At Shermansdale on a recent Sunday morning a horse was found tied where his rider had left him all night, while he went home with his girl. The animal was cared for by a neighbor until the young man put in an appearance and take him home. Next time the 'Squire' will make some different arrangements, perhaps take the bridle on one arm and the girl on the other.

Concert.—A concert will be given on Thursday evening of this week for the aid of the Bloomfield Band. The Shippenburg Band troupe will be present, and aid on this occasion. Concert to commence at quarter before 8 o'clock. Admittance 15 cents. Our citizens will we hope, give the band a hearty support.

Assessors to be Elected.—Assessors and constables are to be elected this spring in this county. The decision of the Attorney General as to holding over only applied to those officials who were sworn in subsequent to April 1st, 1876, and these officers in this county were sworn in on the 1st of April in accordance with that provision of the law.

Fire in Port Royal.—About 3 o'clock on Monday morning of last week, the building occupied by Stewart Okeson as a store room and dwelling was discovered to be on fire, and was completely destroyed. Most of the goods and much of the household furniture was removed. How the fire originated is not known. The property was fully insured.

Coal Digging has been resumed in Little Germany, and a company organized styled the Germany Valley Coal and Mining company, consisting of the following officers: G. W. Reeder, Pres.; J. C. Smith, Sec.; Sam'l Dile, Treas. and Wm. Foote, Ira Weaver and Sam'l Dile, Directors. A shaft has already been opened in the side of the hill, eight feet square and about thirty feet deep.

Let it Pass.—A bill has been introduced in the House of Representatives to punish improper assemblies upon the public streets, providing that any three persons who shall remain for a quarter of an hour in front of any public house or church, and shall engage in profane, obscene or loud talk or in making injurious or abusive remarks, or in obstructing the highway, shall be guilty of misdemeanor. The passage of this bill would meet with the general approval of all respectable and law abiding citizens, and these are few places, if any, in which it would not be beneficial.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week: We have been informed that a man by the name of David Filey, living near the Ridge road, attempted to destroy his life, a few days since, by taking a teaspoonful of arsenic. On Tuesday evening last, between the hours of 5 and six o'clock, the frame tenement house on the farm of Michael Spring, one-half mile west of Middle Spring, and in the occupancy of Sam'l Reed, was entirely consumed by fire. The building took fire in the roof, and is supposed to have ignited from a spark. The flames spread so rapidly that all efforts to save any of the furniture in the upper portion of the house was without avail. Mr. Wingert's loss is about $500, on which there is a partial insurance. Mr. Reed's loss is a severe one, as he is a laboring man and without means.

A distressing and terrible accident occurred at the Mansion House, in this place, on Sunday morning. Susan Snyder, second cook of the hotel, was standing with her back to the range in the kitchen, and her dress coming in contact with the fire, she was, in an instant covered with flame. The fire was extinguished by some of the other domestics, but not before her entire body had been burned almost to a crisp. Throughout Sunday she suffered great pain, but in the evening became a little easier and yesterday morning her condition had sensibly improved. At first grave fears were entertained for her recovery, but at this writing the prospects are cheered with a lively ray of hope. She is receiving the greatest attention from those around her, all of whom are using every endeavor to alleviate her painful condition.—Mirror.

Lippincott's Magazine for March opens with a very interesting and handsomely illustrated sketch of travel entitled "In the Valleys of Peru," which is followed by an entertaining account of "An Adventure in Japan," also finely illustrated. "Seth," is a powerful story by that popular writer, Fannie Hodgson Burnett, and "A Jewish Family," also a story, presents a strong picture of Jewish life and character. Under the title of "Reminiscences of a Post-Painter," are presented some very interesting recollections and anecdotes of T. Buchanan Reid, the well-known author of "Sheridan's Ride," and other poems. "Place aux Dames," or "The Ladies' Speak at Last," is an amusing little play, in which various female characters from Shakespeare's works are introduced and made to speak in a manner that would surely astonish the "Bard of Avon," and many other interesting articles.
