ACCUSED OF HERESY.

Boston Professor Called Before Methodist Ecclesiastical Court.

Boston, Dec. 2.—Papers have been served upon Professor Borden D. Bowne of Boston university calling him to trial before the ecclesiastical court of the Methodist Episcopal church to answer to the general charge of heresy.

Rev. George A. Cooke, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, West Medford, and a member of the New England conference, is the formal accuser of Professor Bowne, and the specifications, five in number, are based upon the general allegation that the professor has disseminated "doctrines which are contrary to the articles of religion or established standards of doctrines in the Methodist Episcopal church."

Professor Bowne is widely known as a writer on philosophy, and recent statements by him concerning the Bible and religious subjects have attracted much attention. Rev. Mr. Cooke is the author of a pamphlet, issued several months ago and circulated throughout the Methodist church, which criticises Professor Bowne's teachings.

The first specification against Professor Bowne is that the philosopher's views concerning the Deity are contrary to the plain teachings of the Scriptures. The second is that his views of the inspiration and authority of the Holy Scriptures are also contrary to those Scriptures. The third charge is that his notion of the atonement is contrary not only to the Scriptures, but also the ritual of the Lord's supper in the discipline of the church.
