The report is in circulation that after October 1, when the new change of timetable takes effect on the Central Vermont, the evening New York train will be taken off and the old local train service resumed at the usual meeting hour at Montpelier Junction, and that the Sunday train service will also be discontinued.—Montpelier Argus.

Of the coming drill of the Uniformed Rank, K. of P., the Rutland News says of the Rutland company: "The Rutland company is confident of winning the trophy cup which is offered for the drill, but the members feel that they will have a walkover, as they have had in past years. The strongest rival of the local company will probably be the company from St. Albans, which organization is in the best possible condition. The Burlington company is an unknown quantity but is liable to show surprising strength."

At the Methodist church Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock Rev. W. H. White will give a patriotic, humorous and instructive lecture on "John Bull and Uncle Sam." Dr. W. Paine of Royalton says of the lecture and lecturer: "Rich in anti-thesis, abundant in Anglo-Saxon good nature and the quaintest humor, this lecture, 'John Bull and Uncle Sam,' by Rev. W. H. White afforded a pleasing and instructive summer evening's entertainment to the people of Royalton. A born Englishman and a thoroughly naturalized American, Mr. White's opportunities for observation have been as great as his talent is unique." Admission 15 cents.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

AT IT AGAIN.

This time it is WINTER GARMENTS FOR MISSES AND CHILDREN. Just to start the business off lively we are putting on sale fifty Children's Coats that we purchased in July at a very small price. They are made of Zibeline, the most popular cloth for Coats this season. Capes, collars and cuffs have stitched satin edges, headed with a silk gimp. It's a Coat that you would expect to pay $4.50 or $5.00 for. You take what we have on hand, and that finishes them, at only $2.98 each.

Thirty-five MISSES' JACKETS in sizes 12, 14, 16 and 18 years, made of best American Kersies, in tans, navies, blacks and reds. Will stand any amount of hard wear. They were made early at a price. We are going to start them at $7.50 each. These are values that will not appear later.

If you enjoy looking at swell styles in JACKETS or FURS we can royally entertain you.

With MUNSING UNDERWEAR at the head we can take care of your wants with excellent satisfaction.

Our stock of FALL GOODS is the largest in our history. We are looking for your patronage.
