PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after May 16th, Trains run as follows:

Table with columns: WESTWARD, EASTWARD, Way, Mail, Acc., and Station names like Harrisburg, Rockville, etc.

Pittsburgh Express leaves Harrisburg at 11:00 p.m. Duncannon 11:30 (fast). Newport 11:57 (fast) and arrives at Pittsburgh at 1:15 a.m.

Brief Items.

Lutheran Church next Sunday at 10:15 in the morning. The Dunkards will hold their annual meeting on the farm of Abram Engle, near Shippensburg, in a few weeks. Capt. E. P. Zinn, a former resident of this borough, has been chosen Chief of Police in Mechanicsburg, in place of "Black Ike" Kauffman. James Humes of poetic fame paid us a visit last week. He is as sprightly and gay as ever, and speaks highly of the "women."

Railroads Sold.—The people's Freight R. R., with all its valuable (?) rights and franchises was sold at Sheriff's sale in Philadelphia last week for $100. The purchaser was Mr. John Bower, of Spring township. Action has been taken to prevent if possible, the confirmation of the sale.

The South Mountain railroad in Cumberland Co., was also sold last week under a decree from the Court and was purchased by the President of the road in the interest of the stock holders for $10,000.

Little Girl Hurt.—On Monday of last week after Mr. John Kohr of Rye twp., had unhitched his mules from the team he placed his little girl on one of them to ride to water. The animal scared at something, and shied, throwing off the child, who was caught in the harness and tramped on. One of her fingers was tramped off and she was otherwise hurt. She is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

Fire.—A new house belonging to Mr. Jacob Super in Juniata twp., was burned on Tuesday last. The house was not yet entirely completed and the family were yet residing in the old house. They had, however, used the oven in the new building and the fire originated from that source. The flames communicated to the wash house and spring house which were also destroyed.

Arrest of Counterfeiters.—Marietta had a sensation. Two spruce-looking gentlemen, one of them a little lame, made their appearance there on Saturday, and in the evening they tried to pass a well-executed $50 counterfeit note on Messrs. Spangler & Rich, in payment for underwear. They did not succeed, and, fearing arrest, they "struck out," but were overhauled—one by Constable Waller and the other by Constable Nagle. When arraigned before Justice Baker they gave the names of John Smith and Francis Russel, both of which are of course fictitious. In default of bail they were brought to this city this morning, and are now languishing in jail.

At about five o'clock next morning a son of Captain George H. Etlia found four of these very beautiful $50 counterfeit notes lying in Centre Square, Marietta, where they had doubtless been thrown by Messrs. Smith and Russel "the gentlemen from abroad."—Lancaster Era.

Bear Killed.—On Sunday afternoon last, while the children of Mr. Miller, residing on or near Mr. S. W. Sharpe's farm at the North mountain, north of Newville, were on their way to Sunday School, they encountered a large-sized cub bear, which approached within a few feet of them. Their cries frightened it and it departed. They reported the fact to their father, who supposed it to have been a large dog, but he followed in the direction the bear had taken. In the meantime Bruin passed on to the house occupied by Mr. Finkey, on the place of the late W. Craig McCune, and while making his way through the garden fence Mr. Finkey appeared with a gun. He fired on the bear and missed him, and then took the other and more reliable end of the gun, with which, and a hatchet, and the assistance of Mr. Miller, who arrived on the scene, the bear was dispatched. The cub would have weighed about one hundred pounds, and cleaned about sixty pounds, the meat being in good condition. The cub showed no signs of fear of persons, which leads to the supposition that it may have been raised by some one and escaped. Had Mr. Miller arrived sooner he would have made the attempt to capture the bear alive, and as he is a very stout man he would probably have succeeded.—Newville Enterprise.

For The Times. Cheering News From the Grasshopper Country.

Dr. Seifert writing from Rochester, Minn., says: My sister Mrs. Fehler, arrived here from Bismark, Dakota, Ter. to-day and brings the cheering news that the grasshoppers have not made their appearance, although the weather has been warm enough for several weeks to hatch them out by millions, not one of the pests has been seen and on scientific examination it is found that the eggs will not hatch and that the plague is about at an end at last in this country.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week: On Sabbath last Mr. John Wetzel and daughter, of Middlesex township, met with a painful and serious accident. They had driven to church at Carlisle Springs and had just entered the buggy to return home when the bit broke and the horse made several plunges and a short turn which upset the buggy and dashed the occupants to the ground. Mr. Wetzel was seriously injured in the fall, his physician, after an examination, expressing his fear that the hip bone was cracked. He was also otherwise hurt. Miss Annie Wetzel received an ugly cut upon her head, a severe injury to her left arm, and was otherwise bruised and sprained. The buggy was almost destroyed, the top and one wheel being broken off and smashed, the body split and the machine used up generally.—Mirror.

Where is it?—On Saturday night some person secreted himself in the residence of F. Mortimer, and after all was still in the house began to search the premises. One of the girls, however was up sewing in her room and hearing the fellow's movements, quietly notified Mr. M., and one of the boys. Before they got down however, the sneak took the alarm and made his escape through the back door, but in his haste shut his dog in leaving him as security for anything he may have taken. The owner can have information regarding the dog by calling and proving property.

Removal.—J. T. Messier has removed his Shoe Shop to the room adjoining F. B. Clouser's office, 4 doors west of the Post-Office, where he will make to order Boots and Shoes of all kinds. Repairing promptly and neatly executed. He will also keep on hand a good assortment of Boots and Shoes, which he will sell at low prices. Give him a call. 17

New Tailor Shop.—The undersigned gives notice to the public that he has opened a shop opposite Rinesmith's hotel New Bloomfield, Pa., in the room formerly used as a confectionary, where he is prepared to do work in his line promptly, and at reasonable prices. All work warranted to give satisfaction. Give me a call. SAMUEL BENTZEL. Bloomfield, May 1, 1774.
