BARRE, VT., MAY 6, 1905

Weather Predictions.

Boston, May 6.—Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday, fresh north to northwest winds on coast.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Local Happenings Tolerably Told For Busy Readers.

A further change in the readjustment of the music at the Congregational church has taken place with the resignation of Miss Croft as organist. Her friends in the society greatly regret this, but it was found impossible, under the new arrangements which have become necessary, for her to continue.

ORANGE.

Four persons were baptized and welcomed to church, fellowship by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Eastman, last Sunday. One of the number was baptized by immersion in the river near Kimball Corner at 9 a. m.

The people of Orange begin to think that Barre town might furnish a better road than it does from Orange line to East Barre. In the spring the road was well nigh impassable because of the deep mud and now the big stone chips, with no dirt thrown over them, and large stones in the road laid bare by the action of frost, makes this the worst piece of road to travel over between West Topsham and Barre city. Orange several years ago built a good road to the Barre line.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

The Gulf House, Williamstown, A. C. Cowles, proprietor, is now open for the summer season. Special Sunday dinners served from 11 a. m. until 3.30 p. m.
