The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

Persons who dynamite trout brooks and kill off trout by the basketful should be severely dealt with.

Lynn Hays' new two-edition daily paper for Burlington is getting a good deal of free advertising from the state press, and incidentally innumerable bouquets are floating Hays' way.

White River Junction is to have a new marble drinking fountain. Evidence is fast accumulating that drinking fountains are better than bars for any community.—St. Johnsbury Republican.

Especially good for the communities in Caledonia county.

The new cup defender, Reliance, is now all American with the exception of the crew which consists of 46 Norwegians, four Swedes and one Dane. The question is, if this combination can sail a Yankee boat to victory against the Scotch-English-Irish Shamrock III.

Vermont's former guest, Rev. O. R. Miller of Holyoke, Mass., is in New Hampshire now, telling the people of the state why they should not vote for license. Judging from his success in Vermont, New Hampshire will be solidly for license when it votes next week.

This fact seems to be settled upon, that because a man has been lieutenant-governor of Vermont he has no right to think that he should be governor, nor have his friends a right to think so; and that because a man has held the position of lieutenant governor he is not for that reason debarred from the chance of being elected to a higher office. "Peanut" and "worm-loange" politicians, however, need not apply.

There appears to be a slight picking up in the amount of police court business in this city, as regards arrests for intoxication, yesterday's record going ahead of that of any day since the legalized saloons opened in this city one week ago. Barre's record of arrests for intoxication has been decidedly good for the week, there having been only seven. But the Times has no desire to keep down the number of arrests, to the ultimate detriment of the license law. If intoxicated persons are to be found on the streets they should be arrested, even if the number approaches the "twenty-eight" that signalized the opening of saloons in Middlebury. The framers of the license law didn't design it, and a large majority of its supporters didn't intend it, to allow men a license to debauch themselves, to make veritable pigs of themselves. And as long as some men, by their actions, show that they think the new law gives them freedom to do that, they should be warned to the contrary, and the most efficacious method of doing it is by making arrests of any and all offenders. License does not mean liberty to get drunk.

We're in it, right up to the neck. Lots of new Hats. Come where your face gets a fair show. All shapes are here.

Extra good values in Children's Hats, 15c to $1.00.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

The house of Edward G. Hull, eldest son of the late Daniel and Sophronia Hull of Bennington. He was born in Bennington about 60 years ago, went west when 19 years old and located in Chicago, which had since been his home. His body will be brought to Bennington for interment.

Clarence Graves, who has charge of the milk train over the Rutland railroad, was taken to his home in East Wallingford yesterday morning in a serious condition. He was badly injured Tuesday while at Rockingham. The car started suddenly and Graves fell on an iron axle which inflicted a cut between his ribs and penetrated the liver. Graves may recover.

Barker J. Cramton, John Dunn and David Wing of Rutland, were arrested Wednesday evening on the charge of using dynamite to kill trout in brooks in the town of Ira last Sunday. Residents of Ira claim that these three men went over the streams of that town dynamiting every pool and killing hundreds of trout, the majority of which they carried away.

Bansom Towne of Stockbridge, while tramping for hedgehogs, caught a large bay lynx. The animal is 18 inches in height, measures 34 inches from tip to tip, and weighs 19 pounds. When found by Mr. Towne the animal was eager for a fight but was killed immediately with a bullet. The lynx, which was purchased by W. H. Edmunds, of Bethel, will be mounted.

FURNISHING GOODS, SHOES, etc., that can be found in this county. Sad to say, about seven weeks ago we were awakened by the sound of the fire alarm and soon found that our store, then known as the UNION CLOTHING STORE, situated in the Currier Building, was on fire, and despite every effort to save our stock of goods they all went up in smoke. But we determined to reopen as soon as circumstances would allow, and we have spared no time, money or labor in securing another store. We have succeeded in leasing this store for a term of years, and have made many alterations and repairs on the same to make it suitable for our business. We now have a store that is inviting to all visitors and the buying public.

We Have Risen Again From the Ashes

In greater strength and determination than ever, and we will open for business on SATURDAY, MAY 9th, at 8 A. M., when we will welcome you all to our new store and will be pleased to see all our old friends and many new ones, whether you buy or not.

It will be our policy, as heretofore, to carry the best of everything in our line for everybody and at all times of the year, and all goods will be sold at reasonable prices. We will guarantee everything we sell and your money back if goods are not found to be as represented. All goods will be marked in plain figures. One price and equal treatment to all, and it will be our aim to make this store the leading establishment of its kind in the county. We have engaged a number of our old clerks and added several new ones, who will be pleased at all times to serve you in a polite and satisfactory manner.

You are respectfully invited to be present, with your friends and neighbors, at our Opening on SATURDAY, MAY 9th, and freely examine our new store and stock of merchandise.

Thanking you all for past favors bestowed upon us, and hoping to be favored in the future with your early and repeated calls and to receive a share of your patronage, we remain Yours as ever.
