIDENT DENTIST.
Office Phone 74. Residence Phone 39.

LOCAL NEWS.

All wool Sweaters at the "FAMOUS" for $1.00.
Private money to loan by Chas. Kavanaugh.
John Rains of Eldon was a visitor in Versailles Monday.
Go to E. M. Duff's for the latest styles in picture frames.
Dr. Shelton of Gladstone was a visitor in Versailles Wednesday.
A big fishing party left for an outing on Indian creek yesterday morning.
Joe Wendleton was in from Stover Tuesday looking after business matters.
Uriah Pontias of near Stover was transacting business in this city Wednesday.
For all of the popular cold drinks visit the Soda Fountain of J. B. Lumpee, every thing clean and up to date.
I will keep the best meats and groceries the markets afford, and solicit your trade. C. H. PRICE, The Butcher and Grocer.
Mrs. D. W. Eaton and children arrived here last Sunday from Washington D. C., and will remain in this city indefinitely.
Quite a crowd from this City attended the big German ball given at Stover Monday night, and report having had a splendid time.
J. B. Lumpee handles all kinds of first class Canned Goods, and don't charge any more for them than others charge for the cheaper grades.
John Briscoe and family of Jefferson City were here this week making a visit with their numerous relatives and friends. Mrs. Briscoe is the daughter of J. L. Vaughan.
The Athletic base ball club was re-organized this week and as it appears there will be no other base ball aggregation here this season the Athletics will have the whole field to themselves.
Now is time to buy a Spring Suit. We have a splendid line and can please you in style and price.
CARL W. BIERSACH,
On the Corner,

For fresh tender meats at all times, call on the Butcher and Grocer.
C. H. PRICE.

The meetings at the Christian church were continued this week by Elder Calvin A. Hedrick, who has been delivering some forcible discourses.

S. B. Livingston came over from Sedalia Sunday and returned to the city Monday accompanied by his wife, and sister, Miss Mabel Livingston who is making a visit with them this week.

Rev. David C. Peters and family arrived here last week from Trinidad, Colo., for a brief visit with the Mrs. Peters' parents, Dr. and Mrs. P. G. Woods, and numerous other Versailles friends.

The Athletics of this City played a game of ball last Saturday afternoon with the Moreaus and defeated them by a score of 8 to 7. Windsor will probably play the Athletics here Sunday afternoon.

Dr. Morris, the dentist, will be in his office in Versailles commencing June 11th prepared to do all kinds of dental work. Office west of the Court House and over Knoop's store. Remember the date.

Rev. E. C. Boaz filled his appointment at High Point last Sunday, leaving here Saturday afternoon he went to the Hale school house where he preached Saturday night before going to High Point.

George Offinier, of Ohio, arrived here this week to make his home with his son, Abb. Offinier. Mr. Offinier, Sr., is a well preserved man of about 80 years and looks good for a number of years to come.

J. A. Farmer of Linn Creek was in this city Tuesday night and attended a meeting of Versailles Lodge of Odd Fellows. He returned to Linn Creek Wednesday accompanied by his brother J. W. Farmer.

J. W. Bailey of Rich Hill, Mo., and sister Mrs. Sarah C. Hunter of Neoga, Ill., are visiting the Bailey brothers and sister at Hillcrest Fruit Ranch south of this City and enjoying the beauties of this healthy growing fruit farm.

J. B. Lumpee has placed a fine canvass awning in front of his place of business on the west side, and after the customer has satisfied his thirst with an ice cream soda on the inside he can stand in the shade on the outside and let it settle.

A. Young of Ladora, Iowa, father of H. A. Young the real estate man, arrived Wednesday for a visit of a few weeks. This is Mr. Young's third trip to Versailles and he is highly pleased with the many improvements which he now sees in the town.

Quite a number of Versailles base ball enthusiasts went to Eldon last Sunday to see the game there between the Eldon team and the Dolans of Kansas City. Two games were played, Kansas City won the first 8 to 2, Eldon second 3 to 1.

Miss Lorle Jobe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Jobe, formerly of this city but now of Sherman, Texas, arrived here Wednesday for a visit with relatives and friends. She was accompanied by her brother Atwell, who returned south again yesterday. Atwell holds a position with the Daily Register of Sherman and could not prolong his visit at this time. They are both looking well.

ICE! ICE! ICE!
I am now ready for your ice business.
C. H. MASON,
The Get There Butcher.

A MARVELOUS DOLLAR'S WORTH

Paying More is Wasteful.

SPECIAL VALUES IN

Clothing and White Goods
Curtains and many seasonable goods we are Cleaning up.

Men's Suits.

Do you want a Suit at greatly reduced cost? The suits we offer are neat, nobby garments, made from handsome fabrics and were made to sell for $12 and $15. We place them on sale, to clean up while they last $8.88 and $10.

Hats in Style.

At this sale we offer a lot of hats in style and season, 50c and 25c Hats go for 10c and 15c.

White Goods, Dimities, Brocades

And many other fabrics we sold for from 15 to 35c, will clean up for 10c to 20c. Come early and get first choice, you can't go wrong unless you go elsewhere.

M. JOACHIMI'S

Cut Price Cash Store.

Oldest and Largest Mercantile House in Versailles, Missouri.

Chas. W. Kavanaugh the Abstracter would like to write your deeds, mortgages, contracts, etc.

You need not worry any more. When you want that picture of yours framed bring it to E. M. Duff's store and he will fix you up in the latest style. He has the goods and the price is so low you will not miss it.

The Barnett Enterprise says that Contractor Dunham moved a dwelling house last week for Z. T. Weaver from old Barnett to a lot recently purchased by Mr. Weaver in the new town. Dunham is a dandy when it comes to moving big structures.

There is a base ball franchise now open for some promoter of the National sport in Versailles, as Roy Thorpe and D. C. Hardy, Jr., have resigned and are ready to turn the matter over to any syndicate who feel disposed to take hold and revive the former "Merchants" team.

The Rock Island changed time on several of their trains June 1, but the change does not effect Versailles to any great extent. The west bound local freight now comes at 9:10 a. m. and the east bound local 2:25 p. m., these being the only noticeable changes.

Arthur Duff and Atwood Long left Wednesday for Denver, Colorado, where they will look around for a time and if they can secure employment will probably remain there. They are both worthy young men and will give value received to any employer. Arthur's place at the Missouri Pacific depot is being filled by Frank Hamlin.

Wool! Wool! Wool!
We pay the highest market price for Wool.

CARL W. BIERSACH,
On the Corner.

F. A. Stitt, representing the Thiebes-Stierlin Music Co., of St. Louis and Sedalia is here and is making an exhibit of pianos, talking machines and popular up-to-date sheet music in the store room of the Martin Hotel block. A special musician of the company is here with Mr. Stitt and while they take pleasure in showing their different classes of instruments the musician renders fine selections and popular airs for musicians and prospective purchasers.

If, perchance, a copy of this paper should fall into the hands of any who are in search of a new location—a place where church, school and social advantages are given emphasis, and where you can live out your allotted number of years without fear of pestilence or famine, we say, like one of old, "Come thou with us and we will do thee good," without emphasis on the "do," that is, if we are favored with a few showers at intervals.