Saturday Sale, August 22d,
Remnants of All Kinds!

When we say Remnants all ladies that hear our call prepare to have their share and be at them as early in the day as they possibly can. They always find goods that they need, especially those with children to clothe. This sale, coming just before opening of schools, will be all the more appreciated. There are Remnants from every department in our store. Any odd length will be put into this sale and priced accordingly. Do not ask to take any of these Remnants out before Saturday, as it cannot be allowed. They must be here just as advertised.
