CLOUD BURSTS IN IOWA.

Caused Great Destruction of Property in Council Bluffs.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Aug. 26.—Two cloudbursts tonight destroyed hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property in this city.

The first storm turned the streets of the city into rivers and hundreds of families in the lower districts of the city were removed from their homes with difficulty.

Many business houses were flooded. Another storm later in the evening raised the water still higher.

The Rock Island and Milwaukee are also tied up.

Street car traffic between Council Bluffs and Omaha has been suspended for six hours.

The crop damage in southwestern Iowa cannot be estimated.

FEDERAL OFFICERS MAY ACT.

Believed that Will Be the Quickest Way of Reaching Anarchist Paper.

Montpelier, Aug. 26.—State's Attorney F. A. Bailey has started the investigation of the Italian paper known as the Cronaca Soverana, which is published weekly in Barre, and which has been complained of by the state department at Washington through Gov. John G. McCullough as being "revolutionary and anarchistic."

Mr. Bailey has brought the matter to the attention of United States District Attorney John L. Martin of Brattleboro, and it may be possible that if action is taken it will be brought in the United States district court, provided that will be the quickest manner to bring the matter up.

Barry & Williams are the only local dealers who sell the Household.

AMERICAN CONSUL IS ASSASSINATED

William C. Magelssen, Vice Consul at Beirut, Assassinated While Riding in Carriage.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Minister Leishman today cables the state department from Constantinople that William C. Magelssen, American vice consul at Beirut, has been assassinated while driving in his carriage.

Magelssen was appointed from Minorca in 1898. The department cabled for further particulars and will not declare its policy in the matter until a fuller report is received.

MAY LOSE LIQUOR LICENSE.

Burlington Licensee Charged With Selling to a Minor.

Burlington, Aug. 26.—A notice was served today upon W. B. Craven, proprietor of the Waldorf Cafe, on Church street, summoning him to appear before the liquor commissioners tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock to show cause why his license should not be revoked.

Mr. Craven is charged by the commissioners with selling to a minor and violating the treating clause.

This case is the first of its kind in Vermont under the new liquor law. It undoubtedly proceeds from the statement made by a soldier in city court a short time ago.

The young man was fined for intoxication upon his plea of not guilty. In his own defence he stated that he obtained several glasses of liquor at Mr. Craven's place, and it was drawn out by the city grand juror's questions, that the prisoner was 20 years of age last November.

This case is likely to excite some interest as being the first one heard. The liquor statute provides for the revocation of a liquor dealer's license for several causes.

Mr. Craven obtained a first class license in the spring, which is one to sell all kinds of intoxicating liquor.

The license fee was $1,200.

AN ASSAULT IN CHELSEA.

Mrs. Lorenzo S. Spear Driving Home at Night Attacked by Unknown Man.

Chelsea, Aug. 26.—On Wednesday evening of last week Mrs. Lorenzo S. Spear was driving from this village to her home in Verabire when she was attacked by an unknown man at the point where a road leads to the farm last inhabited by Homer Alger.

The man smashed the lantern, jumped into the wagon, and tried at the same time to turn the horse up the side road and to cover Mrs. Spear's mouth so that she could not call for help.

He succeeded in turning the horse and a fierce struggle ensued, during which the wagon moved on some fourteen rods. Mrs. Spear's strength was finally exhausted and she was dragged from the wagon.

At this point Smith Taylor's dog began to bark and Mr. Taylor came out of his house with a lantern to see what the dog was barking at.

Thinking help was coming, the man decamped and Mrs. Spear succeeded in reaching home. Her health is improving and she has been recovering but slowly from the shock.

No arrest has been made as yet, as identification of the wretch is not certain.

DEAD IN HIS BOAT.

D. C. Smith Found on Lake Near Vergennes.

Vergennes, Aug. 26.—Daniel C. Smith, a prominent farmer and well known citizen of Addison, was found dead Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in a boat floating on Lake Champlain about opposite his residence in West Addison by his son, Fred.

His death was caused by heart disease, from which he had suffered for some time.

Mr. Smith, accompanied by his grandson, went out on the lake fishing, but the boy got tired and came home late in the afternoon.

As Mr. Smith did not return at dark a party started out in search of him and found him about eight o'clock.

Mr. Smith was 74 years old and is survived by a wife, one son, Fred C. of Addison and one daughter, Mrs. Bralley of Concord, Mass.

Mr. Smith has been prominent in town affairs and has held most of the important offices in the town and represented it in the legislature in 1888. The funeral will be held at the house Friday afternoon at one o'clock.

RELIANCE AN EASY LEADER

The Cup Will Not Be Lifted This Year.

SHAMROCK IS OUTSAILED.

Shamrock Lost More Than Half Her Time Allowance at the Start. Wind Light.

Highlands, N. J., Aug. 27.—It was not a very promising outlook this morning for a yacht race. First there was no wind and then the sea was a rolling sea, but before 11 o'clock arrived the wind had increased to six knots an hour and a smart shower had smoothed the sea.

The wind today was due east and the course was 15 miles southeast to windward and return. The preparatory gun was sounded at 10.45 and the yachts began to scrap for the weather position.

Both yachts were handicapped at the start, the Reliance crossing the starting line at 11.02.45 and the Shamrock at 11.03.47.

This poor start handicapped the Shamrock one minute and two seconds, and was a serious set-back at the beginning. The delay in starting was caused by Capt. Barr getting on to Capt. Wringe's weather quarter and hanging there during the jockeying for the start.

Just before the handicap gun was sounded at 11.02 both yachts fetched about by the outer side of the lightship and had to come about again to make the start.

Never in the memory of the oldest yachtsman, an English skipper been so badly defeated as was Capt. Wringe in today's start, when Capt. Barr by his tactics cut the Shamrock's time allowance in half.

The official starting time was: Reliance 11.02 Shamrock 11.02

The racers crossed the line on the port tack, and after a short hitch toward the Jersey shore, tacked to starboard and stood away to seaward. The Reliance pointed higher and increased her lead on the Shamrock from the beginning.

At 11.27 the Shamrock tacked to port and the Reliance followed a minute later. The latter continued to maintain the windward position and in the lead. The Shamrock footed fast, but the Reliance pointed higher and made steady gains in her lead.

At noon the Reliance was leading her about three minutes. The wind continued to freshen.

At 12.30 the Reliance tacked to starboard and three minutes later the Shamrock crossed her wake followed by the former's tacking to port. The Shamrock then tacked to starboard.

The Reliance tacked to starboard at 12.35. The wind was holding southeast six to seven knots and it seemed more than likely that the yachts would finish within the time limit. The Reliance was making further gains to windward. The boats were then about four miles from the outer mark.

There was no particular change in position for the next twenty minutes, but at one o'clock the Shamrock seemed to be footing faster than the Reliance, getting the advantage of the slant of the wind. Both boats had tacked to port.

In the next twenty minutes the Shamrock seemed to get the more wind, but the Reliance was still half a mile to windward.

It was so hazy when the yachts rounded the outer mark they could hardly be seen from this point. The Shamrock was about six minutes behind at the turn.

With this lead the Reliance is sure to win, barring accidents, and time limit.

THE MORNING PREPARATIONS.

Did Not Look Much Like a Race Up to Time of Starting.

Highlands, N. J., Aug. 27.—The weather this morning did not promise very well for a race today. At 8 o'clock the wind was almost flat and the sea rolling, and in the next hour the wind had not increased to over a knot and a half an hour. To add to the dismal outlook rain began falling at 8.30 and there was a smart shower off shore, with a heavy mist prevailing. The outlook was very far from promising for a race, but at a little before 9 the Reliance took tow for the flagship and the Shamrock followed a few minutes later.

At 10.30 the signal was hoisted indicating the course to be 15 miles to windward and return, with the course southeast.
