Court Granite City, F. of A., held its annual election of officers last evening with the following result: Chief ranger, James Veale; sub. chief, Alex Stephens; treasurer, Peter Alexander; financial secretary, B. Julian; recording secretary, John Rowley; senior woodward, Ben Bylow; junior woodward, Henry Casellini; senior beadle, John Smith; trustee, G. W. Robertson; court physician, Dr. J. E. Sweetney; captain of guard, P. G. Lavery.

On last Saturday evening Province G. L. Miss Ethel Pollard of New Bedford, and Province C. S. Mrs. Kate Williams of Chelsea, Mass., instituted a Lodge of Odd Ladies, No. 37, I. O. O. L., M. U. After the installation of officers, the Province officers, in a very able manner pointed out the benefits to be derived from the order, not only by the members but to a certain extent by the community at large. The opening of the lodge, the installation of officers and the addresses made by the Province officers showed their fitness and ability to hold the high offices to which they were called by the Massachusetts district. Granite City lodge starts off in excellent condition having a charter membership of 48. All females between the age of 18 and 45 are eligible for membership, subject to certain conditions and requirements.
