Furniture of all kinds repaired and satisfaction given.

KIDWELL & TALBOTT,
Furniture Store.

W. Y. Ritchey and family, have returned, after a few year's sojourn in Ark., and will again enjoy life in the hills of South Morgan, the only place.

C. H. Price, The Butcher, can be found at the old stand, with a full line of Fresh and Salt Meats, the best on the market.

Wilber Merriott and family, who have been enjoying a touch of city life at Sedalia, returned to Morgan Friday, and will again be at home in South Morgan, the land of promise.

Ice! ice! ice!

The coldest ice in town at
C. H. PRICE'S.

Mayor Flem Harrison, Hon. Wm. Forman and Attorney W. T. S. Agee, of Versailles, attended court here this week.—Linn Creek Reveille.

We didn't know Flem was a lawyer, but a real live Versailles real estate man can fill the bill whenever or wherever called upon.

Herman Silvey, who went to Sedalia a few days ago to look up a location, returned before the family could get the household goods packed up, and will continue to be a citizen of Old Morgan. No place like it, and none just as good.

J. S. Boyce, of the Boonville Training School, came in Saturday to attend to business in the Probate Court, and to arrange for moving back to the best town in Central Missouri, having tendered his resignation as teacher at the Training School. The new management is of the "high brow" order, and require professors of base ball, foot ball, golf, etc., in order to reform the youngsters up to a higher plane.

W. I. Merchand and wife, after enjoying life in this, the best country on earth, expect to leave for their old home at Brookstone, Ind. They will both be missed, as they were splendid neighbors, and the right kind of citizens. We wish for them a pleasant time in the old home. Frank has an attraction here, and will probably remain, as he needs a cook and housekeeper, and has learned that Morgan county furnishes the best brand.

A Pleasant Party at Parson Orr's.

Rev. and Mrs. Z. T. Orr entertained a crowd of young ladies at their home on Maple ave., Tuesday evening, Aug. 29th, in honor of their daughter, Miss Eunice. The evening was spent in talking and laughing and a jolly good time was had by all. Dainty refreshments were served to the following: Misses Paulina Nolte, Rosina Curtis, Lillian Dunn, Mable Leach, Edna Abell, Ruby Bond, Jennie Young, Gussie Brooks, Lillie Hunter, Willie Gunn, Ross Burns, Eunice Hunter, Mary Hubbard, Maggie Askew and Beatrice Kinloch. Mr. and Mrs. Orr expressed their regrets that some of those invited were unable to be present.

Dr. Gunn, wife and baby, of Florence, was visiting relatives here this week.

Misses Bessie and Bonnie Hardy went to K. C. Friday to visit their sister, Mrs. Washburn.

Miss Gladys Hubbard went over to California Tuesday to visit friends there and attend the California Street Fair.

Miss Alta B. Hall, formerly a teacher in the Versailles schools, visited Mrs. H. A. Young last week, leaving Tuesday for Columbia, where she will attend the University this winter.

Rev. T. J. Suddarth left Wednesday for his old home in Bates county to attend to business.

Mrs. Rider and Mrs. Deihl arrived here from Chicago last week to visit Mrs. Deihl's mother, Mrs. S. Hunter. Mrs. Rider left Friday for her home in Mexico City, Mex., but Mrs. Deihl will remain here for some time.

M. Hays, with his Demolishing & Excavating and Construction Co. of the World, has secured a location in the grove just north of the postoffice, has had seats and electric lights put in, and is now prepared to treat his guests to a comfortable entertainment. He has good audiences each night and good attention.

We received a post card from our old friend, John W. Dromgold, of Vesalia, Calif., inviting us to come out and see that wonderful country. Thanks, brother, for the kind invitation, but you seem to us to be too far away from anywhere, and Imperial Missouri is good enough for us. Good luck to you while you stay, and a hearty welcome when ready to come home.

Prof. Noyes, while at Boonville recently, taking in the street fair, was neatly taken in, and his pocket-book taken away without his knowledge or consent. We always thought the old man an easy mark, and wonder at Mrs. Noyes allowing him to carry the cash. Hereafter he will be given the price of three beers and turned loose.

A New Cafe.

Messrs. Jesse Hardy, of this city, and C. H. Page, of Boonville, are getting ready to open up a first-class cafe in the Freebairn building, west side of square. Mr. Page comes as an experienced caterer to the public wants and wishes. They will soon be ready for business, so watch for the date. "The Palms," on North Monroe, will be continued by Mr. Hardy.

LUMBER

Now is the time to build that new house, or repair the old one, as you will never buy lumber for less money than now.

We have a complete stock of all kinds of building material and the quality and prices are right, so don't fail to see us in our new yard just east of Mo. Pac. Depot.

Abell & Hardy.

A Pleasant Surprise.

On Tuesday evening, August 22nd, while Dr. E. P. Yarnell and family were at the picture show, their pleasant home on Van Buren street was taken possession of by the following ladies: Mesdames I. C. Legere, D. A. Fairley, C. H. Price, Bernice Spidel, D. E. Wray, P. G. Woods, Lucy Bakewell, J. W. Knoop, W. B. Todd, and Misses Amy Keiffer and Blanche Spidel. Possession being nine points the Dr. and Mrs. Yarnell waived the other point and made it unanimous on their return. It was what is designated a "tacky party," a general good time for everybody, and the guests were entertained by the visitors with songs, recitations and music, and we might add just a little gossip, but that is only our guess. The ladies, faithful to tradition, had brought along a bountiful supply of good things to eat, and refreshments were served. Mrs. Yarnell, taking advantage of the Drs. absence in Kansas City Tuesday, had this same party as her guests to a comfort tacking, and with the Dr. out of earshot they just had a lovely time—tacking comforts, talking and eating.

Miss Mattiebell Cockrel, of Sedalia, was visiting friends here last week.

You will find the best of Fresh Meats, Smoked and Salt Meats, Lard, Sausage, Etc., at C. H. PRICE'S.

C. C. Marriott, who had a slight stroke of paralysis, August 19th, is gradually improving, with hopes of his entire recovery.

The way the outside boys are carrying off the Morgan County girls the Morgan County boys will have to go to the Philippines for wives—or go without.

Mrs. W. A. Dromgold came over from Versailles Tuesday to see her husband. Mr. and Mrs. Dromgold will move to Eldon as soon as they can secure a house.—Eldon Advertiser.

A fire in the rear end of Dr. Boles' drug store on North Monroe street was discovered shortly before 12 o'clock Wednesday night last, and by prompt action was soon extinguished, with but little damage done. Supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion.

Keyes-McDonald.

Married, at the Catholic Church, Versailles, Monday, August 28th, 1911, Mr. Andy Keyes, of Kansas City, and Miss Rose McDonald, of Versailles, the ceremony being performed by Fr. Thos. T. Prendergast, of Kansas City. The happy couple left on the 2:06 Rock Island for Kansas City, where they will make their future home. The good wishes of many friends of Miss Rose go with her to her new home.

JOHN WASSUNG.

Dr. E. P. Yarnell was up to Kansas City Monday on a business trip.

Dr. Wooldridge, of Tipton, was down Saturday evening in his new auto.

The Baptist S. S. had their annual picnic at Big Rock on the Moreau, and had a big time, Tuesday.

When will Versailles have a postal savings bank? Other towns are getting them, and we suppose Versailles' turn will come after a while.

The K. P.'s held their annual watermelon feast on Thursday night, with a good attendance, a lively time and an abundance of fine melons, selected by Connoisseur Clodfelter. The race was a lively one for awhile, "Young Man" Curtis leading, closely followed by Clodfelter, Mason and Knapp, until Charlie Kardell put in his appearance (did you ever see such a mouth for melon?) and then all bets were declared off. Everybody got away in fairly good shape except Charlie Knapp, and they had to tie him up to get him home, but then he had taken in the feast of the previous night.

The Joybearers Entertain.

The Joybearers entertained Rev. A. R. Foster's Sunday school class of boys at the home of their teacher, Mrs. C. H. Long, Friday evening, Aug. 25th. Games, music and refreshments were the order of the evening and everybody had a most enjoyable time. Those present were: Misses Esther Morrow, Grace Shively, Maude Bond, Mae Burns, Lela Shively, Nora Shively, Russie Stringer, Neva Moser, Myrtle Handy, Ina Kinloch, Messrs. Robert Toler, Will Brooks, Clarence Foster, Arthur Baker, Rev. and Mrs. Foster and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Noyes.

Miss Irene Petty left Tuesday night for a tour of the East.

There is a chill in the air which plainly asks, "What have you done with your summer's wages?"

Mrs. N. E. Mounts, the milliner, left Tuesday for St. Louis to inspect the latest in ladies headgear, and to purchase her big fall stock.

The teachers of the Versailles schools are requested to meet the superintendent at the school building Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

C. F. JOHNS, Supt.

Regular communication of Versailles Lodge, No. 117 A. F. & A. M., Friday night, Sept. 1st. There will be something to interest you, so come out and hear about it.

Rev. T. J. Suddarth filled his regular appointment Sun. at Mt. Carmel, northwest part of Morgan county. Both morning and evening services well attended. A revival service will begin there the 4th Sunday (24th) in September.

The children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Stephens, except Robert who was out of reach, held a family reunion at the Stephens home Sunday evening, and of course had a jolly good time.

The Redmen pulled off their green corn dance and watermelon feast, as advertised, on Wednesday night. The dance was a lively one, and was participated in by Sitting Bull, Spotted Tail, Rain-in-the-Face, Charley Scar Face, Little Thunder, and other noted braves. When it came watermelon time Spotted Tail carried off the honors as usual, said he had no opposition. Sitting Bull refused to sit in the game unless he was given the biggest melon for a starter, but the trouble was compromised by each brave giving up a slice of his melon (there were 40) and S. B. was made happy, and when through he could only grunt, Ugh, Ugh.

Preaching at the Presbyterian Church.

Regular services at the Westminster Presbyterian Church next Sunday, morning and evening. Sunday school at 9:30. You are invited.

A New Lunch Room.

Fred Heineman will shortly open up a new and neat lunch room in the Heineman building, next door to C. H. Price's Meat Market. Later he expects to open a pool room in connection.

To School Patrons of Morgan County.

The 15th day of Sept., 1911, has been designated as "Clean-up Day" in the several school districts of Morgan County. Please meet on that day and put house and grounds in order, as a record must be kept of their condition.

Respectfully,

M. W. WITTEN,
Supt. Morgan County.

Williams-Dahlstein.

Married, Thursday, August 17th, at the home of A. R. Foster, Aubrey Williams and Miss Rosa Dahlstein, both of Westlawn, Versailles, Rev. A. R. Foster performing the ceremony. Aubrey is a son of the late Fruss Williams, and Miss Rosa a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dahlstein.

A Bunch of Trouble.

The Reveille and its makers have been playing in all kinds of hard luck during the past week. We had some engine troubles, two or three breakdowns, Will McNeil was laid off part of the time with a game leg, Mr. Older our machine man, chopped his best finger with a paper knife, one of our helpers failed to show up entirely and rush job orders have piled in so fast, we could not keep one job from butting into another. But there is light in the darkness and printers are all optimists anyway.—Linn Creek Reveille.

Mrs. Geo. Robertson, of Tipton, is visiting relatives here this week.

Up in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Norris handed us a copy of The Intelligencer, published at her old-home, Viola, Wis., from which we clip a couple of items, which shows the crops up in that section to be all right.

Myra Ambrose of Sylvan, recently threshed 18 acres of oats which yielded 950 bushels and six acres of wheat gave him 200 bushels. Wisconsin has them all beat one year with another. We don't know what a total failure is in this state.

Reports received at the office of Secretary Crane of the State Horticultural Society show that over 175 carloads of Wisconsin strawberries, averaging three hundred bushels each, were shipped this year to points outside of the state. Most of the Sparta berries go to Minnesota and the Dakotas. Bayfield ships as far South as St. Louis.
