BIG PAGEANT IN CHINA.

Thousands to Accompany Court In Visit to Tombs.

The Chinese court is preparing for the largest pageant in fifteen years when it starts for the visit to the western tombs on April 5, says a special cable dispatch from Peking to the Chicago Inter Ocean. There will be 9,000 persons in the party, exclusive of the troops who will guard the eighty miles of railway. Yuan Shih Kai, viceroy of the province of Chihli, is supervising the arrangements. He is also making preparations to entertain the court for two weeks or a month at Paoingfu and has built a palace there for the reception of the royal guests.

The people bitterly condemn the taxes that are levied on them for such purposes as this. Notwithstanding the announcement by the throne that the construction of a railway to connect the tombs with the Lohan line was for the purpose of reducing the cost of these pilgrimages, the expenditures have been multiplied. The best officials complain bitterly of the excessive corruption, saying it is impossible to escape blackmail in one form or another. It is believed the Chinese government has never reached a lower state in this respect.

It is the opinion of the best posted foreigners that the Chinese officials are incapable; that they do not intend to turn foreign relief in the matter of the indemnity or of any other advantage toward the reparation and safeguarding of the state, and that the sympathy and help extended to China on this assumption is a mistake.
