

THREE SPECIAL BARGAINS

For Saturday, June 27th.

Seven Handkerchiefs for 25c.—Now is the time to buy Handkerchiefs. This lot comprises Embroidered, Hemstitched, Lace Edge and Plain Linen—an exceptionally good Handkerchief at 5 cents each. They are only slightly wrinkled in decorating. We offer seven Handkerchiefs for 25c on Saturday.

Neck Ribbons at 10c Per Yard.—Fancy Neck Ribbons, three inches wide, in white, blue, pink, red, green and yellow. These are all silk and washable and are worth 15c per yard. We offer them on Saturday at 10c per yard.

Ladies' Undervests at 5c Each.—Ladies' Unbleached Undervests, with square neck, on Saturday at 5c each.

PERRY & CAMP,

71 and 75 Main Street, Barre, Vermont.

DO YOU?

MOST EVERYONE DOES LIKE TO SIT IN A COMFORTABLE CHAIR

when they are resting themselves after a day's work in hot weather, and the porch is the place we all like best in a hot Summer day. Call and try our Old Comfort Chairs. We know they are EASY on the pocket-book as well as to sit in.

B. W. Hooker & Co.,

Park Block, Next to City Hall, Barre, Vermont.

School is Over!

Nothing ahead but fun for the boys! Fun roughs it at times and their Suits have to bear the brunt of many a hard knock. We have some VACATION SUITS that are exactly what every romping boy should have. Not high in price, but strong in their staying qualities. Strength is a strong point in our VACATION SUITS. They fit and look well, too—perhaps best. We have them in plain and fancy fabrics at $2.00 to $7.50; washable at 50 cents to $3.00.

FRANK McWHORTER,

The One Price Clothier. Hatter and Men's Outfitter.

THE SOUTH END MARKET

Only the best quality of goods sold here, and we use you right.

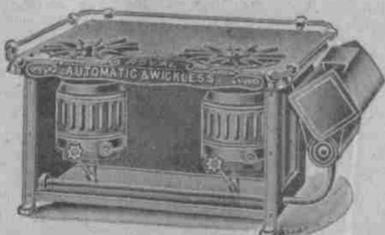

Plenty of large, ripe Bananas, per dozen	25c	Scallions and Radishes, per bunch	5c
Sweet, juicy Oranges, a doz.	20, 25, 30, 40c	New Beets, per bunch	10c
Large, fancy Lemons, per dozen	25c	Wax Beans, per quart	10c
New Apricots, per dozen	10c	Ripe Watermelons, per pound	3c
Red Cherries, per pound	25c	New Potatoes, per pound	5c
Fresh Native Lettuce, per bunch	5c	Chickens, per pound	20c

Cucumbers, New Cabbage and all seasonable Fruits and Vegetables. Choice Beef, Pork, Mutton and Veal, Sausage, Bacon, Tripe and reliable Groceries.

PARSONS & SKINNER,

(Telephone 215-4) 115 South Main Street, Barre, Vermont.

Royal Blue Flame Cook Stove!

The most practical, economical and up-to-date Stove on the market today.

Also One, Two and Three-Burner Union Wick Stoves at 50c, $1.00 and $1.50, and One, Two and Three-Burner Florence Stoves at 75c, $1.50 and $2.75.

The FIRE SALE is DRAWING CROWDS DAILY. HAVE YOU BEEN IN?

Boston Bargain Store,

Pearl Street, Barre, Vt. C. N. Kenyon & Co.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Warren Caley of Washington was in the city yesterday.

A union card was put into the co-operative store yesterday.

Asa Pepper of Washington was in the city today on business.

Gale Bennett went to Highgate Springs last night to spend a few days fishing.

Born, June 24, to Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell of 106 South Main street, a son.

The North Barre Seconds defeated the City Dump Stars yesterday afternoon 18 to 15.

Willie Downie went to Hardwick yesterday to visit with his sister, Mrs. James Ross.

Carl Hedlin went to his home in Vergennes this morning to spend the summer vacation.

D. Normandeau and Fred Miller went to Bellows Falls this morning for a few days visit.

Miss Florence Whittier went to Randolph this morning for a few weeks visit with relatives.

Barry & Williams are the local agents for Household ranges, which are advertised in our columns.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Kenyon and son Charles drove to Sharon today to spend Sunday with relatives.

The biggest and best leaves of thoroughly good bread made from Wise King Flour. Ask your grocer for it.

Warren Huntington and Mrs. George Huntington of Washington were in the city today visiting friends.

Harry Page of Barre has bought out W. L. Dow's fruit and cigar business on Main street.—Hardwick Gazette.

Rev. Elie K. M. Jones returned last night from St. Johnsbury, where she attended the Universalist convention.

Miss Lena Barup arrived in the city last night from Burlington, where she has been visiting her sister who is sick at the hospital.

Mrs. Sophronia Brown who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Day, for several weeks went to her home in Washington today.

C. S. Andrews entertained his Sunday school class of young ladies at his home last evening. A very pleasant social time was had and ice cream and cake served.

J. B. Harrington, a cigar maker from Barre, has rented L. M. Gallagher's new store on Main street and expects soon to open a tobacco store and manufacture cigars.—Hardwick Gazette.

The new White Star Steam Laundry on Granite street will open for business Monday. The laundry will have one up-town office in the Hale block on Pearl street and is connected by telephone.

Attorney James B. Brooks with Mrs. Brooks and their daughter arrived in town yesterday from Syracuse, N. Y., and were driven to Alonzo Page's at East Orange where they will spend the summer.

John Giblin of Barre was in Montpelier city court yesterday morning and pleaded guilty to a first offense of intoxication. He took ten days in jail as he could not pay his fine. He was arrested by Officer Conners in the vicinity of Dewey park.

The granite firms of South Ryegate are closed down this week owing to a complication over prices for work with the New York Granite Co. M. H. Gibson has made a contract to furnish all that firm's work there and intends to submit it to the various firms, hence the difficulty.

The jurors of the March term of county court, 1901, with presiding judge, side judges and sheriff department are gathered today on the shores of Berlin pond for a picnic and outing. Benjamin Gates, deputy county clerk, has made arrangements whereby those who desire can obtain transportation from Montpelier to the pond.

A recent issue of The Book of the Royal Blue, published by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, contains a portrait of Bert L. Taylor, who formerly published a paper in this city, and a selection written by him satirizing J. J. Bell's "Wee McGregor," which Mr. Taylor calls "Wee McPherson." He refers to the effusions in Scotch dialect as "The finnan haddie school of literature."

Amasa W. Alexander died yesterday at Heaton hospital, Montpelier, the result of a recent surgical operation. Mr. Alexander was 79 years old, had lived in Berlin nearly all his life, working at his trade as a carpenter. He is survived by a wife and two children, George W. Alexander and Mrs. Minnie Converse. Funeral services, conducted by the Rev. J. Edward Wright, will be held from his late home Sunday morning at eight o'clock.

The body of Max Severance is expected to arrive in Montpelier about the middle of July. There is some conflict of dates as to when the transport on which the remains were placed sailed from Manila. The quartermaster department writes that the transport "Sumner" sailed June 5, while another communication from Manila states it sailed June 16. The passage will occupy about a month, and the transport will arrive at the port of New York.

To Rent Until Paid For.

We have about a hundred second-hand organs, including the Taber, Estey, Mason & Hamlin, Smith American, Shoninger, Queen City, Bridgeport, Willcox & White, Palao, Burdette, Packard and other makes which have been thoroughly overhauled and refinished and are as good as new and warranted for five years, at prices ranging from $10 to $50. Terms, $5 down and $2 per month. Our store is overcrowded and we must have room for new goods, and we have decided to dispose of them at extremely low prices. There is no excuse for your not having an organ now. Write for prices and styles today, sent free on application. McKannon Bros. & Co., 45 Church St., Burlington, Vt.

Paint Your Buggy for 75c.

To $1.00 with Devco's Gloss Carriage Paint. It weighs 3 to 8 ozs. more to the pint than others, wears longer, and gives a gloss equal to new work. Sold by Reynolds & Son.

Old gold and silver wanted at refiners' prices in exchange for goods at F. E. Burr's.

Misses' $4.50 trimmed skirts at Abbott's for $2.98.

Glasses fitted by an eye sight specialist at J. W. Holton's.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

John C. Berry of Richmond, recently plowed up a stone pestle evidently made by Indians. It was near two large rocks.

J. C. Griggs went to Burlington this morning to attend the district meeting of the agents of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company.

A mid summer party will be given at the residence of Mrs. John E. Smith, Thursday evening, July 2, for the benefit of Currier Park.

The Baptist Boys' choir defeated the Congregational seconds yesterday, the score being 23 to 7. They expect to play another game Thursday.

BERLIN.

Mrs. Ellen Corvill of Randolph, is visiting with relatives here.

Capt. J. F. Huse of Woodstock is stopping in town for a few days.

Health Officer Huse is attending the health officers school at Burlington.

Quite extensive repairs are being made at the brick house place owned by E. J. Woodbury and occupied by Ira Gray.

Town Treasurer A. L. Hewitt is now prepared to receive taxes. If those who could would pay early some interest money would be saved to the town.

Schools closed here this week Friday. Miss Jessie Grandall who taught in the Berlin pond school, gave her scholars an outing at Benjamin Falls for the day.

The local health board was called to West Berlin Wednesday where it is understood two nuisances were found and ordered abated. The complaints were made to Grand Juror Gilnes.

The selectmen are considering the advisability of putting an iron bridge at the south end of the pond, where the temporary affair was used all last summer as the high water setting back from the pond made the building of new abutments out of the question.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Mrs. Bannister of Brookfield was in town today.

Mrs. Chas. Staples is ill with grip and under the doctor's care.

Burt Robinson and Frank Godfrey went to Camp Martin in Milton yesterday for a week's outing.

Miss Lulu Burnham of Montpelier, is stopping with her sister, Mrs. O. D. Bosworth for a few days.

W. J. and Norman Pratt and Glen and Van McAllister returned yesterday from their fishing trip with over 50 pounds of nice fish.

At the Universalist church tomorrow the pastor will begin a series of sermons on the Lord's Prayer, as interpreted by modern Universalism.

There will be a basket picnic July 4th in W. S. Covell's woods formerly known as the Azro Nichols' woods, under the auspices of the I. O. G. T. to which the public is very cordially invited. There will be a ball game during the day and a general good time is expected. Committee on arrangements, Geo. E. Jackson, John S. Martin, Edgar B. Jackson.

The village schools closed yesterday with appropriate exercises. The graduating class of the intermediate department assisted by the fourth and fifth grades, presented a fine program which was carried out with unusual excellence showing that the painstaking efforts of the teacher, Miss Belle Robinson, had been loyally responded to by the pupils. The prizes speaking by members of the graduating class was so good that the judges found it difficult to decide which was the best, but after due consideration awarded the prize to Miss Sarah Poor who spoke "The Legend of Bregenz." The superintendent, George E. Wilbur, in well chosen words, presented eight girls with diplomas. In the primary department, Miss Emma Adams teacher, the little folks entertained a large number of friends with songs, recitations and concert speaking. It was all so good everybody was sorry when the last number was ended. Mrs. Ida Wood, teacher of the grammar grade, entertained her class in the lawn in front of her house. The class exercises were held here and refreshments were served.

J. N. Carver's selected reading at the K. of P. Hall for the benefit of the Church of the Good Shepherd will thrill and delight.

If you are looking for bargains in children's oxfords see Badger, McLean & Co.'s bargain counter.

When in search of some nice fruit and native vegetables for Sunday, call at the City Fish Market.

WHITE STAR

Steam Laundry

Offices: HALE BLOCK, PEARL ST. GRANITE STREET.

Work called for Mondays and Wednesdays and delivered Thursdays and Saturdays. Telephone connection.

WOOL, WOOL, WOOL.

We are in the market for Wool.

Can pay for

Good Coarse, 21c.

Long Staple Fine, . . 21c.

Short Staple Fine, 18 to 20c.

Will be at Montpelier, near the Wells River depot, to receive Wool Thursday, June 25th.

H. A. PERKINS & CO.,

White River Junction, Vt.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

Do Not Expect

That you can wait many days longer and then have time before July 4th to be fitted to one of our fifteen dollar Suits for only $7.98. What you would expect in August you get now. When August comes we will be on other goods. These Suits will last but a few days longer the way that they have gone the past three days. Customers have hardly expected to find such values and have been ready to snap them up very quickly.

CHILDREN'S JACKETS.

Our line of Children's Jackets go in this sale at just a little more than half price.

MISSSES' DRESS SKIRTS.

All of our Misses' Dress Skirts, made of best materials, latest styles, with newest trimmings, in black and two shades of navy. Sold in our stock until today for $4.50. Sold in this sale at $2.98 each.

LADIES' SHIRT WAISTS.

White or Colored Waists marked down to close. If you wear a 36 size you can get a sample Waist at about half price.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

Mascott's

FAMOUS ICE CREAM

HAS NO EQUAL. JUST TRY IT.

The Barre Candy Kitchen.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Hereafter my Salesroom will be at residence, No. 36 Spaulding St., known as the Gates House, where I shall carry a more complete line of Pianos and Organs and be better prepared to serve the public.

H. A. GOULD, Toner and Dealer,

Telephone Call, 4-22. No. 56 Spaulding St., Barre, Vt.

Umbrellas!

Did the top blow off yours, the other day, or didn't you have one when you wanted it? The rainy season is here and here are timely Umbrella offerings, rain or shine. Prices from 50 cents to $6.00. The safe way is to buy an Umbrella when you don't need it.

Moore & Owens,

122 North Main St., Barre, Vermont.

Good Values at Ladd's!

Grocery Department.

Small, Sweet Oranges, per dozen,	10c
Three cans of Corn for	25c
Medium or fine Oat Meal, per pound, 3c; ten lbs. for	25c
Try our English Breakfast Tea, per pound,	20c, 25c, 39c
You will find them equal to Teas sold for more money.
New Sage Cheese, per pound,	16c

Bakery Department.

Try our Home-made Salted Peanuts, fresh every day.
Try our Vienna Fruit Slices, per dozen, 20c
Hot Baked Beans and Brown Bread Saturday.
Try our Cream Bread when you want real value.

Meat Department.

Home Cured Pig Hams, 8 and 10 pounds, per pound, 16c
Pig Pork Roasts, per pound, 11 to 13c
Our Beef Sausage is made from fresh western beef, no old stock. Three pounds for 30c
Try our Steam Rendered Lard. It is clean and fresh. Always the same. Per pound, 12 and 13c
Full line of Vegetables for Saturday.

F. D. LADD, Leading Cash Grocer.