Murder at Chicago Centennial.
Chicago, Oct. 1.—In the center of the vast throng of people which was waiting for the centennial parade to pass at Jackson boulevard and Clark street Dennis Sheehan, sixty years old, was stabbed over the heart by Charles Earl and is dying. His assailant, who was arrested, told the police he had come from New York to attend the centennial celebration. The assault upon Sheehan came when Earl interposed with him when he was trying to get a good view of the parade.
