THE RESTORER.

Dowie says the newspaper editors are all going to perdition. Dear, oh, dear! And he's an editor himself.—Philadelphia Press.

It would be easier to believe that Dowie is a reincarnation of the spirit of the late lamented P. T. Barnum than of the ancient Elijah.—Exchange.

Dr. Dowie might pose as a restorer if he were selling a hair tonic instead of religion. His patriarchal beard would be a good exhibit.—Washington Times.

Our Dressmakers.

If all the dressmakers known to exist in America worked twenty-four hours of each day for a whole year without stopping for sleep or meals, they would still be able to make only one dress apiece for less than seven-eighths of the women of America.

Are you about to build? If so see that your builder's contract has a clause providing that the structure shall be erected by union labor which will insure you of good work and a job completed without delay. Per order Union 481, Carpenters and Joiners of America. S. R. Doty, Sec.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

Mrs. Margaret B. Guion, now residing in St. Louis at the age of ninety years, claims to be the oldest native born resident of that city.

The Duchess of Marlborough is very superstitious, one of her firmest beliefs being the very common one that black cats bring good luck.

Lady Henry Somerset has a contempt for William Waldorf Astor because he once spoke disparagingly of her work as a temperance advocate.

Miss Minnie Elshie Keizer, a stenographer of Pensacola, secured the enactment by the legislature of Florida of a law providing for the appointment of official stenographers in the circuit courts of the state.

Miss Helen Keller, the blind deaf mute, has been elected vice president of the senior class at Radcliffe college, the woman's department of Harvard. She is pursuing four full courses, two in English and two in Latin.

Mrs. La Follette, wife of the governor of Wisconsin, is said to be an enthusiastic dress reformer and builds much also on the physically regenerating effect of physical exercises of all sorts, though her favorite form is not walking, but running.

One of the mementos Miss Helen Bertram, the actress, is said to have discarded upon entering upon a third marriage was the ashes of her second husband, whose body had been cremated. She had been carrying them about with her, but decided to bury them.

Mrs. Jernia Gillilan of East Barre, Vt., who is ninety-two years old, won the first prize for a knit afghan displayed at the Caledonia county fair recently. Mrs. Gillilan is blind, but in the last five years has knitted and sewed four rugs, eight afghans and over 100 holders.

Mrs. Olga Goldzier of Chicago has been selected to fill the new chair of dressmaking in the Kuskun university at Glen Ellyn. This new professor of dressmaking was awarded the gold medal by the international exhibition of fashions in Vienna last year against competitors from the Austrian capital, London and Paris.

A Drop of Blood. A drop of blood which might hang from the point of a needle contains 1,000,000 red flattened corpuscles.

A LASTING EFFECT.

This Evidence Should Prove Every Claim Made for Doan's Kidney Pills in Barre.

Relief from the pain and aches of a bad back is always welcome to every backache sufferer; but to cure a lame, weak or aching back is what's wanted. Cure it so it will stay cured. It can be done. Here's the strongest evidence to prove it.

Geo. W. Brown, (carpenter of 23 Bowlin Street), says: "When living at 32 Pearl Street in the winter of 1897, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at E. A. Drown's drug store and after giving them a thorough trial I made the following statement through the Barre newspapers: 'Doan's Kidney Pills were worth their weight in gold to me.' That is my honest opinion. I add my reasons for thinking so. A few years ago I strained my back. It bothered me some at the time, but I paid little attention to it, thinking it would leave off of its own accord. It did not. It developed quite a serious kidney trouble. I tried various remedies but found nothing brought permanent benefit. In some manner my attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I tried them. They did me a wonderful amount of good, and stopped a weakness of the kidneys and renal organs which was very annoying at night. Now today, in the of May, 1902, I am pleased to continue my endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. I know of friends who have been benefited by their use. I have never relapsed into the condition that existed when Doan's Kidney Pills first came to my notice."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
