WASHINGTON COUNTY,) tember Term, 1903.
Whereas, George Robertson of Barre, in the County of Washington, has filed in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of said County, his libel for divorce against Nellie (Wood) Robertson, setting forth that on the 1st day of May, A. D. 1894, he was lawfully married to the said Nellie (Wood) Robertson; that he, on his part, had faithfully kept and observed the said marriage contract, but the said Nellie (Wood) Robertson, on her part, had not kept and performed the same, for that the said Nellie (Wood) Robertson had committed the crime of adultery and for more than three consecutive years had wilfully deserted the petitioner, and praying for a divorce from the bonds of matrimony by him so contracted with the said Nellie (Wood) Robertson. And, whereas, it is made to appear that the said Nellie (Wood) Robertson resides without the State, where the process of this Court cannot be served upon her, it is therefore ordered that the said Nellie (Wood) Robertson be notified of the pendency of said libel, and given an opportunity to make defence thereon, and summoned to appear and make answer thereto before the Hon. the County Court of said County, to be held at Montpelier, within and for the County of Washington, on the first Wednesday after the first Tuesday in September, A. D. 1903, at nine o'clock a. m., by the publication of the substance of said libel, together with this order, three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a daily newspaper published at Barre, in said County, the last of which publications shall be at least six weeks previous to said first Wednesday after the first Tuesday in September, 1903, which shall be deemed sufficient notice to the said Nellie (Wood) Robertson. Given under my hand at Montpelier, in the County of Washington, this 15th day of June, A. D. 1903.
