

Buy Your Cotton Now

SHEETING, BED SPREADS,
SHEETS AND PILLOW CASES.

Recent cotton reports show the most remarkable rise in the price of cotton in recent years. While a great deal of this is due to shrewd speculation, there is a short crop and an increased demand.

Each week we receive advance quotations on most staple articles and would advise our customers to take advantage of our present stock, as we cannot buy it again at present prices. Look over your stock and if in need of Sheeting, Bed Spreads, Sheets and Pillow Cases buy now.

FABRIC GLOVES AT REDUCED PRICES.

Ernest Drevett of Boston, who for 21 years was connected with the New York city fire department, has written a letter to Mayor Corry of Montpelier commending the work of the Montpelier fire department at the Lenox fire last Monday evening. He said, "I have been for twenty-one years connected with the New York city fire department and considering your system of organization and apparent scant supply of hose and imperfect apparatus, your department deserves in my estimation a great credit for the way that fire was handled; but it may have proved disastrous had any kind of wind been blowing at the time."

Who Will Claim Them?

The following letters appear on the advertised list for Aug. 15, 1903:

Men—George M. Ayers, James Alexander (2), James Brown, Archie T. Brown, Adna Batchelder, Lewis Badger, Master Neil A. Benzie, Wm. Batchelder, Batista Carimatti, Frank E. Connell, J. N. Chamberlain, Jabo di Barro, A. O. Downing, Alphonse Crotean, Cecelia & Lombardo (2), M. J. Devaney, William David, Norman Emerson, Wm. J. Edwards, Wm. Gymer, L. E. Hyland, B. F. WILLIAMSTOWN.

Rev. F. E. Currier and family returned yesterday from their month's vacation at Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Briggs went to Plattsburg, N. Y., today for a visit with Mrs. Briggs' brother, Herbert Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ingalls spent the day at Barre yesterday.

Several from here attended the circus at Barre but do not speak very highly of it.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Williams are taking a carriage drive to New Hampshire where they will visit relatives.

The Highest Railway.

The Ferrocarril Central del Peru is the highest railway in the world. In eight hours it takes passengers from the tropic to the eternal snows at an altitude nearly equal to the top of Mont Blanc, the highest summit in Europe. It cost $45,000,000 to build this road.

Living in India.

It costs very little to support a family in India. Millions of men in that country live, marry and rear healthy children upon an income which, even when the wife works, is rarely above 60 cents a week.

The Sheep Express.

Sheep draw little express wagons in India and Persia.

Slaves in Slam.

Besides the native slaves in Slam there are, according to one authority, 1,200,000 prisoners of war and descendants of such prisoners held in captivity to serve three months every year.
