Now for Cut Prices!

We have now reached the season of the year when we always cut prices on Spring and Summer Clothing. We have no excuse to offer. We simply wish to convert the balance of this season's stock into cash and get ready for Fall and Winter goods, and our low prices will certainly move the stock from the store into the possession of our patrons. We don't want this advertisement to appear sensational or read like a fake. We wish to impress sensible people as a truthful statement of a plain business proposition. Tomorrow we begin to cut prices straight—an actual mark-down without a previous mark-up. We do this because it's good business policy, and these cut prices offer you the best kind of business reasons for buying.

Quite a number are seen every night at the tent of Dr. Gray, hearing his talk and the music and other entertainment.

On the afternoon of Wednesday a six-horse team and a baronche from Montpelier entered our town bringing our old resident, Will Poole, and a number of others to spend the afternoon with Harry Mc-Allister. They had a good time themselves and gave all within hearing of their cornet and their songs a jolly time too.

A very large number gathered at the opera house on Wednesday evening. An air of expectancy was very noticeable, the cause made apparent about 9 o'clock when Frank Watson and his bride, Helen (Lawson) Watson, entered the room. She wore a white silk dress, a large white hat and wedding veil, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Many valuable presents were tendered them, among which we noticed a white enameled bed, a chamber suite complete, a kitchen range and a silver lamp. Refreshments were served and dancing was indulged to the merry music of Peter Dubay and his wife. The bride and groom left on the midnight train for Boston followed by the usual shower of rice and the best wishes of their many friends.
