The Elements.

The effect of weather on paint is all powerful. To withstand the elements, paints must be manufactured from pure Linseed Oil, pure White Lead and pure Colors. Nothing else will insure a permanent, durable finish. Substitutes are expensive and unsatisfactory, as experience has taught you. Colonial Paint is made of pure Linseed Oil, pure White Lead and chemically pure Colors. Positively free from adulteration of any sort. Colonial Paint is not "as good as" other paints, it is the best paint made.

We sell Colonial Paint because we can guarantee it and we will sell only what we can guarantee. Sold by C. A. Heath in Barre.
