Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Severance of Montpelier are expecting most any day to hear in regard to the remains of Max, their son, which were sent out from Manila to this country. They were placed aboard the Sherman, but that boat was wrecked and was not heard from for three weeks. The cargo was transferred to another transport sailing for New York and the Sherman was sent to Hong Kong for repairs. This fact has disarranged matters so that it cannot be told when the transport will reach New York.
