Postmaster General Improving.

Washington, July 27.—F. H. Whitney, private secretary to Postmaster General Payne, has received a dispatch from Mr. Payne dated at Portland, Me. saying, "Am very much improved."

"That's Colonial Paint. All Right!" No other works like it. We have heard this said numberless times.

The man who uses Colonial once will have no other. He says that it goes farthest and looks best. He has never had a dissatisfied customer, which is saying a good deal. He finds the surface when he comes to repaint in perfect condition to receive the new coat.

The manufacturer of this paint puts a label on every package giving the analysis. What more could be desired. Sold by C. A. Heath in Barre.
