ROCHESTER MURDER HEARING.

Evidence Pointed Strongly Toward Joe Bean.

Rochester, Oct. 17.—The preliminary hearing in the mystery of the death of Ephraim Root, which was started yesterday, was continued today, the authorities calling some 25 witnesses.

It was sworn that Bean was intensely jealous of Root on account of the attentions of the latter to Mrs. John Green, wife of the sawmill owner, and formerly wife of Bean.

Bean had previously been a partner with Green in the business, but had sold out and left town. During his absence Mrs. Bean married Mr. Green, believing her former husband to be dead.

On the night of the murder Bean called on Mrs. Green and had an interview with her, when, it is alleged, he complained of the attentions Root was paying her.

Suspicion fell upon Bean, who was found in bed at the Hubbard residence. He was very excited and told conflicting stories as to his whereabouts the previous night.

It was testified that Bean was seen peering into the windows of the Green house while Root was at supper.

FIREMEN HAD PARADE.

Bellows Falls Fire Fighters Showed Up Very Well.

Bellows Falls, Oct. 17.—Firemen celebrated today in spite of the unfavorable weather. The department paraded and the fine appearance of the companies along the line of march caused much favorable comment.

The stormy weather necessitated the omission of the larger part of the programme, the only contest being the hose race for a silver cup, which was won by the International paper company's hose.

This race excited much interest, as the Bridgeman men had won the cup two years in succession and a victory this year meant ownership. The International won in 41:58. The Abenaki made the run in 51:58, the Shamrock in 53:58.

The inspection today found many radical improvements made and all branches are in a high state of efficiency.
