

THE TIMES.

Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after Monday, Oct. 31st, 1881, Passenger Trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Westward and Eastward routes, listing stations like Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and New York, along with train numbers and times.

Fast West, daily, stopping on Sunday only, at Duncannon 4.30, Newport, 4.55 P. M., and stops at Duncannon, (Fag) 4.43 Newport 5.06 A. M.

Brief Items.

We call attention to the advertisements of good Harrisburg business firms, which will be found on 6th page.

Last Tuesday the weather would have done credit to September, thermometer 65 degrees.

By general consent of the attorneys, all cases below No. 15, on the trial list for January term, have been postponed.

Lucien Wilson, of Oakland Mills, lately killed a couple of pigs, one of which was thirteen months and the other fifteen months old, the combined weight of which was 1107 pounds.

A tea store, that has a lottery attached to it, has been opened in Harrisburg. As lotteries are illegal, perhaps the authorities may take an interest in the concern.

The attempt to light the streets of Bloomfield by night, is still in its virginity, and there appears to be a good bit of virgin foolishness about it, too. Only five of the lamps will burn.

We have seen it stated in several exchanges that the Indian School at Carlisle was self-supporting. A friend from there writes to us that is not so, and that it does not pay one fourth of its expenses.

The new stage, built for the Rice Bros., has been on the road the past week, and all who see it say it is a credit to the builders, S. H. Beck & Bro of this place.

The Pennsylvania railroad company will sell excursion tickets, to all points on their road and branches, on December 24th, 25th, 26th and 31st, and January 1st and 2nd, good to return until January 3.

William Brown's nail machine in the nail factory, broke in three pieces on Tuesday, while running at full speed. No damage was done, other than giving some of the nail feeders a good scare.—Record.

A few days ago a great many citizens of Walker township turned out to capture the bear that had been seen the day previous. Bruin, however, was not to be seen that day, and so it turned out a poor day for capturing bears.

A son of Emanuel Sheibley of Spring twp., aged about ten years, was hurt by a horse at Newport, on Saturday, so as to cause the death of the boy on Sunday.—The boy was hurt by being squeezed against the manger by the horse.

The public will not have good roads until the taxes are payable in cash, and the supervisors can hire men to work regularly on the public highways. One hundred dollars expended in that way, will do as much good as four times the amount worked out, as at present.

We were surprised last week, to receive the Daily Evening Sentinel, and on looking further, to find that it was from Carlisle. If the people give him the proper support, brother Peffer promises that Carlisle shall continue to have a "Daily." The paper looks well, and would be a credit to the town.

The engineers who are surveying a line for a railroad from Marysville, in this county, it is said are working in the interest of Vanderbilt, who wishes to construct a line from Harrisburg to Conneville. At Harrisburg it would connect with the Reading and be a through route, to compete with the Pennsylvania railroad.

Arrangements are being made to have Christmas trees in two of the Ellitonsburg churches on the evening before Christmas for the amusement and benefit of the Sunday school scholars. In the E. V. G. church of the same place appropriate services will be held on Christmas at nine o'clock a. m., after which the Sunday school scholars of that church will be treated to confectionaries.

The Coat Sale.—We still have a good line of Coats and Dolmans, and as they must be closed out, they will be sold at reduced prices. Come and get a bargain. F. MORTIMER.

Personal.—Mr. J. B. Morrow has retired from the position of editor of the Star of the Valley, Newville, and his place is taken by Mr. Geo. P. James.

Captain Pratt, of the Indian school at Carlisle, spent Sunday in this place. He was accompanied by Dr. Riggs, who for many years has been a missionary among the Sioux Indians. The doctor preached for Mr. Edgar on Sunday morning.

Church Notices.

Preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday at 10 1/2 A. M.

Presbyterian Church.—Preaching next Sunday at 11 A. M. and 6 1/2 P. M. Sunday School at half past 9 A. M. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening.

Three Cent postage stamps can always be sent us for the fractional part of a dollar and they can always be had.—Sending silver in a letter is risky. If

A Strange Case.—On Thursday last a little child of Saml. Bentzel, of this place seemed fretful and had been so the night previous. Towards evening Mr. B. took up the child and accidentally discovered the blunt end of a sewing machine needle sticking out just below the pit of the baby's stomach. He held the child and his wife pulled out a Grover & Baker sewing machine needle that had gone in fully two inches. Where the child got the needle is a mystery, as they have a Singer machine.

A Gentleman from Liverpool informed us, a few days since, that several parties interested in the speculative life insurance craze, in the vicinity of Liverpool, received their premiums on the 3rd inst., on the death of their victims, otherwise called subjects, from the Berksburg, (Dauphin county,) company.—Our informant did not state what amount of insurance they held, but the company settled with them for $14 on $1,000. The amount of money paid in assessments has not been stated. While in Millerstown, last Saturday, a gentleman, who was one of the victims of the craze, informed us that his payments upon a subject amounted to over $150, and after the death an Adams company paid, or wanted to pay him $130 and a few cents. The officers of the company were "sheriffed," and before long we expect to report some court trials and convictions in this vicinity.—The whole business is about wound up.—Newport Ledger.

A Compliment to Judge Junkin.—The members of the Juniata County Bar tendered Judge Junkin, the about retiring President Judge of this Judicial District, a supper, the following invitation having been sent to him:

To the Hon. B. F. Junkin, President Judge 1st Judicial District. DEAR SIR:—As your term of office will soon expire, we, the undersigned, members of the Bar of Juniata County, as an expression of our high regard towards you, as a man and a Judge, ask you to meet us at Hayes' Hotel, Tuesday, December 13th, 8 o'clock P. M. and hope the time and place will suit your convenience.

Signed by all the members of the Juniata County Bar.

MIFFLINTOWN, December 10, 1881. To the Gentlemen composing the Juniata County Bar:

Your invitation to a Bar supper, coming as it does from a body of gentlemen of undoubted legal attainments, is a mark of respect highly appreciated. As a token of your esteem it is accepted, as also an indication, that our relations for ten years have been satisfactory, and this to me is truly gratifying. During all the period mentioned, our intercourse has been amicable, and uniformly kind. Permit me to assure you however that I am sensible, that much is due to you as members of the Bar, for the good and friendly intercourse just adverted to.—Your uniform courtesy and exemplary conduct, rendered the task imposed upon me easy, and it was your aid which enabled the court to move the business without a jar. I shall ever cherish the most pleasing recollections of our intercourse, and although forced by the pressure of duties to decline your invitation, I am deeply impressed by this token of your regard.

Yours truly, B. F. JUNKIN.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

Instead of firing out of the new armory the firing so far has been done into it. One day last week some men were blasting rock in Robert Bradish's yard, and one of the blasts threw a piece of rock weighing about twenty pounds upon the roof of the armory, a distance of at least one hundred feet. The stone fell with such force as to crush through the roof and knock a part of the plastering of the ceiling, about two feet square, down.

Al. Huston, of Penn twp., while sawing wood with circular saw one day last week, accidentally had the forefinger of his left hand sawed almost entirely off. Dr. Longsdorf dressed the wound and is trying to heal it on again, but whether he succeeds or not it stops the fiddling.

Mr. Christian Watson, son of Mr. Jacob Watson of near Plainfield, has lately returned home from Mexico, after an absence of nearly eleven years, much improved in circumstances. He lately sold one of his mines for twenty-five thousand dollars, and is, we believe, interested in several more. He has just deposited five thousand dollars for his mother's use.

A small fire occurred in Shippensburg on Saturday last about one o'clock. A small frame dwelling house belonging to Mrs. Mary Martin, and occupied by John Boles, colored, caught fire from some unknown cause and was completely consumed. The poor man saved but a few articles. His children were in the house and the house locked at the time, as both he and his wife were out working. No insurance.

Important to Travelers.—Special inducements are offered you by the Burlington Route. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere in this issue.

A public sale of choice Kentucky and West Virginia cattle, is to be held at Loyeville, on the 26th inst. 2t

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week:

Mr. Jacob Smith, residing in Walker township, near Van Wert, died suddenly on Sunday night, the 3rd inst. He retired to bed in his usual health and about 10 o'clock he complained to his wife that he was very warm and requested her to get him a drink of water. She did so. He then informed her that he felt badly, and in a few hours thereafter he was a corpse. He was aged 64 years, 5 months and 11 days.

Two Sudden Deaths in Lancaster.

A correspondent says: Two sudden deaths occurred here, the first was the well-known Col. Piper, a wealthy banker of Lancaster city. He died very suddenly Wednesday afternoon, at his farm, some two miles west of the city. He was in town during the day.

Henry Heiss, was for some years a local preacher in the Evangelical Church, but he died in the fellowship of the Church of God. His wife died last week in Philadelphia. Yesterday Mr. Heiss died very suddenly. Both bodies were placed in a vault, to await the coming of a son from the west.

From the West.

Mr. Editor—I will give you some of the markets from this place. Everything seems to be on a boom. Hogs are $5.00, live weight; new corn, 40; oats, 32; flour $3.70, per hundred; potatoes, $1.00; turnips, 50; apples, $1.00; butter, 35, eggs, 23. The corn crop was good this season, around here wages are $1.50 for picking corn, and hands scarce at that. Most of the corn is picked now. We have had very little snow or cold weather this fall, but rain and bad roads.

December 10, 1881. F. M.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for January is a strong number, beautifully illustrated. The frontispiece is an illustration drawn by Alfred Fredericks, entitled "The Challenge," representing a familiar legend of the Court of King Francis. The leading illustrated paper treats for the first time a characteristic Western subject—the transportation of coal from Pittsburgh down the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers. The paper is contributed by G. F. Muller, and is admirably illustrated by J. W. Alexander. And this is followed by a great variety of other articles that cannot fail to interest readers of every class.

The Editor's Easy Chair, besides its other interesting gossip, gives a pleasing sketch of Materna, who is to be a prominent attraction in the coming Musical Festival. The other departments are full of entertaining and instructive matter.

Godley's Lady's Book for January

Is full of good things. A beautiful steel plate, illustrating the escape of the Countess Isabella from the castle of Schonwald, as told by Sir Walter Scott in "Quentin Durward," a double page design for a window curtain, in colors; the usual rich illustrations of dress for ladies, embracing the very latest fashions; a complete novel by Mrs. Churchill, entitled "Mock Jewels," and a goodly collection of shorter stories and miscellaneous original matter. We would suggest to those who do not take it, that the Lady's Book would make a handsome holiday present to your friend. Any of our readers can be supplied promptly, by leaving their orders at this office. We will furnish our own paper and the Lady's Book for the low price of $3 per annum. As this issue begins the current year, now is a good time to send in your subscription. The publication office is 1006 Chestnut Street, Phila., Pa.

Demorest's for January.

Decidedly Demorest's Monthly is the most admirable magazine of its kind in the world. Being a publication of great utility in the household, furnishing, as it does, valuable information on all subjects connected with home, no family can very well do without it. In every essential, it is a family magazine, thoroughly reliable and comprehensive. Its stories are distinguished for literary merit; its poems are of more than average excellence; its sensible talks to women are a distinctive feature; and the topics of the month are discussed in a manner both suggestive and interesting. The engravings alone are well worth the money paid for the magazine (twenty cents.) The January number is an excellent one, and contains an exhaustive article, fully illustrated, which will give you valuable help in decorating your home for Christmas, the initial chapters of THE ADMIRAL'S WARD, by Mrs. Alexander, one of the best novelists of the day, and many other articles of superior merit, thus making one of the most attractive numbers of this admirable magazine yet issued.

ST. ELMO HOTEL.—Nos. 317 and 519 Arch Street, PHILADELPHIA. Rates reduced to TWO DOLLARS PER DAY.—The traveling public still find at this Hotel the same liberal provision for their comfort. It is located in the immediate centres of business and places of amusement and the different Rail Road depots, as well as all parts of the city, are easily accessible by Street Cars constantly passing the doors. It offers special inducements to those visiting the city for business or pleasure. Your patronage is respectfully solicited. JOS. M. FEGER, Proprietor.

Walnut Lumber Wanted.—Persons having Walnut boards, 1 inch, to sell or lumber to cut into that shape, are requested to write to the subscriber, stating quality and price, delivered at Newport station. D. H. ENGLE, Mount Joy, Pa. 3t*

Gentlemen's Clothes.—The fashions for this fall are generally characterized by neatness in designs of goods as well as cut of garments.

The coat, however, most generally worn is the S. B. Walking Coat, both skirt and waist being of medium length, and the coat being rather close-fitting all over and buttoning high. If designed for dressy wear, the coat buttons with one button. If for business wear, a four-button coat is generally preferred, with false flaps on the side. For rough and Scotch goods the Sack Coat is in favor, and is cut rather short and snug-fitting.

There is a tendency to cut Vests a little lower than last season, and with collars.

Fancy Vests are again coming into favor in London.

Those who wish to see the finest line of cassimers, overcoatings, &c., ever shown in this county are requested to call at the store of F. Mortimer and look over the assortment there shown, which represents the stock of the leading clothing house in the world. You can there make your selection and have a garment or suit made to order in the best possible manner. All garments are guaranteed as to fit or there is no sale. 43—4t.
