EAST BARRE.

Mrs. L. I. Cheney and her son Harlan of Montpelier, have been in town this week having a monument placed on the Deacon Cheney lot in the Wilson cemetery.

The front steps of the Congregational church have been built over, giving a much easier ascent than before. The work was done yesterday by Messrs. A. C. Dickey, J. A. Plestid and E. Campbell.

Work at the Bond & Whitcomb quarry has been suspended the past two weeks, pending an expected change in the firm. E. T. Swift, foreman, has received notice to begin work again next Monday.

The sharp drought has occasioned very low water supply for the stone sheds, giving much trouble in stone polishing. Sullivan, Bissell & Co., have purchased a 25-horse power engine for their polishing and are now at work setting it up.

C. M. Tubbs, who has served as clerk in John L. Dix's store the past year, closes his labors with Mr. Dix tonight and next week will begin work with the United States Dairy Co. as travelling salesman. Herbert Hutchins is expected to begin work with Mr. Dix as clerk next Monday.

There has been considerable misapprehension this week relative to the condition of Dr. McArthur. The report has been current that he was not expected to live. It is true that he is yet a very sick man, but he has held his own this week and his physicians, Drs. Stickey and J. Henry Jackson, report his case as very hopeful, also that he if a little better than one week ago.

The Congregational church service tomorrow will be as follows: 10:30, Union Memorial service, John A. Logan Command, No. 2, Union Veterans Union, and other organizations will be present in a body. Sermon by the pastor, topic, "Our Two Banners;" 11:45, Sunday school; 8:15, Christian Endeavor meeting, leader, Mrs. Israel Wood; 7, preaching service, topic, "Marvelously Helped; Marvelously Forgetful."

There will be a musical next Tuesday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Eastman, to which all are invited. ### LAW POINTS.

To add to a canceled check the words "In full of account to date," with intent to alter its effect as a receipt, is held in Gordon versus Com. (Va.), 87 L. R. A. 744, to constitute forgery.

The title to accretions is held in De Lassus versus Faherty (Mo.), 58 L. R. A. 193, not to be lost by the fact that a stream changes its course and forcing its way through the newly formed land cuts the portion in controversy off from the main land.

The owner of land adjoining a highway is held in Franklin versus Durgoo (N. H.), 58 L. R. A. 112, to have no right to fill depressions in his land which are natural outlets to drain the water from the highway if the effect will be to cast the water back on to the highway and injure it.

TOWN TOPICS.

Harrisburg leads all other cities in enterprise and progress. It supplies all other municipalities with ideas.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

What is greatly needed in New York and Chicago seems to be a street car strap with padded seat, back, arms and foot rest.—Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

Chicago elected a native American mayor, a Polish city attorney, a German city treasurer and an Irish city clerk. It's a great polyglot town.—Boston Herald.

A novel church. A new Russian church is being built at Nice in the Parc Imperial. It is to have five towers. A correspondent writes that the Russians at Nice have already contributed "fabulous sums" toward its erection.
