IF LIFE INSURANCE IS GOOD,

why is it solicited by Agents, and advertised, and urged, and pushed? Because weeds, only, grow against the grain. Men will break the law to waste and misuse money, but wisdom, prudence, economy—in short, insurance (and Annuity) must be taught and proved; consequently this notice.

Amendment to Chapter 22, Sec. 12 of the City Ordinances. Ordinances Relating to the Power and Duties of Police-men, City of Barre, Offered July 6th, A. D., 1903.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Barre as follows: That Section 12 of Chapter 22, relating to the police department, be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 12—Members of the police must faithfully patrol the streets and not stand upon the streets, or hold conversation with persons thereon, except in necessary discharge of their official duties.

Any police officer or member of the city council may arrest, without warrant, any person committing an offense in his presence against any of the Ordinances of the City.

Any police officer may also arrest, without warrant upon view, any person who is found intoxicated in the City.

All persons, when so arrested without warrants, must be as soon thereafter as possible, taken before a proper court or magistrate so that they may be duly complained of and prosecuted for the offense for which they are arrested. But nothing contained in this section shall authorize the arrest, without warrant, for the violation of a City Ordinance after twelve o'clock at night on Saturday until after twelve o'clock at night of the following Sunday. But arrests of persons found intoxicated may be made on Sunday as well as on other days of the week. Nothing in this section shall be construed to abridge the right of a policeman or member of the City Council to arrest, without warrant, in such cases as the general law of the State permits of such arrests.

Presented to the City Council July 6th, 1903, and referred to the Committee on Legislation. Reported back to the City Council July 13th, 1903, and adopted and ordered printed.

Barre City Clerk's Office, Barre, Vt., July 15th, 1903.

I hereby certify that the above is a true copy as appears by the files and records in this office, this day examined and compared by me.

A Seasonable Suggestion

Soda Water

Is always "in season." Whether taken hot or cold it is a wholesome beverage provided the flavoring syrups are all right. Cold Soda drawn from our good fountain lacks nothing that could be desired by the most sensitive palate. We use only pure juices made direct from fresh fruits and can give varied flavors. Our "Cold Soda" is always cold.
