Union Underwear!

More men would use Union underwear if they knew the comfort of a one-piece garment. The shirt doesn't roll up; the drawers can't sag. All weight hangs from the shoulders. No bunching and only one thickness at the waist—the height of hot weather comfort. Perhaps the best recommendation is the fact that scarcely a man goes back to the two-piece underwear after trying Union Suits. Balbriggans, Mercerized Cotton and Lises, $1.00 to $3.50 per garment.
