EMMETT'S BURIAL PLACE.

Irish Patriot's Bones Said to Be in St. Peter's Churchyard, Dublin.

Dr. Thomas Addis Emmet of New York has probably solved the mystery of the burial place of Robert Emmet, his great-uncle, the famous Irish patriot who was put to death by the English for high treason at Dublin on Sept. 20, 1803, says the New York Herald. In the Emmet family vault in St. Peter's churchyard, Angier street, Dublin, Dr. Emmet is convinced, the bones of his ancestor lie.

In his three months' trip abroad, just concluded, Dr. Emmet was unable to obtain permission to open this vault. He finally and positively proved, however, that Robert Emmet's body is not in St. Michael's churchyard or in Glasnevin. Tradition has never gone outside the three in designating the patriot's last resting place.

That Emmet's body lies in the family vault Dr. Emmet is assured from the elimination of the two other supposed burial places and from several other facts. Robert Emmet's sister was the wife of Robert Holmes, a noted barrister, who, returning from England on the night of the uprising for which Emmet was hanged, was arrested in Dublin and thrown into the tower prison. His family knew he was in Dublin, but learned no more of his fate. A year later, months after Emmet's execution, Holmes was released and, going home, was met by his wife. She fell dead in his arms, killed by the shock.

Mrs. Holmes was buried in the dead of night, contrary to all custom, and her body placed in the Emmet vault in St. Peter's, where lay her parents' bodies. Dr. Emmet believes this was done to enable the removal of Robert Emmet's body from the receiving vault in the same churchyard and its burial in the family vault.

When an edict prohibiting burials in Dublin was issued in 1840 the headstones and tomb covers in St. Peter's churchyard were taken up and the surfaces covered with a thick layer of cement. The stones were replaced promiscuously, merely indicating that the bodies they commemorated lay somewhere in the churchyard. Objections of families whose ancestors are buried there prevented Dr. Emmet from excavating.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

The Aches and Pains Will Disappear if the Advice of This Barre Citizen is Followed.

A woman's back has many aches and pains.

Most times 'tis the kidney's fault. Backache is really kidney ache. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Many Barre people know this. Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. Wm. L. Huntington (W. L. Huntington, granite cutter, address High Holborn, says: "A friend insisted upon my using Doan's Kidney Pills. From the amount of faith he evinced in the remedy I was induced to go to E. A. Drown's drug store for a box. I had been annoyed with kidney complaint for an indefinite period. The pain across my back and hips was very severe. If I stooped or straightened after stooping and when the sharp twinges were not in evidence, there was a continual dull aching. Added to the backache was a trouble with the kidney secretions, a sure indication that the action of the kidneys in some way must upset. I knew after the completion of the first box, from the direct action of my kidneys, that I had at last got hold of the remedy I sorely wanted, or I never would have bought a second nor a third box. To say I am pleased at the results I obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills mildly expresses what I think."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
