And now the noble Reliance may go to the junk heap. How nice it would be if we could race with real boats!

New York Mail and Express.

Now that the other world powers have united in demanding of China that her "reform editors" be not tortured to death, it may henceforth be possible for a Chinese writer to take his pen in hand without taking his life in his hand at the same time.

Boston Herald.

We are repeatedly assured by eastern journals that the west shall have money to move its crops. Small thanks to the east! The money which will come west for crop moving is that of western men, temporarily loaned to help out the ever needy east.

The obligation of the west in the case is that of the depositor to the bank which honors his checks—a thing it must do or bust.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

PAINT AND INK.

George Burroughs Torrey, an American artist, will paint a portrait of the king of Greece, who will present it to his royal wife.

Charles Dumas, who has been honored with the Sully-Prudhomme prize, which is equivalent to being made poet laureate of France, is just out of his teens.

Professor Franz von Lenbach, one of the greatest of German portrait painters, is at work on a portrait of Marshall Field of Chicago, which will be hung in the new museum in that city.

It is promised that, thanks to modern surgery, M. Jules Verne will soon be able to resume his favorite sport of yachting and his work of writing stories. He has been blind from cataract, and refused for a time, to the sorrow of his friends, to submit to an operation.

CHURCHMEN.

Max Savage, son of the distinguished divine, Rev. Minto J. Savage, has just been ordained a Unitarian minister at Lexington, Mass.

Rev. E. O. Tilburn of Tonawanda, N. Y., has hit upon the novel scheme to swell his congregation by giving trading stamps to people who attend his church.

Rev. George C. Lorimer, the famous New York pastor, denies the report that he was contemplating the acceptance of a call to a London church. He says he shall never accept a call outside of the United States.

Rev. Dr. Poindexter S. Henson of Brooklyn, who it has been reported would succeed Dr. Lorimer at the Tremont temple, in Boston, says, "I was twenty years in Philadelphia, twenty years in Chicago, and I am going to stay twenty years in Brooklyn."

There will be a basket picnic at Irvin Covell's in honor of Mrs. Barney Goodrich and Mrs. Barney Flint, today, Saturday.

There will be a ball game and other sports. A corn roast in the evening will close the festivities of the day.

Remember the baked bean supper Saturday at 5 p. m. at I. O. O. F. hall. A first class supper for 10 cents, followed by a good entertainment in the evening, and promenade, games, etc. Supper 10c, supper and entertainment 15c, entertainment alone 10c.

An Educator's Exploring Trip. President Harper of the University of Chicago has succeeded in securing from the sultan the right to explore the ruins of ancient Babylon. The university has now obtained permission to excavate in Tel Ibrahim. Application was made to the sultan for permission to explore the ruins of Babylon and its neighborhood in 1900, and after long delays it was granted. But further delays occurred, and the trade was not issued. Then it was discovered that the Germans had received permission to explore the same territory. It is believed that the ruins of the temple in which Nebuchadnezzar offered sacrifices in 580 B. C. and also an extensive library of clay tablets will be uncovered.

Clay Pipes. Five-sixths of the clay pipes so much used by smokers are made at Mogsdore, O. The industry began twenty-five years ago on a small scale. Now the plant is the largest in the world. It is not an unusual thing for a boy to make 10,000 in one day.

Slept as He Walked. Rising in his sleep, a Swiss workman living near Neuchatel walked a quarter of a mile and only awoke when he put his foot in a pool of water by the roadside.
