For Graduation Costumes!

We make a special effort to have at this time of the year the latest, most natty cloths for Graduation Dresses and their trimmings.

Figured Organdies and fine Swiss Muslins are in good demand.

Silk Muslins, either plain or figured, are selling well.

Lansdowns will wash and are very servicable. They come in dainty shades as well as white.

French Muslin is the cloth that has the lead, being superior in every way to Organdies, Mull or Batiste. It's fifty inches wide, in two qualities—one at 58c, the other at 75c. Are the softest, best washing goods in the whole white goods family.

Vanise, Clony, Valensines and Maline Laces are recommended for these light dresses.

Ribbons for neck or sashes in the new shades and widths, as well as Lace Collars of Planen Lace, either in stocks or shoulder effects.

Elbow Gloves!—We have the latest in these. All lace-work top. They are beauties. A little expensive, but the correct kind. If it's a Fan we have it.

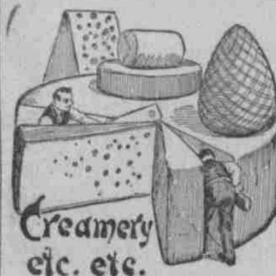

See Our White Goods Window This Week.
