THE JETT-WHITE TRIAL

State Calls Witnesses in Rebuttal of Defense's Evidence.

Cynthiana, Ky., Aug. 8.—The first witness in the trial of Curtis Jett and Thomas White was D. B. Goode, a newspaper man, called by the state. Mr. Goode testified that he was in Jackson the day after the killing of J. B. Marston and was in a room with Haggis and Ewen alone, and Ewen had stated to Haggis then that he knew who killed Marston. Goode stated that Ewen had repeated this statement to him the next day after the above incident, but requested that it be not published, as he feared for his life.

O. X. Bolling, another rebuttal witness, testified that he had seen Thomas White and Curtis Jett together on the streets of Jackson the day before and ten days before the killing. His testimony contradicts both Jett and White.

M. C. Bailey, the foreman of the grand jury which indicted Jett and White, testified as to Ewen's good moral character and reputation for truthfulness. His testimony contradicts Callahan as to his reading the signed statement before the grand jury, and the signed statement was introduced and read to the jury. In some material facts it was contradictory to the evidence of Sheriff Callahan.

Boston Rinters Sentenced.
Boston, Aug. 8.—Granville Martin, William M. Trotter and Bernard Charles, who were found guilty of disturbing the Booker T. Washington meeting at the Zion A. M. E. church a week ago, were brought before Judge Bennett for sentence. Martin and Trotter were given the maximum penalty of thirty days. Charles was fined $50. The others appealed.
