

CONDITION IS UNCHANGED

Pope Rested Well Last Night

AND PULSE IS REGULAR

His General Condition is Somewhat Ameliorated and He May Live For Several Days.

Rome, July 11.—The Pope's physicians issued the following bulletin at 9.30 this morning: "The Pope slept during the night, at intervals. His pulse is now 90 and has been without irregularity since yesterday evening. His respiration is 30 and his temperature 20 degrees centigrade. His renal functions are still deficient but his general condition is somewhat ameliorated.

Dr. Lapponi said today that the Pope was no worse than a week ago and he would not be surprised if His Holiness fasted another week. A medical friend of Professor Manzoni told the Publishers Press correspondent today that there is now no doubt that Dr. Lapponi's original diagnosis of the Pope's illness was incorrect and that hepatisation never existed. The true character of His Holiness is that nephritis albumen has been found in the prelate's urine.

Senator Keane came to urge the President to attend the New Jersey militia encampment at Seagirt, but the President said he did not see his way clear to do so. The call of the others was purely social in character.

THE GENIAL LIPTON.

One reason why Sir Thomas Lipton should not have the America's cup is that he will quit if he gets it. We should greatly miss him and his multitudinous Shamrocks. — Philadelphia Press.

Sir Thomas Lipton said the other day that a hundred proverbial reasons boded success for his third attempt to lift the America's cup, but that, should he fail, he would be found at the starting line a year hence with Shamrock IV. To find the date of any given Shamrock in the twentieth century add its ordinal number to 1900, thus Shamrock XXIII, 1923.—New York Tribune.

Sir Thomas Lipton threatens not to defend the America's cup if he wins it. Sir Thomas has been the means of furnishing a great deal of entertainment on this side of the Atlantic and must have had a good deal of fun himself. He was not so very "easy" either. He has been just hard enough to beat to make it interesting. It is to be feared that Great Britain will not be able to produce his like.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

How King Peter Guards Himself. One of the first government acts of the new King of Serbia was to remove his name from the list of persons billed to be executed the moment they are caught, says a special cable dispatch from Belgrade to the New York American and Journal. He had been on the list since 1898 and had to be very careful not to enter Serbian territory. Peter is not easily surprised by dynamite bombs. When driving he has a few in a side pocket of the carriage, and half a dozen or more are always on his writing desk disguised as match boxes, cigar holders and the like. "If Alexander had had two or three of these things beside his bed on the fatal night he could have defied any number of conspirators," said the king to the mayor of Belgrade.

NO CRITICISM TO MAKE.

Gov. McCullough and Party Inspect House of Correction.

Rutland, July 10.—Governor McCullough of Bennington, Lieut.-Gov. Zed S. Stanton of Roxbury, J. H. Merrifield of Newfane, speaker of the house of representatives, E. C. Bennett of Rutland, executive clerk, A. E. Cudworth of South Londonderry, John N. Woodin of Rutland, state prison directors, inspected the house of correction here today.

Governor McCullough said: "We found everything satisfactory. Have no adverse criticism to make." There are now 208 prisoners in the institution, the largest ever had. This is against 120 for the same time last year. The number has increased 79 since the license law went into effect May 1.

FRANKS OF ELECTRICITY.

Lightning Struck Twice in Morrisville Yesterday.

Morrisville, July 10.—During the electric storm today at about 12.40 p. m., lightning struck the northwest corner of the Universalist church tower, last above the clock. The corner was badly ripped out and the clock put partially out of commission. Fortunately the bolt was not followed by fire. The damage, while considerable, will not necessitate a very long job of repairs.

About a half hour later a second bolt struck the Slayton block, occupied by Ernest Gates for dwelling and store. The bolt seemed to enter through the chimney, as stove doors were blown open and soot and ashes scattered about the rooms. One transformer was entirely burned out and the electric lights throughout the building seem practically useless.

TURTLE RAISING.

Enterprise to Be Undertaken by United States Fish Commission.

Uncle Sam is going into the turtle raising business, says a Washington special dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer. It has been discovered that the green turtle is gradually becoming scarcer and bids fair to become an extinct species. Having in view the toothsome nature of green turtle soup and steaks, the United States fish commission has directed Professor Moore to get to work to devise a plan to preserve and propagate this great sea delicacy. It is a huge animal when full grown, frequently weighing as much as 300 pounds. It is a tropical product, and the only place where it can now be found in any numbers on our coast is in Florida. It is now becoming extremely rare, and in places where it was formerly abundant one is seldom seen.

The cause of its disappearance is undoubtedly that its eggs are destroyed before having an opportunity to hatch. Turtles' eggs have been known as a great delicacy for years and command fancy prices in the markets. Many persons on the southern coasts formerly made a regular practice of hunting the shores for nests. Raccoons have also destroyed great quantities of eggs and have been a big factor in the disappearance of the turtle. They patrol the coasts regularly in Florida, and it is seldom that a nest of eggs escapes their vigilant eyes.

Professor Moore says the plan of the government's experiments will be to get some of these eggs, hatch them and care for and protect the young until they attain the suitable age for breeding. It will be an easy matter to get all the eggs that may be desired at Key West, where turtles are regularly offered for sale and slaughtered. Runways will be constructed to take in a liberal beach area and a good portion of the sea, so that the turtles will have plenty of room in which to roam and swim about.

The fish commission is also to make experiments in the propagation of the loggerhead turtle, which is the variety that furnishes tortoise shell. The activity with which this turtle and its eggs have been hunted in recent years has made it very scarce also. The Florida supply is entirely exhausted, and at present specimens are found only on the coast of Mexico and Honduras.

Japan's Paper Windows.

In Japan very thin, transparent paper is used instead of glass in windows—not that glass is not as plentiful and cheap as in this country, but that the Japanese desire the paper to filter the air they breathe.

36 VICTIMS FROM HEAT

In New York City and Brooklyn.

SIXTY-FIVE PROSTRATIONS

Thermometer Registered 94 Yesterday—Hottest July 10th in History of Weather Bureau.

New York, July 10.—Thirty-six deaths and 83 prostrations in and around New York and Brooklyn tell the story of today's heat. It was the hottest July 10 in the history of the local weather bureau, the highest previous record being 91 degrees on July 10, 1880. Fortunately the humidity was only 46 per cent, when the temperature stood at 94 and increased but slowly from that time during the afternoon as the heat subsided. At eight o'clock tonight it was 95 per cent, but by that hour the temperature had fallen to 83 degrees, six degrees lower than at the same hour Thursday.

TWO LIQUOR RAIDS.

Seizures Made at American Hotel and Restaurant in Vergennes.

Vergennes, July 10.—S. W. Hines, N. J. McChesne and Lewis Bondan, city license commissioners, yesterday afternoon swore out complaints against John W. Perkins, proprietor of the American house, and Fred Barnard, proprietor of a restaurant on Green street on the charge of illegal liquor selling. The officers searched both places last evening. At the American house they seized two barrels and a basket of beer, in a cellar adjoining the Barnard restaurant they seized a half barrel of gin, a half barrel of whiskey and some bottled goods.

Perkins, Barnard, and the latter's cook, Matthew Fox, were arrested brought before Judge Tuttle and held in $500 bail for a hearing to be held late this afternoon. Ward Spaulding and James Donoway became sureties for Barnard, while W. H. Adams and W. P. Poole performed a like service for Perkins. State's Attorney J. B. Donoway will prosecute the cases.

Public opinion sustains the commissioners in their endeavor to enforce the new liquor law.

PALMER IS EXAMINER.

Legal Opinion That He Hold the Position.

Burlington, July 10.—At a special meeting of the board of aldermen, held last night, Mayor Burke withdrew his appointment of J. A. Gings as police examiner to succeed L. E. Palmer, after the opinion of Attorneys R. E. Brown and W. L. Burdop had been read to the effect that the appointment by Mayor Hawley of Mr. Palmer would hold. The other feature of the evening was the opinion of City Attorney Brown that the suspended police officers were lawfully entitled to their pay since their suspension and the authorization of the payment of the bills presented.

INTERESTING POINT OF LAW.

Can a Man Disinherit His Children for a Woman Not His Wife.

Bennington, July 10.—An interesting question in which the right of a man to dispose of his property as he sees fit has been on trial before Surrogate Heaton of the Troy probate district this week, the decision on which will be announced July 20. The man living in unlawful relations with a married woman can disinherit his children, and leave all to the woman that he lives with.

The questions in dispute are caused by the entering for probate of the will of Fayette Eddy, formerly a resident of Lincoln. Six years ago he left there accompanied by Mrs. Peter Miller. Six children he left in the care of relatives in that town. The youngest was then two years old. After leaving Lincoln the couple resided a short time in Ballston, eventually reaching Troy, where they have since resided. April 23 last he made his will and while the amount of his property was not large, he left the whole of it, $400, to Mrs. Miller. On the third day of May Eddy died. He left six children, of which two are over 21 years old. Among the children younger are Florence, of East Orange, aged 13 years; Ralph of Bristol, aged 10 years; Fayette of Bristol, aged eight years.

The witnesses to the will were all examined and all objected to the probating of the document. George B. Wellington, now of this town, appeared for the contestants. The decision of the surrogate is awaited with much interest.

PAGES LOST VALUABLE HORSE.

Animal Was Driven to Waterbury Where It Died From the Heat.

Page Bros., the well known livery men of this city, lost a valuable livery horse yesterday, which was being driven to Burlington. Dr. J. E. McSweeney missed the morning train out of this city for Burlington and engaged a team and driver at Page's to take him to Burlington.

Lon Page was driving the horse, and they left here about nine o'clock. When about two miles this side of Waterbury they noticed that the horse was sweating badly and acted queerly. They drove into a livery stable at Waterbury and Dr. McSweeney took another team and went on.

A veterinarian was called to see the sick horse but the animal died in less than an hour. Page Bros. valued the horse at $150.

THE HAY CROP.

Estimated That It Will Be About Two-thirds Usual Amount.

Montpelier, July 10.—Farmers from surrounding towns report that the hay crop this year will be on the average about two-thirds that of last year. In Cabot, the grain is fairly good, especially clover, and some farmers have already begun their haying. Some farmers on the Worcester road report a better crop than last year from the same fields. This, however, is explained by the fact that these fields were overflooded and greatly enriched at the time of the high water this spring.

WATER SUPPLY EXHAUSTED.

East Barre People Were Compelled to Carry Water.

East Barre, July 11.—Yesterday morning the water supply gave out and the patrons except the lower part of the village had to carry their water from a distance, during the day. This failure was a complete surprise to every one, in view of the recent rains. But these have failed to reach the lower springs, and there has been too liberal a use of water in sprinkling lawns and in other ways.
