The flurry of snow this forenoon recalls to the minds of some of the residents of Barre that twenty-nine years ago today they enjoyed a May Day sleigh ride. On that day sleighs were seen in plenty on the streets of Barre and the travelling was exceedingly good for so late in the season. There were two or three inches of snow on the ground but it did not remain long. However, many people had an opportunity to boast that they had taken a sleighride in May.
