

NOEL CREEK

Was Depressed and Irritable

655 Linn Street, Cincinnati, O., August 15, 1903.

Mr. Creek says: "For several months I seemed to suffer from depression—was irritable and nervous. Obtained no satisfactory rest from my sleep, and appetite was poor. I was induced by a friend to try Paine's Celery Compound, and the reaction was instantaneous. I am satisfied that I have been saved a serious sick spell by promptly using this marvelous remedy."

THE FLOOD

SUBSIDING

Paterson and Passaic Emerge From Their Watery Graves.

FEEDING HOMELESS PEOPLE

Relief Committee Hampered by Scarcity of Supplies, Owing to Interruption in Railway Traffic. Many Houses May Collapse.

Paterson, Oct. 14.—The water is falling rapidly all over the immediate portions of New Jersey from Pompton lake to the Hackensack meadows, and in Paterson and Passaic there has been a drop of several feet during the past twenty-four hours. In Paterson, the worst sufferer from the flood, Main, Bank and River streets, as well as Hamilton avenue, are still part of the Passaic river, but the water is much lower.

The lower floors of all the houses in this portion of the city and on the other side of the river are under water. The rush of water in these streets is so strong that the men who wade about in rubber boots, helping those in need, keep their feet with difficulty even when away from the center of the current.

Fears are entertained that many of the frame houses in the flooded district will be undermined before the river shrinks between its banks. Two saloons on Bank street have already collapsed.

Only Three Bridges Left. Of the nine or ten bridges in the city only three remain, and they have been partially submerged and are seriously damaged. On the heights at the falls what is known as the falls bridge has escaped injury, but the remnant of roadway leading to it on Spruce hill is impassable and is in charge of the police. The roadway skirted the hill above the city, which was carried away on Friday in the first rush of swollen waters through the chasm beneath the falls. One man lost his life when the hill collapsed.

Nearly 500 families are homeless, but Mayor Hinchliffe is feeling to it that everything possible is done for their relief.

There is said to be, however, danger of a scarcity of food, and little or no milk is coming into the city. The city has been practically cut off from the outside world, as both railroads and trolley lines were either several feet under water or the rails had been washed away.

The Passaic river from Paterson to Passaic is covered with wreckage, mostly household furniture, which is being fished out by venturesome men and boys on floats or in boats or perched on whatever bridges are standing.

The Passaic county bridge, which was considered safe, has gone down, and the farmhouses and woods around Carlton are under water. In this neighborhood the Passaic has assumed the proportions of a lake, and the residents have been obliged to seek shelter with their friends on the high grounds.

Bodies of Flood Victims Found.

Bolvidere, N. J., Oct. 14.—Two more bodies, victims of the flood, have been found in a field near here. They had been drowned on Friday night or Saturday morning during the height of the storm. The two men, who were Germans, slept in a small house on the banks of the Delaware river, and the great rush of water carried the house away, and the men were drowned before they could get out. The spot where the bodies were found was some distance away from the river. The water receded and exposed the bodies lying in the lot. The names of the victims were not known here.

Erie Open Again.

New York, Oct. 14.—The temporary trestle at the washout on the Erie railroad near Clifton has been completed, and the main line is now open to Suffern. It is said that the damage done on the Erie by the flood had been repaired except the washouts near Rainapo and on the Greenwood Lake division at Little Falls. The Buffalo express left in time as announced. Traffic was nearly normal on the other railroads. The trolley lines in Jersey City are operating again as usual.

DAVID LAMAR ON TRIAL.

New York Hooker Accused of Hitting Thugs to Attack Coachman.

Freshford, N. J., Oct. 14.—The court room was crowded when the trial was resumed before Judge Heisley and a jury of David Lamar, Bernard Smith, "Monk" Eastman and Joseph Brown, indicted for conspiring to assault and assaulting James McMahon, Lamar's former coachman. The jury had been carefully guarded in the court room throughout the night, and their meals were brought to them.

Mrs. McMahon, the wife of the plaintiff, the first witness, gave testimony similar to that given by her husband as to attempts having been made to induce McMahon to leave his home at night.

Central Office Detective John Kelly of New York, the next witness, said he saw Lamar with Eastman and some of his gang in New York a day or two after the assault. He was one of the officers that arrested Eastman and Brown. Kelly testified that Lamar expressed a wish that the case would not get into the papers.

Detective Kelly was sharply cross examined by Edmund Wilson, counsel for Lamar. Central Office Detective Gallagher of New York gave testimony similar to that of Kelly.

STOCKS HIGHER.

General Improvement Throughout the List.

New York, Oct. 14.—The industrial and railroad shares were again ranged against each other in the stock market. The tone of the market was much better, as closing prices had freshened up, but in the improvement the industrials lagged at first and then took a more intimate part in the general advance.

The railroads went moderately above the previous day's quotations. The liquidation, which had been of a forced character, appeared to be over, which, with the higher range of prices abroad and Russia's expansion of her position in Manchuria, helped to strengthen the general situation.

Rumor Drives Crucible Steel Down.

Pittsburg, Oct. 14.—A rumor on the Stock Exchange that a receiver would be appointed for the Crucible Steel company caused a break of $12 a share in the preferred stock. Later the rumor was officially denied, and the stock rallied.

Hawaiian Politics.

Honolulu, Oct. 14.—Very little interest is being taken in the present political campaign in Kauai county, where the home rule ticket has been withdrawn, its chances of success being considered hopeless. The Republican candidates are now the only ones in the field, and the election will be a mere formality. In other counties, however, a more lively canvass is in progress, considerable race feeling being manifested. In Honolulu meetings are held nightly by the home rulers and Republicans.

Mr. Cleveland Goes to Chicago.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 14.—Former President Cleveland has left here for Chicago. He drove to Princeton Junction and there boarded a special car on the Pennsylvania railroad. He will leave Chicago on his return Thursday morning.

SAVED JUST IN TIME

Brave Rescue of Fifteen Shipwrecked Sailors in Mid-ocean.

TEN DAYS IN A DERELICT.

With Little Food and No Protection From Wild Seas—Bark Sinks as the Survivors Are Being Rowed to Steamer Verona.

New York, Oct. 14.—The German steamer Verona, from China and Japan, has brought in fifteen shipwrecked mariners, taken from the Uruguayan bark Salvator Talavera in latitude 32.57, longitude 57.44. Captain Splasen of the Verona reports that on Oct. 8 about 5:30 o'clock in the morning the lookout reported a distress signal light. The steamer was headed for the light, and at daylight a dismantled vessel was seen laboring in the sea. The afterpart of her deck was crowded with men, and no boats were to be seen. The distress signal N. C. was displayed.

The Verona steamed close to the wreck. A boat was lowered, with the second and third officers as volunteers, and on going to the wreck found her to be the Salvator Talavera. Captain Secunda Maristany and fourteen men.

Vessel in Sinking Condition.

The vessel was in a sinking condition, all the masts and boats gone, the fore-cabin and cabin gutted by the sea and the provisions spoiled. The pumps were useless, having been broken by falling spars. The vessel was making three inches of water an hour, the wheel was broken, and the vessel had fallen in the trough of the sea, where the water broke continuously over the decks. Several men were taken off and returned to the steamship. In the meantime a second boat was lowered under command of the fourth officer. After five trips all were safely taken off.

The rescuing crew before leaving removed the main hatch in order to hurry the sinking. At 8:30 o'clock in the morning the Verona resumed the voyage.

Captain Maristany said that the bark sailed from Ferdinandia Sept. 7 and encountered a terrific hurricane, in which she was finally dismantled and water-logged on Sept. 25. The crew were obliged to cling to the wreck with a scarcity of provisions and constantly drenched by the breaking of the spars, until they were handsly taken off by the Verona.

For Constitutional Convention.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 14.—Governor Murphy has given out an interview favoring the holding of a constitutional convention to devise a new state constitution. The governor is in favor of new senatorial lines on a basis of population. He says this should not interfere with the holding of a convention, and consequently representation to the convention should be had from each county, so that the smaller counties would not be in a position to be outvoted on this question. The governor favors the establishment of assembly districts, and he also favors the wiping out of the constitutional provision which prohibits special legislation.

Father Betrays Son For $150.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 14.—Application was made to Governor Terrell for the reward of $150 offered for the capture of Tom Caruthers, sentenced to be hanged on Oct. 16 for the murder of Henry Ford and who escaped shortly after receiving his sentence. The officers were dumfounded to see that the application came from the father of the condemned youth, a farmer of Wilcox county. The papers were indorsed by the sheriff, who says the old man gave the information which led to his son's arrest.

Union Veterans at Lexington.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 14.—About 100 old soldiers were present when the first session of the Nineteenth annual encampment of the Union Veterans' union was called to order. Several welcoming addresses and responses were heard, and at their conclusion General R. S. Dyerforth of Washington announced that he declined to stand as a candidate for national commander. Several auxiliary organizations will hold meetings during the day.

A Fast Automobile.

Willoughby, O., Oct. 14.—F. B. Stearns of Cleveland, one of the automobilists taking part in the endurance contest from New York to Pittsburg, drove his twenty-ton touring car from Erie to this place, a distance of eighty-two miles, in three hours and thirteen minutes, which is said to break all records. The most of the other contestants arrived here about half an hour behind Stearns.

Shot by Niagara Hack Driver.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Oct. 14.—Joe McGill, a waiter, and Bert Durkee, a young man, were shot and probably fatally wounded by George Follett, a hack driver. Follett and Durkee were having words over the payment for a bottle of wine when Follett drew a revolver and fired four shots. Two struck McGill, one lodging near the heart. Durkee was also hit twice, both bullets lodging in his neck. It is believed both will die. Follett was arrested.

RUN DOWN AND NERVOUS

Vinol Completely Restored Mrs. Burns' Health.

Rickert & Wells, Our Well Known

Druggists, Agree to Return Money if Vinol Fails.

"Many people right here in Barre are all run down, hardly able to drag about, don't know what ails them. This condition is probably caused by a cold, or cough, which is hard to cure, overwork or too close confinement to business. Such people need Vinol," said Mr. Wells of the firm of Rickert & Wells, and the following letter is only one of many which we are constantly receiving showing what Vinol will do:

Mrs. W. T. Burns of Memphis, Tenn., who is national press correspondent of the W. R. C., writes: "Last winter I caught a severe cold which it seemed impossible for me to get rid of. I became much run down, lost my appetite and flesh and felt nervous and irritable. Vinol was recommended, and it certainly worked wonders for me; it increased my appetite, cured my indigestion, cough and nervousness, and I sleep soundly. I consider Vinol a wonderful remedy."

Vinol cures such conditions because it is the only preparation in the world that contains every one of the fifty odd medicinal curative elements found in fresh cods' livers and without one drop of useless oil, which characterizes old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions. It imparts in a natural manner strength and vigor to every organ of the body, aids digestion and makes rich, red blood.

Vinol is not a patent medicine, everything is printed on the bottle; it contains iron, and in a highly concentrated form, all of the vitalizing properties contained in cod liver oil. It is delicious and the weakest stomach can retain it.

We ask every run down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person in Barre and every person suffering from stubborn colds, hanging on coughs, bronchitis or incipient consumption to try Vinol on our guarantee. It costs nothing if it fails to give satisfaction. Rickert & Wells, Druggists.

CLOSE TO HOSTILITIES

Rumor From Shanghai That Japan Has Occupied Masanpho.

ENGLAND MAY BE DRAWN IN

Through Foreign Office and Japanese Minister Discredit Alarming Reports, London Is Pessimistic Regarding the Outcome.

London, Oct. 13.—A dispatch from Shanghai to the Frankfurter Zeitung says that news has reached there from Chefoo that the Japanese have occupied Masanpho and that an official declaration of war is expected.

Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister to Great Britain, in an interview said he had no information of such a character, adding that had Japan taken this action the Anglo-Japanese treaty would have necessitated his being immediately notified, so that he might inform the British government.

The foreign office says it has no confirmation of the reports of Japanese military movements at Masanpho.

British Getting Excited.

In spite of the reassuring statements of the foreign office and Baron Hayashi the frequent reiteration that hostilities between Russia and Japan are imminent, the mysterious movements of the Russian and Japanese fleets and the excited state of public opinion in Japan are beginning to cause disquiet in Great Britain, which, by reason of her alliance with Japan, is intimately concerned in any action which the latter may take in the far east.

Only the most sanguine persons believe that hostilities could be kept within the limits which would free Great Britain from her obligation to support her Japanese ally. Even Baron Hayashi, who heretofore has ridiculed all suggestion of war, is not so optimistic now. Indirectly he admits the possibility of war by expressing the hope that in the event of a crisis Japan will have the active sympathy of her ally, Great Britain.

While refusing to credit the reports of a Japanese ultimatum having been delivered, Baron Hayashi admitted that the diplomatic situation had changed since Oct. 8 and that developments may have arisen from the failure of the Russians to fulfill their engagement to evacuate Manchuria on that date. He, however, had heard nothing from his government on the subject.

Chefoo, the source of the latest alarming news, is several hundred miles from Masanpho, so the reports of Japanese military movements there are likely to be a repetition of similar stories circulated last week, which later accounts minimized.

TAKAHIRA STILL HOPEFUL.

Jap Minister in Washington Decries War Talk.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Aside from extensive military preparations by both nations the Japanese legation here is not advised that either Russia or Japan has as yet committed any act of war. The Japanese minister is being kept constantly advised by cablegrams from Tokyo of the situation, and, realizing its gravity, he is moving with great caution. The negotiations between Russia and Japan, according to his advice, are still in progress, and there is hope of a diplomatic settlement of the question at issue. The minister has authorized the following statement:

"His attention having been called to a certain unauthorized statement attributed to him that the public utterances of the Japanese people are all in favor of war with Russia, Mr. Kogoro Takahira, the Japanese minister, states that while there is some disquiet due to the unsettled state of affairs which has existed so long in the far east, it seems that it has been aggravated more recently by the unfounded rumors regarding military and naval movements in certain quarters, but in his judgment the intelligent section of the Japanese public has been generally calm and collected up to the present juncture, as they know that the matter has been for some time in the hands of responsible parties of Japan and Russia and that they have been negotiating with a view to arriving at an understanding between them.

For his own part, Mr. Takahira hopes for the best, because the situation is not without an indication so far that the Russian government is candidly disposed for a settlement of the question with Japan and therefore so long as the negotiations are proceeding with reasonable prospect of a result honorable to Japan there is no reason to be overanxious now.

"This," said the minister, "all that I can say at this moment."

Russian Newspaper Opinion.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 13.—Significance is attached here to the fact that the Official Messenger and the Journal de St. Petersburg print the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger's dispatch relating to the movement of the Russian fleet and the possible coincident landing of Russian and Japanese troops in different parts of Korea. Several newspapers publish reviews of Japan's military and naval strength.

tween Japan and Russia have reached a crisis, according to the official view here. The exact nature of the diplomatic exchanges between the two governments that brought out the present tensely appears to be unknown at the legations of the two countries here or at the German legations at St. Petersburg and Tokyo.

Manchuria Question Closed.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 14.—The foreign office says it has no official confirmation of the reported disembarkation of Japanese troops at Masanpho. Regarding Manchuria the foreign office states that the question is at present closed. The existing situation is the fault of the Chinese, Japanese and British. If China desired to reopen the negotiations and accept certain conditions the situation could still be changed, as Russia is not rooted to the soil and could leave if she liked.

Shanghai's Neutrality.

Yokohama, Oct. 14.—All reports emanating from Shanghai of the opening of hostilities between Japan and Russia, etc., may be dismissed as absurd. Russo-Japanese affairs are marking time. The second secretary of the Russian legation left Tokyo Oct. 12 with secret dispatches for the Russian viceroy of the far east, Admiral Alekseeff. An important conference of veteran Japanese statesmen, including the Marquis Ito, has been held at the premier's office.

Korean Modus Vivendi Mooted.

Erelin, Oct. 14.—The foreign office here now looks upon the situation in the far east as being less grave. Both Japan and Russia appear to be willing to arrange a modus vivendi concerning Korea, which country, and not Manchuria, is the extreme point of difference. Russia, it is asserted, would consider it a casus belli were Japan to land troops at Masanpho.

May Has Good News.

Washington, Oct. 14.—At the cabinet meeting Secretary Hay spoke of information he had received as to the situation in the far east, and it was his opinion that there was no immediate indication of hostilities between Russia and Japan. He intimated that negotiations are in progress between the two countries which seem likely to result favorably for peace.
